37 And Philip said, [c]If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, [d]I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, [e]the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through, he preached in all the cities, till he came to Cesarea.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Saul, going toward Damascus, 4 is stricken down to the earth, 10 is called to the apostleship, 18 and is baptized by Ananias. 20 He preacheth Christ boldly. 23 The Jews lay wait to kill him: 29 so do the Grecians, but he escapeth both. 31 The church having rest, Peter healeth Eneas of the palsy, 36 and restoreth Tabitha to life.

A.D. 35.

AND [a]Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any †of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

3 And [b]as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven:

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, [c]why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. [d]It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he trembling, and astonished, said, Lord, [e]what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And [f]the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 ¶ And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, [g]named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul [h]of Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth,

12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias, coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, [i]how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests, to bind all [k]that call on thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for [l]he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before [m]the Gentiles, and [n]kings, and the children of Israel:

16 For [o]I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

17 [p]And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house: and [q]putting his hands on him, said, Brother Saul, the Lord (even Jesus that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest) hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and [r]be filled with the Holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. [s]Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, [t]that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said, [u]Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, [x]and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

23 ¶ And after that many days were fulfilled, [y]the Jews took counsel to kill him.

24 [z]But their laying wait was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and [a]let him down by the wall in a basket.

26 And [b]when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 [c]But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, [d]and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

28 And [e]he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem.

29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the [f]Grecians: [g]but they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 [h]Then had the churches rest throughout all Judea, and Galilee, and Samaria, and were edified: and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied.

32 ¶ And it came to pass, as Peter passed [i]throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certain man named Eneas, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.

34 And Peter said unto him, Eneas, [k]Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda and [l]Saron saw him, and [m]turned to the Lord.

36 ¶ Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called ‖Dorcas: this woman was full [n]of good works and alms-deeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in [o]an upper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not ‖delay to come to them.

39 Then Peter arose, and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter [p]put them all forth, and [q]kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body, [r]said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up; and when he had called the saints and widows, he presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Joppa: [s]and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one [t]Simon a tanner.

CHAPTER X.

1 Cornelius, a devout man, 5 being commanded by an angel, sendeth for Peter: 11 who by a vision 15, 20 is taught not to despise the Gentiles. 34 As he preacheth Christ to Cornelius and his company, 44 the Holy Ghost falleth on them, 48 and they are baptized.

THERE was a certain man in Cesarea, called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band,

2 [a]A devout man, and one that [b]feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God always.

3 [c]He saw in a vision evidently, about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.

5 And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter:

6 He lodgeth with one [d]Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea-side: [e]he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 ¶ On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, [f]Peter went up upon the house-top to pray, about the sixth hour:

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,

11 And [g]saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:

12 Wherein were all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; [h]for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, [i]What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

17 Now, while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius had made inquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate,

18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 ¶ While Peter thought on the vision, [k]the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 [l]Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, [m]Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and [n]of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by a holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, [o]and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered into Cesarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Peter took him up, saying, [p]Stand up: I myself also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?

30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and behold, [s]a man stood before me [t]in bright clothing,

31 And said, Cornelius, [u]thy prayer is heard, [x]and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

38 How [d]God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; [e]for God was with him.

39 And [f]we are witnesses of all things which he did, both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; [g]whom they slew and hanged on a tree:

41 [i]Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, [k]who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

42 And [l]he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify [m]that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge [n]of quick and dead.

43 [o]To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name [p]whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

44 ¶ While Peter yet spake these words, [q]the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 [r]And they of the circumcision which believed, were astonished, as many as came with Peter, [s]because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost [t]as well as we?

48 [u]And he commanded them to be baptized [x]in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Peter, being accused for going in to the Gentiles, 5 maketh his defence, 18 which is accepted. 19 The gospel being spread into Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, Barnabas is sent to confirm them. 26 The disciples there are first called Christians. 27 They send relief to the brethren in Judea in time of famine.

AND the apostles and brethren that were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, [a]they that were of the circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, [b]Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, [c]and didst eat with them.

4 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it [d]by order unto them, saying,

5 [e]I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:

6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter; slay, and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea unto me.

12 And [f]the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover, [g]these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:

13 [h]And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter;

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, [i]as on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, [k]John indeed baptized with water; but [l]ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

17 [m]Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, [n]what was I, that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, [o]Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.

19 ¶ [p]Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen, travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which when they were come to Antioch, spake unto [q]the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And [r]the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and [s]turned unto the Lord.

22 ¶ Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth [t]Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch.

23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and [u]exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and [x]full of the Holy Ghost, and of faith: [y]and much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to [z]Tarsus, for to seek Saul:

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves ‖with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

27 ¶ And in these days came [a]prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch.

28 And there stood up one of them named [b]Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send [c]relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea:

30 [d]Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

CHAPTER XII.

1 King Herod persecuteth the Christians, killeth James, and imprisoneth Peter; whom an angel delivereth upon the prayers of the church. 20 In his pride taking to himself the honour due to God, he is stricken by an angel, and dieth miserably. 24 After his death, the word of God prospereth.

NOW about that time, Herod the king ‖stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church.

2 And he killed James [a]the brother of John with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. Then were [b]the days of unleavened bread.

4 And [c]when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison: but ‖prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains; and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And behold, [d]the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison; and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals: and so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him, and [e]wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought [f]he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; [g]which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that [h]the Lord hath sent his angel, and [i]hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he had considered the thing, [k]he came to the house of Mary the mother of [l]John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together, [m]praying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came ‖to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, [n]It is his angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking. And when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he, [o]beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 ¶ And Herod ‖was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon. But they came with one accord to him, and having made Blastus †the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace, because [p]their country was nourished by the king's country.

21 And upon a set day, Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the angel of the Lord [q]smote him, because [r]he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 ¶ But [s]the word of God grew and multiplied.

25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ‖ministry, and [t]took with them [u]John, whose surname was Mark.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Paul and Barnabas are chosen to go to the Gentiles. 7 Of Sergius Paulus, and Elymas the sorcerer. 14 Paul preacheth at Antioch, that Jesus is Christ. 42 The Gentiles believe: 45 but the Jews gainsay and blaspheme: 46 whereupon they turn to the Gentiles. 48 As many as were ordained to life believed.

NOW there were [a]in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as [b]Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and [c]Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, ‖which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, [d]Separate me Barnabas and Saul, for the work [e]whereunto I have called them.

3 And [f]when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 ¶ So they being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to [g]Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, [h]they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they had also [i]John to their minister.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found [k]a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-jesus:

7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But [l]Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) [m]filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtilty, and all mischief, [n]thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

11 And now behold, [o]the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and [p]John departing from them, returned to Jerusalem.

14 ¶ But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and [q]went into the synagogue on the sabbath-day, and sat down.

15 And [r]after the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have [s]any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and [t]beckoning with his hand, said, Men of Israel, and [u]ye that fear God, give audience.

20 And after that, [d]he gave unto them judges, about the space of four hundred and fifty years, [e]until Samuel the prophet.

21 [f]And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years.

22 And [g]when he had removed him, [h]he raised up unto them David to be their king: to whom also he gave testimony, and said, [i]I have found David the son of Jesse, [k]a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

39 And [l]by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken of in [m]the prophets;

41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them †the next sabbath.

43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who speaking to them, [n]persuaded them to continue in [o]the grace of God.

44 ¶ And the next sabbath-day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and [p]spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, [q]It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but [r]seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, [s]we turn to the Gentiles:

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, [t]I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldst be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: [u]and as many as were ordained to eternal life, believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and [x]raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 [y]But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium.

52 And the disciples [z]were filled with joy and with the Holy Ghost.

AND it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude, both of the Jews, and also of the Greeks, believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil-affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, [a]which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the [b]apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews, with their rulers, [c]to use them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and [d]fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 ¶ [e]And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked.

9 The same heard Paul speak: who steadfastly beholding him, and [f]perceiving that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, [g]Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, [h]The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, [i]and would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, [k]they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶ [t]And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, [u]and having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, [x]and †had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antioch,

22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and [y]exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that [z]we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had [a]ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia:

26 And thence sailed to Antioch, [b]from whence they had been [c]recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, [d]they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had [e]opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.

CHAPTER XV.

1 Great dissension ariseth touching circumcision. 6 The apostles consult about it, 22 and send their determination by letters to the churches. 36 Paul and Barnabas, thinking to visit the brethren together, fall at strife, and depart asunder.

AND [a]certain men which came down from Judea, taught the brethren, and said, [b]Except ye be circumcised [c]after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that [d]Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question.

3 And [e]being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, [f]declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and [g]they declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there ‖rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees, which believed, saying, [h]That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

6 ¶ And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up and said unto them, [i]Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago, God made choice among us, that the Gentiles, by my mouth, should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

8 And God, [k]which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, [l]giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us;

9 [m]And put no difference between us and them, [n]purifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, [o]to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But [p]we believe, that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, we shall be saved, even as they.

12 ¶ Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had [q]wrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, [r]James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me.

14 [s]Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name.

15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 [t]After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things.

18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore [u]my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles [x]are turned to God:

20 But that we write unto them that they abstain [y]from pollutions of idols, and [z]from fornication, and from things strangled, [a]and from blood.

21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, [b]being read in the synagogues every sabbath-day.

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch, with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed [c]Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren:

23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles, and elders, and brethren, send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch, and Syria, and Cilicia.

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that [d]certain which went out from us, have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law; to whom we gave no such commandment:

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul;

26 [e]Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by †mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

29 [f]That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and [g]from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the ‖consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, [h]exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let [i]go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.

34 Notwithstanding, it pleased Silas to abide there still.

35 [k]Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ¶ And some days after, Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren, [l]in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them [m]John, whose surname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, [n]who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus.

40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed,

CHAPTER XVI.

1 Paul having circumcised Timothy, 7 and being called by the Spirit from one country to another, 14 converteth Lydia, 16 casteth out a spirit of divination. 19 For which cause he and Silas are whipped and imprisoned. 26 The prison doors are opened. 31 The jailer is converted, 37 and they are delivered.

THEN came he to [a]Derbe and Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, [b]named Timotheus, [c]the son of a certain woman which was a Jewess, and believed, but his father was a Greek:

2 Which [d]was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium.

3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and [e]took and circumcised him, because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek:

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, [f]that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem.

5 And [g]so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia;

7 After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Mysia, [h]came down to Troas.

9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night: There stood a [i]man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go [k]into Macedonia, assuredly gathering, that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis;

12 And from thence to [l]Philippi, which is ‖the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the †sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 ¶ And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose [m]heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And [n]she constrained us.

16 ¶ And it came to pass as we went to prayer, a certain damsel [o]possessed with a spirit ‖of divination, met us, which brought her masters [p]much gain by soothsaying:

17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days. But Paul [q]being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. [r]And he came out the same hour.

19 ¶ And [s]when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, [t]they caught Paul and Silas, and [u]drew them into the ‖market-place unto the rulers,

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, [x]do exceedingly trouble our city,

21 And teach customs which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, [y]and commanded to beat them.

23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely:

24 Who having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

25 ¶ And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 [z]And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately [a]all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas;

30 And brought them out, and said, [b]Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, [c]Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, [e]being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

38 And the sergeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared when they heard that they were Romans.

CHAPTER XVII.

1 Paul preacheth at Thessalonica, 4 where some believe, and others persecute him. 10 He is sent to Berea, and preacheth there. 13 Being persecuted at Thessalonica, 15 he cometh to Athens, and disputeth, and preacheth the living God to them unknown, 34 whereby many are converted unto Christ.

NOW when they had passed through Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews.

2 And Paul, as his manner was, [a]went in unto them, and three sabbath-days reasoned with them out of the scriptures,

3 Opening and alleging, [b]that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, ‖whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 [c]And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and [d]Silas: and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 ¶ But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of [e]Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, [f]These that have turned the world upside down, are come hither also;

7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Cesar, [g]saying, that there is another king, one Jesus.

8 And they troubled the people, and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jason and of the other, they let them go.

10 ¶ And [h]the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither, went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and [i]searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 [k]And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul, to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and [l]receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, [m]his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city ‖wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoics, encountered him. And some said, What will this ‖babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him unto ‖Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there, spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

22 ¶ Then Paul stood in the midst of ‖Mars-hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your ‖devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UN KNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 [n]God that made the world, and all things therein, seeing that he is [o]Lord of heaven and earth, [p]dwelleth not in temples made with hands;

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, [q]as though he needed any thing, seeing [r]he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;

26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and [s]the bounds of their habitation;

27 [t]That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, [u]though he be not far from every one of us:

28 For [x]in him we live, and move, and have our being; [y]as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, [z]we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 And [a]the times of this ignorance God winked at; but [b]now commandeth all men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which [c]he will judge the world in righteousness, by that man whom he hath ordained: whereof he hath ‖given assurance unto all men, in that [d]he hath raised him from the dead.

32 ¶ And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit, certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

CHAPTER XVIII.

3 Paul laboureth with his hands, and preacheth at Corinth to the Gentiles. 9 The Lord encourageth him in a vision. 12 He is accused before Gallio the deputy, but is dismissed. 18 Afterward passing from city to city he strengtheneth the disciples. 24 Apollos, being more perfectly instructed by Aquila and Priscilla, 28 preacheth Christ with great efficacy.

AFTER these things, Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth;

2 And found a certain Jew named [a]Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla, (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome,) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, [b]and wrought, (for by their occupation they were tent-makers.)

4 [c]And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

5 And [d]when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was [e]pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews, that Jesus ‖was Christ.

6 And [f]when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, [g]he shook his raiment, and said unto them, [h]Your blood be upon your own heads: [i]I am clean: [k]from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.

7 ¶ And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

8 [l]And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house: and many of the Corinthians hearing, believed, and were baptized.

9 Then [m]spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 [n]For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee, to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city.

11 And he †continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 ¶ And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment-seat,

13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, [o]If it were a matter of wrong, or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you:

15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it: for I will be no judge of such matters.

16 And he drave them from the judgment-seat.

17 Then all the Greeks took [p]Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment-seat. And Gallio cared for none of those things.

18 ¶ And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having [q]shorn his head in [r]Cenchrea: for he had a vow.

19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not:

21 But bade them farewell, saying, [t]I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return again unto you, [u]if God will. And he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And when he had landed at Cesarea, and gone up and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time there

he departed and went over all the country of [u]Galatia and Phrygia in order, [x]strengthening all the disciples.

24 ¶ [y]And a certain Jew, named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.

25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord: and being [z]fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, [a]knowing only the baptism of John.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom, when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, [b]helped them much which had believed through grace.

28 For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly, [c]shewing by the scriptures, that Jesus ‖was Christ.

CHAPTER XIX.

6 The Holy Ghost is given by Paul's hands. 9 The Jews blaspheme his doctrine, which is confirmed by miracles. 13 The Jewish exorcists 16 are beaten by the devil. 19 Conjuring books are burnt. 24 Demetrius, for love of gain, raiseth an uproar against Paul; 35 which is appeased by the town-clerk.

AND it came to pass, that while [a]Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts, came to Ephesus; and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, [c]We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, [d]Unto John's baptism.

4 Then said Paul, [e]John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

5 When they heard this, they were baptized [f]in the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had [g]laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and [h]they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 [i]And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things [k]concerning the kingdom of God.

9 But [l]when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil [m]of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.

10 And [n]this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And [o]God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul:

12 [p]So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs, or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 ¶ [q]Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, [r]took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits, the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was, leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus: and [s]fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and [t]confessed, and shewed their deeds.

19 Many of them also which used curious arts, brought their books together, and burned them before all men; and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 [u]So mightily grew the word of God, and prevailed.

21 ¶ [x]After these things were ended, Paul [y]purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, [z]I must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of [a]them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and [b]Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 And [c]the same time there arose no small stir about [d]that way.

24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silver-smith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought [e]no small gain unto the craftsmen;

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth:

26 Moreover, ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying, that [f]they be no gods which are made with hands.

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at naught; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught [g]Gaius and [h]Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused, and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And [i]Alexander [k]beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the town-clerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is †a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

CHAPTER XX.

1 Paul goeth to Macedonia. 7 He celebrateth the Lord's supper, and preacheth. 9 Eutychus having fallen down dead, 10 is raised to life. 17 At Miletum he calleth the elders together, telleth them what shall befall to himself, 28 committeth God's flock to them, 29 warneth them of false teachers, 32 commendeth them to God, 36 prayeth with them, and goeth his way.

AND after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and [a]departed for to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece,

3 And there abode three months. And [b]when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, [c]Aristarchus and Secundus; and [d]Gaius of Derbe, and [e]Timotheus; and of Asia, [f]Tychicus and [g]Trophimus.

5 These going before, tarried for us at Troas.

6 And we sailed away from Philippi, after [h]the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them [i]to Troas in five days; where we abode seven days.

7 And upon [k]the first day of the week, when the disciples came together [l]to break bread, Paul preached unto them, (ready to depart on the morrow,) and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights [m]in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and [n]fell on him, and embracing him, said, [o]Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for [p]he hasted, if it were possible for him, [q]to be at Jerusalem [r]the day of Pentecost.

17 ¶ And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, [s]from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears and temptations, which befell me [t]by the lying in wait of the Jews:

20 And how [u]I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house,

21 [x]Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, [y]repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now behold, [z]I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 Save that [a]the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying, that bonds and afflictions ‖abide me.

24 But [b]none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, [c]so that I might finish my course with joy, [d]and the ministry [e]which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now behold, [f]I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am [g]pure from the blood of all men:

27 For [h]I have not shunned to declare unto you all [i]the counsel of God.

28 ¶ [k]Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock over the which the Holy Ghost [l]hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, [m]which he hath purchased [n]with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing [o]shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also [p]of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that [q]by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and [r]to the word of his grace, which is able [s]to build you up, and to give you [t]an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

33 [u]I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, ye yourselves know, [x]that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I have shewed you all things, [y]how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he [z]kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and [a]fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him,

38 Sorrowing most of all for the words [b]which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 Paul will not by any means be dissuaded from going to Jerusalem. 9 Philip's daughters prophetesses. 17 Paul cometh to Jerusalem: 27 where he is apprehended, and in great danger, 31 but by the chief captain is rescued, and permitted to speak to the people.

AND it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara:

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: [a]who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed, and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and [b]we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned [c]home again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Cesarea; and we entered into the house of Philip [d]the evangelist, [e]which was one of the seven; and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, [f]which did prophesy.

10 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judea a certain prophet, named [g]Agabus.

11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, [h]So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, [i]What mean ye to weep, and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, [k]The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem.

16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Cesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 [l]And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto [m]James: and all the elders were present.

19 And when he had saluted them, [n]he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles [o]by his ministry.

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all [p]zealous of the law:

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying, that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them;

24 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may [q]shave their heads: and all may know that those things whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, [r]we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them, [s]entered into the temple, [t]to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, [u]the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and [x]laid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help. This is the man [y]that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further, brought Greeks also into the temple; and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city, [z]Trophimus, an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And [a]all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple. And forthwith the doors were shut.

31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar;

32 [b]Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them. And when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chief captain came near and took him, and [c]commanded him to be bound with two chains: and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was that he was borne of the soldiers, for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, [d]Away with him.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 [e]Art not thou that *Egyptian which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

39 But Paul said, [f]I am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and I beseech thee suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him license, Paul stood on the stairs, and [g]beckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

MEN, [a]brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,)

3 [b]I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city [c]at the feet of [d]Gamaliel, and taught [e]according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and [f]was zealous toward God, [g]as ye all are this day.

4 [h]And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and [i]all the estate of the elders; [k]from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

6 And [l]it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 And [m]they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus, and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And [n]one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, [o]having a good report of all the [p]Jews which dwelt there,

13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, [q]The God of our fathers [r]hath chosen thee, that thou shouldst know his will, and [s]see [t]that Just One, and [u]shouldst hear the voice of his mouth.

15 [x]For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of [y]what thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, [z]and wash away thy sins, [a]calling on the name of the Lord.

17 And [b]it came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;

18 And [c]saw him saying unto me, [d]Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, [e]they know that I imprisoned, and [f]beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

20 [g]And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and [h]consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: [i]for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, [k]Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that [l]he should live.

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air,

24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, [m]Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free-born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have ‖examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAPTER XXIII.

1 As Paul pleadeth his cause, 2 Ananias commandeth them to smite him. 7 Dissension among his accusers. 11 God encourageth him. 14 The Jews' laying wait for Paul 20 is declared unto the chief captain. 27 He sendeth him to Felix the governor.

AND Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, [a]I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him, [b]to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and [c]commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by, said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, [d]I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, [e]Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, [f]I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: [g]of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

8 [h]For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the Scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, [i]We find no evil in this man: but [k]if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, [l]let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And [m]the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, [n]certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves ‖under a curse, saying, that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain, that he bring him down unto you to-morrow, as though ye would inquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, [o]The Jews have agreed to desire thee, that thou wouldst bring down Paul to-morrow into the council, as though they would inquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Cesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias, unto the most excellent governor Felix, sendeth greeting.

27 [p]This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.

28 [q]And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused [r]of questions of their law, [s]but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And [t]when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and [u]gave commandment to his accusers also, to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

33 Who, when they came to Cesarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was.

CHAPTER XXIV.

1 Paul being accused by Tertullus the orator, 10 answereth for his life and doctrine. 24 He preacheth Christ to the governor and his wife. 26 The governor hopeth for a bribe, but in vain. 27 At last, going out of his office, he leaveth Paul in prison.

AND after [a]five days, [b]Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee, that thou wouldst hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 [c]For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ring-leader of the sect of the Nazarenes:

6 [d]Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would [e]have judged according to our law:

7 [f]But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 [g]Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom, thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying, That these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the *governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem [h]for to worship.

12 [i]And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after [k]the way which they call heresy, so worship I the [l]God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in [m]the law and in the prophets:

15 And [n]have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, [o]that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And [p]herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now, after many years, [q]I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 [r]Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult:

19 [s]Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had aught against me.

20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil-doing in me, while I stood before the council,

21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried, standing among them, [t]Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When [u]Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and [x]that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister, or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that [y]money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, [z]willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

CHAPTER XXV.

2 The Jews accuse Paul before Festus. 8 He answereth for himself, 11 and appealeth unto Cesar. 14 Afterward Festus openeth his matter to King Agrippa, 23 and he is brought forth. 25 Festus cleareth him to have done nothing worthy of death.

NOW when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Cesarea to Jerusalem.

2 [a]Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, [b]laying wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, [c]if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them ‖more than ten days, he went down unto Cesarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment-seat, commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews w ich came down from Jerusalem stood roun l about, [d]and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove;

8 While he answered for himself, [e]Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cesar have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus, [f]willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, [g]Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesar's judgment-seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 [h]For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. [i]I appeal unto Cesar.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Cesar? unto Cesar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain days, King Agrippa and Bernice came unto Cesarea, to salute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, [k]There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

15 [l]About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 [m]To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have license to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, [n]without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment-seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth; up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 [o]But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because ‖I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the ‖hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then [p]Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. To-morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man about whom [q]all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought [r]not to live any longer.

25 But when I found that [s]he had committed nothing worthy of death, [t]and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O King Agrippa, that after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

CHAPTER XXVI.

2 Paul, in the presence of Agrippa, declareth his life from his childhood, 12 and how miraculously he was converted, and called to his apostleship. 24 Festus chargeth him to be mad, whereunto he answereth modestly. 28 Agrippa is almost persuaded to be a Christian. 31 The whole company pronounce him innocent.

1 THEN Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:

2 I think myself happy, King Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee, touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Especially, because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews,

5 Which knew me from the beginning, (if they would testify,) that after [a]the most straitest sect of our religion, I lived a Pharisee.

6 [b]And now I stand, and am judged for the hope of [c]the promise made of God unto our fathers:

7 Unto which promise [d]our twelve tribes, instantly serving God †[e]day and night, [f]hope to come. For which hope's sake, King Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 [g]I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

10 [h]Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority [i]from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 [k]And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 [l]Whereupon, as I went to Damascus, with authority and commission from the chief priests,

13 At mid-day, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me, and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, [m]to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, [n]unto whom now I send thee,

18 [o]To open their eyes, and [p]to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, [q]that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and [r]inheritance among them which are [s]sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But [t]shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do [u]works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes [x]the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those [y]which the prophets and [z]Moses did say should come:

23 [a]That Christ should suffer, and [b]that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and [c]should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, [d]thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely. For I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.

29 And Paul said, [e]I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them:

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, [f]This man doeth nothing worthy of death, or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, [g]if he had not appealed unto Cesar.

CHAPTER XXVII.

1 Paul shipping toward Rome, 10 foretelleth of the danger of the voyage, 11 but is not believed. 14 They are tossed to and fro with tempest, 41 and suffer shipwreck, 22, 34, 44 yet all come safe to land.

AND when [a]it was determined, that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band.

2 And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia, one [b]Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius [c]courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.

A.D. 62.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under ‖Crete, over against Salmone:

8 And hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called, The Fair Havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 Now, when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, [d]because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with ‖hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless, the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is a haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south-west and north-west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there ‖arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat:

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day [e]we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 [f]For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and [g]whom I serve,

24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cesar: and lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: [h]for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit, [i]we must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest they should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship,

31 Paul said to the centurion, and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried, and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat; for this is for your health: for [k]there shall not a hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and [l]gave thanks to God in presence of them all; and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen [m]souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had ‖taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder-bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, [n]they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded that they which could swim, should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, [o]that they escaped all safe to land.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1 Paul after his shipwreck is kindly entertained of the barbarians. 5 The viper on his hand hurteth him not. 8 He healeth many diseases in the island. 11 They depart toward Rome. 17 He declareth to the Jews the cause of his coming. 24 After his preaching some were persuaded, and some believed not. 30 Yet he preacheth there two years.

1 AND when they were escaped, then they knew that [a]the island was called Melita.

2 And the [b]barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and [c]felt no harm.

6 Howbeit, they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and [d]said that he was a god.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever, and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and [e]prayed, and [f]laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

10 Who also honoured us with many [g]honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

11 And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii-forum, and The Three Taverns; whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but [h]Paul was suffered to dwell by himself, with a soldier that kept him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days, Paul called the chief of the Jews together. And when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, [i]though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet [k]was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans:

18 Who [l]when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jews spake against it, [m]I was constrained to appeal unto Cesar; not that I had aught to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that [n]for the hope of Israel I am bound with [o]this chain.

21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judea concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee.

22 But we desire to hear of thee, what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where [p]it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging: [q]to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, [r]both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And [s]some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet unto our fathers,

26 Saying, [t]Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive.

27 For the heart of this people is waxed

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO THE ROMANS.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul commendeth his calling to the Romans, 9 and his desire to come to them. 16 What his gospel is, and the righteousness which it sheweth. 18 God is angry with all manner of sin. 21 What were the sins of the Gentiles.

PAUL, a servant of Jesus Christ, [a]called to be an apostle, [b]separated unto the gospel of God,

2 ([c]Which he had promised afore [d]by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)

3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, [e]which was [f]made of the seed of David according to the flesh;

4 And †[g]declared to be the Son of God with power, according [h]to the Spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead:

5 By whom [i]we have received grace and apostleship, ‖for [k]obedience to the faith among all nations, [l]for his name:

6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ:

7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, [m]called to be saints: [n]Grace to you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, [o]I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that [p]your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

9 For [q]God is my witness, [r]whom I serve ‖with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that [s]without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;

10 [t]Making request (if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey [u]by the will of God) to come unto you.

11 For I long to see you, that [x]I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;

12 That is, that I may be comforted together ‖with you, by [y]the mutual faith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that [z]oftentimes I purposed to come unto you (but [a]was let hitherto) that I might have some [b]fruit ‖among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

14 [c]I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For [d]I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for [e]it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; [f]to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

17 For [g]therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, [h]The just shall live by faith.

18 [i]For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness, and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness.

19 Because [k]that which may be known of God is manifest ‖in them; for [l]God hath shewed it unto them.

20 For [m]the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; ‖so that they are without excuse:

21 Because that when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful, but [n]became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 [o]Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools;

23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible [p]God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things.

24 [q]Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness, through the lusts of their own hearts, [r]to dishonour their own bodies [s]between themselves:

25 Who changed [t]the truth of God [u]into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature ||more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto [x]vile affections. For even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like ||to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to ||a reprobate mind, to do those things [z]which are not convenient:

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, covenant-breakers, ||without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:

32 Who, [a]knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things [b]are worthy of death; not only do the same, but ||[c]have pleasure in them that do them.

CHAPTER II.

1 They that sin, though they condemn it in others, cannot excuse themselves, 6 and much less escape the judgment of God, 9 whether they be Jews or Gentiles. 14 The Gentiles cannot escape, 17 nor yet the Jews, 25 whom their circumcision shall not profit, if they keep not the law.

THEREFORE thou art [a]inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art, that judgest: [b]for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest, doest the same things.

2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth, against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

4 Or despisest thou [c]the riches of his goodness, and [d]forbearance, and [e]long-suffering; [f]not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But after thy hardness and impenitent heart, [g]treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath, and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

6 [h]Who will render to every man according to his deeds:

7 To them who by patient continuance in well-doing, seek for glory, and honour, and immortality; eternal life:

8 But unto them that are contentious, and [i]do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness; indignation and wrath,

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil; of the Jew [k]first, and also of the †Gentile;

10 [l]But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good; to the Jew first, and also to the †Gentile;

11 For [m]there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law, shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law, shall be judged by the law,

13 (For [n]not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

14 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these having not the law, are a law unto themselves:

15 Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, ||their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts ||the mean while accusing, or else excusing one another;)

16 [o]In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men [p]by Jesus Christ, [q]according to my gospel.

17 Behold, [r]thou art called a Jew, and [s]restest in the law, [t]and makest thy boast of God,

18 And [u]knowest his will, and ||[x]approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law,

19 And [y]art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,

20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, [z]which hast the form of knowledge, and of the truth in the law:

21 [a]Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, [b]dost thou commit sacrilege?

23 Thou that [c]makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles, through you, as it is [d]written.

25 [e]For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law; but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

26 Therefore, [f]if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, [g]judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

28 For [h]he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jew, [i]which is one inwardly; and [k]circumcision is that of the heart, [l]in the spirit, and not in the letter; [m]whose praise is not of men, but of God.

CHAPTER III.

1 The Jews' prerogative: 3 which they have not lost: 9 howbeit the law convinceth them also of sin: 20 therefore no flesh is justified by the law, 28 but all, without difference, by faith only: 31 and yet the law is not abolished.

1 WHAT advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

2 Much every way: chiefly, because that [a]unto them were committed the oracles of God.

3 For what if [b]some did not believe? [c]shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?

4 [d]God forbid: yea, let [e]God be true, but [f]every man a liar; as it is written, [g]That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? ([h]I speak as a man,)

6 God forbid: for then [i]how shall God judge the world?

7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) [j]Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

9 What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before †[k]proved both Jews and Gentiles, that [l]they are all under sin;

10 As it is written, [m]There is none righteous, no, not one:

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable: there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

13 [n]Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; [o]the poison of asps is under their lips:

14 [p]Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.

15 [q]Their feet are swift to shed blood.

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:

17 And the way of peace have they not known.

18 [r]There is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things soever [s]the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that [t]every mouth may be stopped, and [u]all the world may become ‖guilty before God.

20 Therefore [x]by the deeds of the law, there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for [y]by the law is the knowledge of sin.

21 But now [z]the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, [a]being witnessed by the law [b]and the prophets;

22 Even the righteousness of God, which is [c]by faith of Jesus Christ unto all, and upon all them that believe; for [d]there is no difference:

23 For [e]all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;

24 Being justified freely [f]by his grace, [g]through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:

25 Whom God hath ‖set forth [h]to be a propitiation, through faith [i]in his blood, to declare his righteousness [k]for the ‖remission of [l]sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;

26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

27 [m]Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay; but by the law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude, [n]that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

29 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:

30 Seeing [o]it is one God which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

CHAPTER IV.

1 Abraham's faith was imputed to him for righteousness, 10 before he was circumcised. 13 By faith only he and his seed received the promise. 16 Abraham is the father of all that believe. 24 Our faith also shall be imputed to us for righteousness.

WHAT shall we then say that [a]Abraham, our father as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

2 For if Abraham were [b]justified by works, he hath whereof to glory, but not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture? [c]Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

4 Now [d]to him that worketh, is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth [e]the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

7 Saying, [f]Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? For we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And [g]he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that [h]he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed unto them also;

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise that he should be the [i]heir of the world was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For [k]if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect.

15 Because [l]the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be [m]by grace; [n]to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed: not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, [o]who is the father of us all,

17 (As it is written, [p]I have made thee a father of many nations,) ‖before him whom he believed, even God, [q]who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those [r]things which be not, as though they were.

18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations; according to that which was spoken, [s]So shall thy seed be.

19 And being not weak in faith, [t]he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about a hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb.

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;

21 And being fully persuaded, that what he had promised, [u]he was able also to perform.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now [x]it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe [y]on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead,

25 [z]Who was delivered for our offences, and [a]was raised again for our justification.

CHAPTER V.

1 Being justified by faith, we have peace with God, 2 and joy in our hope, 8 that since we were reconciled by his blood, when we were enemies, 10 we shall much more be saved being reconciled. 12 As sin and death came by Adam, 17 so much more righteousness and life by Jesus Christ. 20 Where sin abounded, grace did superabound.

THEREFORE [a]being justified by faith, we have [b]peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ:

2 [c]By whom also we have access by faith into this grace [d]wherein we stand, and [e]rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but [f]we glory in tribulations also; [g]knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

4 [h]And patience, experience; and experience, hope:

5 [i]And hope maketh not ashamed: [k]because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, ‖in due time [l]Christ died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But [m]God commendeth his love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then, being now justified [n]by his blood, we shall be saved [o]from wrath through him.

10 For [p]if when we were enemies, [q]we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son; much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved [r]by his life.

11 And not only so, but we also [s]joy in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the ‖atonement.

12 Wherefore as [t]by one man sin entered into the world, and [u]death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, ‖for that all have sinned:

13 (For until the law, sin was in the world; but [x]sin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, [y]who is the figure of him that was to come.

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded [z]unto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift. For the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if ‖by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousness, shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)

18 Therefore, as ‖by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation, even so ‖by the righteousness of one the free gift came [a]upon all men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover [b]the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much [c]more abound:

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life, by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER VI.

1 We may not live in sin, 2 for we are dead unto it, 3 as appeareth by our baptism. 12 Let not sin reign any more, 18 because we have yielded ourselves to the service of righteousness, 23 and for that death is the wages of sin.

WHAT shall we say then? [a]Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid: how shall we, that are [b]dead to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not that [c]so many of us as ‖were baptized into Jesus Christ, [d]were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are [e]buried with him by baptism into death: that [f]like as Christ was raised up from the dead by [g]the glory of the Father, [h]even so we also should walk in newness of life.

5 [i]For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that [k]our old man is crucified with him, that [l]the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For [m]he that is dead is †freed from sin.

8 Now [n]if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:

9 Knowing that [o]Christ, being raised from the dead, dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, [p]he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, [q]he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be [r]dead indeed unto sin, but [s]alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 [t]Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yield ye your [u]members as †instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but [x]yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God:

14 For [y]sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we sin, [z]because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that [a]to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin; but ye have obeyed from the heart [b]that form of doctrine †which was delivered you.

18 Being then [c]made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men, because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity, unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness, unto holiness.

20 For when ye were [d]the servants of sin, ye were free †from righteousness.

21 [e]What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for [f]the end of those things is death.

22 But now [g]being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

23 For [h]the wages of sin is death: but [i]the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER VII.

1 No law hath power over a man longer than he liveth. 4 But we are dead to the law. 7 Yet is not the law sin, 12 but holy, just, good, 16 as I acknowledge, who am grieved because I cannot keep it.

KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For [a]the woman which hath a husband, is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then, [b]if while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become [c]dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should [d]bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the †motions of sins, which were by the law, [e]did work in our members [f]to bring forth fruit unto death:

6 But now we are delivered from the law, ‖that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve [g]in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, [h]I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known ‖lust, except the law had said, [i]Thou shalt not covet.

8 But [k]sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For [l]without the law sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment [m]which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore [n]the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, [o]sold under sin.

15 For that which I do, I †allow not: for [p]what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that [q]in me (that is, in my flesh) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good, I find not.

19 For the good that I would, I do not; but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For I [r]delight in the law of God, after [s]the inward man:

23 But [t]I see another law in [u]my members warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from ‖the body of this death?

25 [x]I thank God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then, with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 They that are in Christ, and live according to the Spirit, are free from condemnation. 5, 13 What harm cometh of the flesh, 6, 14 and what good of the Spirit: 17 and what of being God's child, 19 whose glorious deliverance all things long for, 29 was beforehand decreed from God. 38 What can sever us from his love?

THERE is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who [a]walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For [b]the law of [c]the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from [d]the law of sin and death.

3 For [e]what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, [f]God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and ‖for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, [g]who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For [h]they that are after the flesh, do mind the things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirit, [i]the things of the Spirit.

6 For [k]†to be carnally minded is death; but † to be spiritually minded is life and peace:

7 Because †[l]the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, [m]neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that [n]the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now, if any man have not [o]the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of [p]him that raised up

Jesus from the dead dwell in you, [q]he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies ‖by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 [r]Therefore, brethren, we are debtors not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For [s]if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do [t]mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For [u]as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For [x]ye have not received the spirit of bondage again [y]to fear; but ye have received the [z]Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, [a]Abba, Father.

16 [b]The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

17 And if children, then heirs: [c]heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; [d]if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon, that [e]the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For [f]the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the [g]manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For [h]the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope;

21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that ‖the whole creation [i]groaneth, and travaileth in pain together until now:

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have [k]the first-fruits of the Spirit, [l]even we ourselves groan within ourselves, [m]waiting for the adoption, to wit, the [n]redemption of our body.

24 For we are saved by hope. But [o]hope that is seen, is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for [p]we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but [q]the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And [r]he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, ‖because he maketh intercession for the saints, [s]according to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them [t]who are the called according to his purpose.

29 For whom [u]he did foreknow, [x]he also did predestinate [y]to be conformed to the image of his Son, [z]that he might be the first-born among many brethren.

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CHAPTER IX.

1 Paul is sorry for the Jews. 7 All the seed of Abraham were not the children of the promise. 18 God hath mercy upon whom he will. 21 The potter may do with his clay what he list. 25 The calling of the Gentiles and rejecting of the Jews were foretold. 32 The cause why so few Jews embraced the righteousness of faith.

[a]SAY the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost,

2 [b]That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For [c]I could wish that myself were ‖accursed from Christ, for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

4 [d]Who are Israelites; [e]to whom pertaineth the adoption, and [f]the glory, and [g]the ‖covenants, and [h]the giving of the law, and [i]the service of God, and [k]the promises;

5 [l]Whose are the fathers, and [m]of whom, as concerning the flesh, Christ came, [n]who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

6 [o]Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For [p]they are not all Israel, which are of Israel:

7 [q]Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In [r]Isaac [s]shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God; but [s]the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

9 For this is the word of promise, [t]At this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.

10 And not only this; but when [u]Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac,

11 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God, according to election, might stand, not of works, but of [x]him that calleth;)

12 It was said unto her, [y]The ‖elder shall serve the ‖younger.

13 As it is written, [z]Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

14 What shall we say then? [a]Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Moses, [b]I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

17 For [c]the scripture saith unto Pharoah, [d]Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? for [e]who hath resisted his will?

20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that ‖repliest against God? [f]Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the [g]potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make [h]one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering [i]the vessels of wrath ‖ [k]fitted to destruction:

23 And that he might make known [l]the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had [m]afore prepared unto glory,

24 Even us, whom he hath called, [n]not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?

25 As he saith also in Osee, [o]I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.

26 [p]And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called, The children of the living God.

27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, [q]Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, [r]a remnant shall be saved:

28 For he will finish ‖the work, and cut it short in righteousness: [s]because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as Esaias said before, [t]Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, [u]we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrah.

30 What shall we say then? [x]That the Gentiles which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, [y]even the righteousness which is of faith:

31 But Israel, [z]which followed after the law of righteousness, [a]hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For [b]they stumbled at that stumbling-stone;

33 As it is written, [c]Behold, I lay in Sion a stumbling-stone, and rock of offence: and [d]whosoever believeth on him shall not be ‖ashamed.

CHAPTER X.

5 The scripture sheweth the difference betwixt the righteousness of the law, and this of faith, 11 and that all, both Jew and Gentile, that believe, shall not be confounded, 18 and that the Gentiles shall receive the word and believe. 19 Israel was not ignorant of these things.

BRETHREN, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record [a]that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they, being ignorant of [b]God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own [c]righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

4 For [d]Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

5 For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, [e]That the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, [f]Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

8 But what saith it? [g]The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach:

9 That [h]if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart, man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth, confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, [i]Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

12 For [k]there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for [l]the same Lord over all, [m]is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 [n]For whosoever shall call [o]upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear [p]without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, [q]How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But [r]they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, [s]Lord, who hath believed †our ‖report?

17 So then, faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, [t]their sound went into all the earth, [u]and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First, Moses saith, [x]I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a [y]foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Esaias is very bold, and saith, [z]I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, [a]All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

CHAPTER XI.

1 God hath not cast off all Israel. 7 Some were elected, though the rest were hardened. 16 There is hope of their conversion. 18 The Gentiles may not insult upon them: 26 for there is a promise of their salvation. 33 God's judgments are unsearchable.

I SAY then, [a]Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For [b]I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which [c]he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith †of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3 [d]Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? [e]I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

5 [f]Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And [g]if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? [h]Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were ‖blinded,

8 (According as it is written, [i]God hath given them the spirit of ‖slumber, [k]eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.

9 And David saith, [l]Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling-block, and a recompense unto them:

10 [m]Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back always.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather [n]through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the ‖diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness?

13 For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as [o]I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office:

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and [p]might save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For if [q]the first fruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 And if [r]some of the branches be broken off, [s]and thou, being a wild olive-tree, wert graffed in ‖among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive-tree;

18 [t]Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be graffed in.

20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. [u]Be not high-minded, but [x]fear:

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the goodness and se-

23 And they also, [a]if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in again.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive-tree which is wild by nature, and wert graffed contrary to nature into a good olive-tree; how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be graffed into their own olive-tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, (lest ye should be [d]wise in your own conceits,) that [c]||blindness in part has happened to Israel, [d]until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, [e]There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

27 [f]For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

31 Even so have these also now not ||believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

32 For [k]God hath ||concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! [l]how unsearchable are his judgments, and [m]his ways past finding out!

34 [n]For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or [o]who hath been his counsellor?

36 For [q]of him, and through him, and to him are all things: [r]to †whom be glory for ever. Amen.

CHAPTER XII.

1 God's mercies must move us to please God. 3 No man must think too well of himself, 6 but attend every one on that calling wherein he is placed. 9 Love, and many other duties, are required of us. 19 Revenge is specially forbidden.

[a]BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, [b]that ye [c]present your bodies [d]a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

2 And [e]be not conformed to this world: but [f]be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may [g]prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God.

3 For I say, [h]through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, [i]not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think †soberly, according as God hath dealt [k]to every man the measure of faith.

4 For [l]as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

5 So [m]we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 [n]Having then gifts, differing [o]according to the grace that is given to us, whether [p]prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or [q]he that teacheth, on teaching:

8 Or [r]he that exhorteth, on exhortation: [s]he that ||giveth, let him do it ||with simplicity: [t]he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, [u]with cheerfulness.

9 [x]Let love be without dissimulation. [y]Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

10 [z]Be kindly affectioned one to another ||with brotherly love; [a]in honour preferring one another;

11 Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

12 [b]Rejoicing in hope; [c]patient in tribulation; [d]continuing instant in prayer;

13 [e]Distributing to the necessity of saints; [f]given to hospitality.

14 [g]Bless them which persecute you; bless, and curse not.

15 [h]Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

16 [i]Be of the same mind one toward another. [k]Mind not high things, but ||condescend to men of low estate. [l]Be not wise in your own conceits.

17 [m]Recompense to no man evil for evil. [n]Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, [o]live peaceably with all men.

19 Dearly beloved, [p]avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, [q]Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 [r]Therefore, if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

21 Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Subjection, and many other duties, we owe to the magistrates. 8 Love is the fulfilling of the law. 11 Gluttony and drunkenness, and the works of darkness, are out of season in the time of the gospel.

LET every soul [a]be subject unto the higher powers. For [b]there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ‖ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth [c]the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? [d]do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore [e]ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, [f]but also for conscience' sake.

6 For, for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 [g]Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for [h]he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, [i]Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, [k]Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore [l]love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time [m]to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: [n]let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and [o]let us put on the armour of light.

13 [p]Let us walk ‖honestly, as in the day: [q]not in rioting and drunkenness, [r]not in chambering and wantonness, [s]not in strife and envying.

14 But [t]put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and [u]make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

CHAPTER XIV.

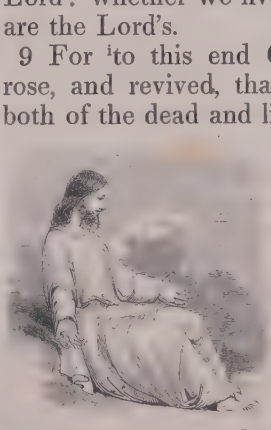
3 Men may not contemn nor condemn one the other for things indifferent: 13 but take heed that they give no offence in them: 15 for that the apostle proveth unlawful by many reasons.

HIM that [a]is weak in the faith receive ye, but ‖not to doubtful disputations.

2 For one believeth that he [b]may eat all things; another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

3 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not; and [c]let not him which eateth not, judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.

4 [d]Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth: yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.



5 [e]One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be ‖fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that [f]‖regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for [g]he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For [h]none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For [i]to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be [k]Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at naught thy brother? for [l]we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, [m]As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 So then [n]every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that [o]no man put a stumbling-block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, [p]that there is nothing †unclean of itself: but [q]to him that esteemeth any thing to be †unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not †charitably. [r]Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

16 [s]Let not then your good be evil spoken of:

17 [t]For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink, but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

18 For he that in these things serveth Christ, [u]is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

19 [x]Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith [y]one may edify another.

20 [z]For meat destroy not the work of God. [a]All things indeed are pure; [b]but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

21 It is good neither to eat [c]flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. [d]Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 And he that ‖doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for [e]whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

CHAPTER XV.

1 The strong must bear with the weak. 2 We may not please ourselves, 3 for Christ did not so, 7 but receive one the other, as Christ did us all, 8 both Jews 9 and Gentiles. 15 Paul excuseth his writing, 28 and promiseth to see them, 30 and requesteth their prayers.

WE [a]then that are strong ought to bear the [b]infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 [c]Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good [d]to edification.

3 [e]For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, [f]The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

4 For [g]whatsoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

5 [h]Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded one toward another ‖according to Christ Jesus:

6 That ye may [i]with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore [k]receive ye one another, [l]as Christ also received us, to the glory of God.

8 Now I say that [m]Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, [n]to confirm the promises made unto the fathers:

9 And [o]that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, [p]For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith, [q]Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again, [r]Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people.

12 And again Esaias saith, [s]There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all [t]joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

14 And [u]I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, [w]filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, [x]because of the grace that is given to me of God,

16 That [y]I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the ‖[z]offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ, [a]in those things which pertain to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things [b]which Christ hath not wrought by me, [c]to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed,

19 [d]Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, [e]lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

21 But as it is written, [f]To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause also [g]I have been ‖much hindered from coming to you.

23 But now having no more place in these parts, and [h]having a great desire these many years to come unto you;

24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, [i]and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled †with your company.

25 But now [k]I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints.

26 For [l]it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.

27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For [m]if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, [n]their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them [o]this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

29 [p]And I am sure that when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and [q]for the love of the Spirit, [r]that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;

31 [s]That I may be delivered from them that ||do not believe in Judea; and that [t]my service which I have for Jerusalem, may be accepted of the saints;

32 [u]That I may come unto you with joy [x]by the will of God, and may with you be [y]refreshed.

33 Now [z]the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

CHAPTER XVI.

3 Paul willeth the brethren to greet many, 17 and adviseth them to take heed of those which cause dissension and offences, 21 and after sundry salutations endeth with praise and thanks to God.

1 I COMMEND unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at [a]Cenchrea:

2 [b]That ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also.

3 Greet [c]Priscilla and Aquila, my helpers in Christ Jesus:

4 Who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.

5 Likewise greet [d]the church that is in their house. Salute my well-beloved Epenetus, who is [e]the first-fruits of Achaia unto Christ.

6 Greet Mary, who bestowed much labour on us.

7 Salute Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen, and my fellow-prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also [f]were in Christ before me.

8 Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord.

9 Salute Urbane, our helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloved.

10 Salute Apelles approved in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobulus' ||household.

11 Salute Herodion my kinsman Greet them that be of the ||household of Narcissus, which are in the Lord.

12 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis, which laboured much in the Lord.

13 Salute Rufus [g]chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

14 Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren which are with them.

15 Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints which are with them.

16 [h]Salute one another with a holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you.

17 Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them [i]which cause divisions and offences, contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and [k]avoid them.

18 For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but [l]their own belly; and [m]by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

19 For [n]your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you [o]wise unto that which is good, and ||simple concerning evil.

20 And [p]the God of peace [q]shall ||bruise Satan under your feet shortly. [r]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

21 [s]Timotheus my work-fellow, and [t]Lucius, and [u]Jason, and [x]Sosipater, my kinsmen, salute you.

22 I Tertius, who wrote this epistle, salute you in the Lord.

23 [y]Gaius mine host, and of the whole church, saluteth you. [z]Erastus the chamberlain of the city saluteth you, and Quartus a brother.

24 [a]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

25 Now [b]to him that is of power to establish you [c]according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, [d]according to the revelation of the mystery, [e]which was kept secret since the world began,

26 But [f]now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for [g]the obedience of faith:

27 To [h]God only wise, be glory through Jesus Christ for ever. Amen.

¶ THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER I.

After his salutation and thanksgiving, 10 he exhorteth them to unity, and 12 reproveth their dissensions. 18 God destroyeth the wisdom of the wise, 21 by the foolishness of preaching, and 26 calleth not the wise, mighty, and noble, but 27, 28 the foolish, weak, and men of no account.

1 PAUL, [e]called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ [b]through the will of God, and [c]Sosthenes our brother,

2 Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, [d]to them that [e]are sanctified in Christ Jesus, [f]called to be saints, with all that in every place [g]call upon the name of Jesus Christ [h]our Lord, [i]both theirs and ours:

3 [k]Grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 [l]I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ;

5 That in every thing ye are enriched by him, [m]in all utterance, and in all knowledge;

6 Even as [n]the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:

7 So that ye come behind in no gift; [o]waiting for the †coming of our Lord Jesus Christ:

8 [p]Who shall also confirm you unto the end, [q]that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 [r]God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto [s]the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, [t]that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no †divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind, and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, [u]that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of [x]Apollos; and I of [y]Cephas; and I of Christ.

13 [z]Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but [a]Crispus and [b]Gaius;

15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household of [c]Stephanas; besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: [d]not with wisdom of ‖words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is to [e]them that perish, [f]foolishness; but unto us [g]which are saved, it is [h]the power of God.

19 For it is written, [i]I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 [k]Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? [l]hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21 [m]For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For the [n]Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

23 But we preach Christ crucified, [o]unto the Jews a stumbling-block, and unto the Greeks [p]foolishness;

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ [q]the power of God, and [r]the wisdom of God.

25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that [s]not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble are called:

27 But [t]God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and [u]things which are not, [x]to bring to naught things that are:

29 [y]That no flesh should glory in his presence.

30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us [z]wisdom, and [a]righteousness, and [b]sanctification, and [c]redemption:

31 That, according as it is written, [d]He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

CHAPTER II.

He declareth that his preaching, 1 though it bring not excellency of speech, or of 4 human wisdom: yet consisteth in the 4, 5 power of God: and so far excelleth 6 the wisdom of this world, and 9 human sense, as that 14 the natural man cannot understand it.

1 AND I, brethren, when I came to you,

[a]came not with excellency of speech, or of wisdom, declaring unto you [b]the testimony of God.

2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, [c]save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And [d]I was with you [e]in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my preaching [f]was not with ‖enticing words of man's wisdom, [g]but in demonstration of the Spirit, and of power:

5 That your faith should not †stand in the wisdom of men, but [h]in the power of God.

6 Howbeit, we speak wisdom among them [i]that are perfect: yet not [k]the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, [l]that come to naught:

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom [m]which God ordained before the world unto our glory;

8 [n]Which none of the princes of this world knew: for [o]had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, [p]Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But [q]God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, [r]save the spirit of man which is in him? [s]even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but [t]the Spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 [u]Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 [x]But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: [y]for they are foolishness unto him: [z]neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 [a]But he that is spiritual ‖judgeth all things, yet he himself is ‖judged of no man.

16 [b]For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he †may instruct him? [c]But we have the mind of Christ.

CHAPTER III.

2 Milk is fit for children. 3 Strife and division, arguments of a fleshly mind. 7 He that planteth, and he that watereth, is nothing. 9 The ministers are God's fellow-workmen. 11 Christ the only foundation. 16 Men the temples of God, which 17 must be kept holy. 19 The wisdom of this world is foolishness with God.

ND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto [a]spiritual, but as unto [b]carnal, even as unto [c]babes in Christ.

2 I have fed you with [d]milk, and not with meat: [e]for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for [f]whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and ‖divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk †as men?

4 For while one saith, [g]I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but [h]ministers by whom ye believed, [i]even as the Lord gave to every man?

6 [k]I have planted, [l]Apollos watered: [m]but God gave the increase.

7 So then, [n]neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth: but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: [o]and every man shall receive his own reward, according to his own labour.

9 For [p]we are labourers together with God: ye are God's ‖husbandry, ye are [q]God's building.

10 [r]According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise master-builder, I have laid [s]the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But [t]let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

11 For other foundation can no man lay than [u]that is laid, [x]which is Jesus Christ.

12 Now if any man build upon this foundation, gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 [y]Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day [z]shall declare it, because [a]it †shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work, of what sort it is.

14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, [b]he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; [c]yet so as by fire.

16 [d]Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man ‖defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 [e]Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For [f]the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, [g]He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, [h]The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore [i]let no man glory in men: for [k]all things are yours;

22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;

23 And [l]ye are Christ's: and Christ is God's.

CHAPTER IV.

1 In what account the ministers ought to be had. 7 We have nothing which we have not received. 9 The apostles spectacles to the world, angels, and men, 13 the filth and off-scouring of the world: 15 yet our fathers in Christ, 16 whom we ought to follow.

LET a man so account of us, as of [a]the ministers of Christ, [b]and stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover, it is required in stewards that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's †judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.

4 For I know nothing by myself; [c]yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 [d]Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, [e]who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and [f]then shall every man have praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, [g]I have in a figure transferred to myself, and to Apollos, for your sakes: [h]that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you [i]be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who †maketh thee to differ from another? and [k]what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Now ye are full, [l]now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth ‖us the apostles last, [m]as it were appointed to death: for [n]we are made a †spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 [o]We are [p]fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; [q]we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.

11 [r]Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and [s]are naked, and [t]are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling-place;

14 I write not these things to shame you, but [z]as my beloved sons I warn you.

15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for [a]in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

16 Wherefore, I beseech you, [b]be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you [c]Timotheus, [d]who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you [e]into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I [f]teach every where [g]in every church.

18 [h]Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

19 [i]But I will come to you shortly, [k]if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

20 For [l]the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye? [m]shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

CHAPTER V.

1 The incestuous person 6 is cause rather of shame unto them, than of rejoicing. 7 The old leaven is to be purged out. 10 Heinous offenders are to be shamed and avoided.

IT is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as [a]named among the Gentiles, [b]that one should have his [c]father's wife.

2 [d]And ye are puffed up, and have not rather [e]mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 [f]For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have ‖judged already as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed,

4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, [g]with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,

5 [h]To deliver such a one unto [i]Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

6 [k]Your glorying is not good. Know ye not, that [l]a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleaven-

ed. For even [m]Christ our [n]passover ‖is sacrificed for us:

8 Therefore [o]let us keep ‖the feast, [p]not with old leaven, neither [q]with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle, [r]not to company with fornicators:

10 [s]Yet not altogether with the fornicators [t]of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters: for then must ye needs go [u]out of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, [x]if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner: with such a one [y]no not to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge [z]them also that are without? do not ye judge [a]them that are within?

13 But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore [b]put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The Corinthians must not vex their brethren, in going to law with them: 6 especially under infidels. 9 The unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God. 15 Our bodies are the members of Christ, 19 and temples of the Holy Ghost. 16, 17 They must not therefore be defiled.

DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?

2 Do ye not know that [a]the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall [b]judge angels? how much more, things that pertain to this life?

4 [c]If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. [d]Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were [g]some of you: [h]but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 [i]All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not ‖expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 [k]Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but [l]for the Lord; [m]and the Lord for the body.

14 And [n]God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us [o]by his own power.

15 Know ye not, that [p]your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of a harlot? God forbid.

16 What! know ye not that he which is joined to a harlot is one body? for [q]two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

17 [r]But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

18 [s]Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth, is without the body; but he that committeth fornication, sinneth [t]against his own body.

19 What! [u]know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, [x]and ye are not your own?

20 For [y]ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

CHAPTER VII.

2 He treateth of marriage, 4 shewing it to be a remedy against fornication: 10 and that the bond thereof ought not lightly to be dissolved. 18, 20 Every man must be content with his vocation. 25 Virginity wherefore to be embraced. 35 And for what respects we may either marry, or abstain from marrying.

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: [a]It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 [b]Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 [c]Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that [d]Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, [e]and not of commandment.

7 For [f]I would that all men were [g]even as I myself. But [h]every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, [i]It is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But [k]if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And unto the married I command, [l]yet not I, but the Lord, [m]Let not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, [n]not the Lord, If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath a husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else [o]were your children unclean; but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us [p]†to peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt [q]save thy husband? or †how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And [r]so ordain I in all churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? [t]let him not be circumcised.

19 [u]Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but [x]the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it; but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is [y]the Lord's †freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is [z]Christ's servant.

23 [a]Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, [b]let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins, [c]I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment as one [d]that hath obtained mercy of the Lord [e]to be faithful.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present ‖distress; I say, [f]that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned: and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless, such shall have trouble in the flesh; but I spare you.

29 But [g]this I say, brethren, The time is short. It remaineth, that both they that have wives, be as though they had none;

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

31 And they that use this world, as not [h]abusing it. For [i]the fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you without carefulness. [k]He that is unmarried, careth for the things †that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married, careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman [l]careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy, both in body and in spirit: but she that is married, careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheless, he that standeth steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

38 [m]So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

39 [n]The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; [o]only in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she so abide, [p]after my judgment: and [q]I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 To abstain from meats offered to idols. 8, 9 We must not abuse our Christian liberty, to the offence of our brethren: 11 but must bridle our knowledge with charity.

1 NOW, [a]as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have [b]knowledge. [c]Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

2 And [d]if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, [e]the same is known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that [f]an idol is nothing in the world, [g]and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that are [h]called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)

6 But [i]to us there is but one God, the Father, [k]of whom are all things, and we ‖in him; and [l]one Lord Jesus Christ, [m]by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 Howbeit, there is not in every man that knowledge: for some [n]with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol: and their conscience, being weak, is [o]defiled.

8 But [p]meat commendeth us not to God: for neither if we eat ‖are we the better; neither if we eat not, ‖are we the worse.

9 But [q]take heed lest by any means this ‖liberty of yours become [r]a stumbling-block to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee, which hast knowledge, sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not [t]the conscience of him which is weak be †emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

11 And [u]through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

12 But [x]when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

13 Wherefore, [y]if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

CHAPTER IX.

1 He sheweth his liberty, 7 and that the minister ought to live by the gospel: 15 yet that himself hath of his own accord abstained, 18 to be either chargeable unto them, 22 or offensive unto any, in matters indifferent. 24 Our life is like unto a race.

AM [a]I not an apostle? am I not free? [b]have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? [c]are not ye my work in the Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for [d]the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine answer to them that do examine me is this;

4 [e]Have we not power to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a ‖wife, as well as other apostles, and as [f]the brethren of the Lord, and [g]Cephas?

6 Or I only and Barnabas, [h]have not we power to forbear working?

7 Who [i]goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who [k]planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who [l]feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written in the law of Moses, [m]Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that [n]he that plougheth should plough in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.

11 [o]If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? [p]Nevertheless we have not used this power: but suffer all things, [q]lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 [r]Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things ‖live of the things of the temple, and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

14 Even so [s]hath the Lord ordained [t]that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

15 But [u]I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for [x]it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for [y]necessity is laid upon me; yea, wo is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

17 For if I do this thing willingly, [z]I have a reward: but if against my will, [a]a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then? Verily that, [b]when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I [c]abuse not my power in the gospel.

19 For though I be [d]free from all men, yet have [e]I made myself servant unto all, [f]that I might gain the more.

20 And [g]unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;

21 [h]To [i]them that are without law, as without law, ([k]being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

22 [l]To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: [m]I am made all things to all men, [n]that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not, that they which run in a race, run all, but one receiveth the prize? [o]So run, that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that [p]striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we [q]an incorruptible.

26 I therefore so run, [r]not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

27 [s]But I keep under my body, and [t]bring it into subjection: lest that by any means when I have preached to others, I myself should be [u]a cast-away.

CHAPTER X.

1 The sacraments of the Jews 6 are types of ours, 7 and their punishments, 11 examples for us. 14 We must fly from idolatry. 21 We must not make the Lord's table the table of devils: 24 and in things indifferent we must have regard of our brethren.

MOREOVER, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant how that all our fathers were under [a]the cloud, and all passed through [b]the sea;

2 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

3 And did all eat the same [c]spiritual meat;

4 And did all drink the same [d]spiritual drink: (for they drank of that spiritual Rock that ‖followed them: and that Rock was Christ.)

5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they [e]were overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things were †our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as [f]they also lusted.

7 [g]Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them: as it is written, [h]The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

8 [i]Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and [k]fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as [l]some of them also tempted, and [m]were destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither murmur ye, as [n]some of them also murmured, and [o]were destroyed of [p]the destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened unto them for ‖ensamples: and [q]they are written for our admonition, [r]upon whom the ends of the world are come.

12 Wherefore [s]let him that thinketh he standeth, take heed lest he fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you but such as is ‖common to man: but [t]God is faithful, [u]who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also [x]make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, [y]flee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to [z]wise men; judge ye what I say.

16 [a]The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? [b]The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

17 For [c]we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

18 Behold [d]Israel [e]after the flesh: [f]are not they which eat of the sacrifices, partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? [g]that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles [h]sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

21 [i]Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and [k]the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

22 Do we [l]provoke the Lord to jealousy? [m]are we stronger than he?

23 [n]All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.

24 [o]Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.

25 [p]Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no questions for conscience' sake:

26 For [q]the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

27 If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; [r]what-

CHAPTER XI.

1 He reproveth them, because in holy assemblies 4 their men prayed with their heads covered, and 6 women with their heads uncovered, 17 and because generally their meetings were not for the better but for the worse, as 21 namely in profaning with their own feasts the Lord's supper. 23 Lastly, he calleth them to the first institution thereof.

BE [a]ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 Now I praise you, brethren, [b]that ye remember me in all things, and [c]keep the ‖ordinances, as I delivered them to you.

3 But I would have you know, that [d]the head of every man is Christ; and [e]the head of the woman is the man; and [f]the head of Christ is God.

4 Every man praying or [g]prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.

5 But [h]every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered, dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were [i]shaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be [k]a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as [l]he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For [m]the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man.

9 [n]Neither was the man created for the woman, but the woman for the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman [o]to have ‖power on her head, [p]because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless, [q]neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; [r]but all things of God.

13 Judge in yourselves: Is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a ‖covering.

16 But [s]if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, [t]neither the churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare unto you, I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, [u]I hear that there be ‖divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

19 For [x]there must be also ‖heresies among you, [y]that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, ‖this is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and [z]another is drunken.

22 What! have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye [a]the church of God, and [b]shame ‖them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For [c]I have received of the Lord, that which also I delivered unto you, [d]That the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do ‖in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ‖ye do shew the Lord's death [e]till he come.

27 [f]Wherefore, whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But [g]let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh ‖damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

CHAPTER XII.

1 Spiritual gifts 4 are divers, 7 yet all to profit withal. 8 And to that end are diversely bestowed: 12 that by the like proportion, as the members of a natural body tend all to the 16 mutual decency, 22 service, and 26 succour of the same body; 27 so we should do one for another, to make up the mystical body of Christ.

NOW [a]concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know [b]that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these [c]dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, [d]that no man speaking by the Spirit of God, calleth Jesus ||accursed: and [e]that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

4 Now [f]there are diversities of gifts, but [g]the same Spirit.

5 [h]And there are differences of ||administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God [i]which worketh all in all.

7 [k]But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit [l]the word of wisdom; to another, [m]the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

9 [n]To another, faith by the same Spirit; to another, [o]the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;

10 [p]To another, the working of miracles; to another, [q]prophecy; [r]to another, discerning of spirits; to another, [s]divers kinds of tongues; to another, the interpretation of tongues:

11 But all these worketh that one and the self-same Spirit, [t]dividing to every man severally [u]as he will.

12 For [x]as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: [y]so also is Christ.

13 For [z]by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, [a]whether we be Jews or †Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and [b]have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath [c]God set the members every one of them in the body, [d]as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we ||bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no ||schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now [e]ye are the body of Christ, and [f]members in particular.

28 And [g]God hath set some in the church, first [h]apostles, secondarily [i]prophets, thirdly teachers, after that [k]miracles, then [l]gifts of healings, [m]helps, [n]governments, ||diversities of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all ||workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But [o]covet earnestly the best gifts. And yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 All gifts, 2, 3 how excellent soever, are nothing worth without charity. 4 The praises thereof, and 13 prelation before hope and faith.

THOUGH I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

have all faith, [b]so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And [c]though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 [a]Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity ‖vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, [e]seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

6 [f]Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but [g]rejoiceth ‖in the truth;

7 [h]Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 [i]For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I ‖thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For [k]now we see through a glass, †darkly; but then [l]face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

CHAPTER XIV.

1 Prophecy is commended, 2, 3, 4 and preferred before speaking with tongues, 6 by a comparison drawn from musical instruments. 12 Both must be referred to edification, 22 as to their true and proper end. 26 The true use of each is taught, 27 and the abuse taxed. 34 Women are forbidden to speak in the church.

OLLOW after charity, and [a]desire spiritual gifts, [b]but rather that ye may prophesy.

2 For he that [c]speaketh in an unknown tongue, speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man †understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth, speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by [d]revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the ‖sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words †easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.

11 Therefore, if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous †of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore, let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue, pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: [e]I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing [f]with the understanding also.

16 Else, when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen [g]at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, [h]be not children in understanding: howbeit, in malice [i]be ye children, but in understanding be †men.

21 [k]In the law it is [l]written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, [m]will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face, he will worship God, and report [n]that God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, [o]hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. [p]Let all things be done unto edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and [q]let the other judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, [r]let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And [s]the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of †confusion, but of peace, [t]as in all churches of the saints.

34 [u]Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but [x]they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the [y]law.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 What! came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?

37 [z]If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethren, [a]covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

40 [b]Let all things be done decently, and in order.

CHAPTER XV.

3 By Christ's resurrection, 12 he proveth the necessity of our resurrection, against all such as deny the resurrection of the body. 21 The fruit, 35 and manner thereof, 51 and of the changing of them, that shall be found alive at the last day.

MOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel [a]which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and [b]wherein ye stand;

2 [c]By which also ye are saved, if ye ‖keep in memory †what I preached unto you, unless [d]ye have believed in vain.

3 For [e]I delivered unto you first of all, that [f]which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins [g]according to the scriptures;

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day [h]according to the scriptures:

5 [i]And that he was seen of Cephas, then [k]of the twelve:

6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that, he was seen of James; then [l]of all the apostles.

8 [m]And last of all he was seen of me also, as of ‖one born out of due time.

9 For I am [n]the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because [o]I persecuted the church of God.

10 But [p]by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me, was not in vain; but [q]I laboured more abundantly than they all: [r]yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, [s]then is Christ not risen:

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because [t]we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; [u]ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 [x]If in this life only, we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now [y]is Christ risen from the dead, and become [z]the first-fruits of them that slept.

21 For [a]since by man came death, [b]by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But [c]every man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up [d]the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule, and all authority, and power.

25 For he must reign, [e]till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 [f]The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For he [g]hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted which did put all things under him.

28 [h]And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then [i]shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do, which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And [k]why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by ‖[l]your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, [m]I die daily.

32 If ‖after the manner of men [n]I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? [o]let us eat and drink; for to-morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: [p]evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 [q]Awake to righteousness, and sin not; [r]for some have not the knowledge of God. [s]I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, [t]How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, [u]that which thou sowest is not quickened except it die:

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain; it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh; but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 [x]So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption:

43 [y]It is sown in dishonour, it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Adam [z]was made a living soul, [a]the last Adam was made [b]a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit, that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 [c]The first man is of the earth, [d]earthy: the second man is the Lord [e]from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: [f]and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And [g]as we have borne the image of the earthy, [h]we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that [i]flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; [k]We shall not all sleep, [l]but we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: [m]for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and [n]this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, [o]Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 [p]O death, where is thy sting? O ‖grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and [q]the strength of sin is the law.

57 [r]But thanks be to God, which giveth us [s]the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 [t]Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know [u]that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

CHAPTER XVI.

1 He exhorteth them to relieve the want of the brethren at Jerusalem. 10 Commendeth Timothy, 13 and after friendly admonitions, 16 shutteth up his epistle with divers salutations.

NOW concerning [a]the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

2 [b]Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come, [c]whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your †liberality unto Jerusalem.

4 [d]And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, [e]when I shall pass through Macedonia: for I do pass through Macedonia.

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may [f]bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, [g]if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.

9 For [h]a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and [i]there are many adversaries.

10 Now [k]if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear: for [l]he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 [m]Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth [n]in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother [o]Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 [p]Watch ye, [q]stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, [r]be strong.

14 [s]Let all your things be done with charity.

¶ The first epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippi, by Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus, and Timotheus.

¶ THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER I.

3 The apostle encourageth them against troubles, by the comforts and deliverances which God had given him, as in all his afflictions, 8 so particularly in his late danger in Asia. 12 And calling both his own conscience and theirs to witness of his sincere manner of preaching the immutable truth of the gospel, 15 he excuseth his not coming to them, as proceeding not of lightness, but of his lenity toward them.

PAUL, [s]an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, [b]with all the saints which are in all Achaia:

2 [c]Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [d]Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

5 For as [e]the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, [f]it is for your consolation and salvation, which ‖is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is steadfast, knowing, that [g]as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of [h]our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:

9 But we had the ‖sentence of death in ourselves, that we should [i]not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead:

10 [k]Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us:

11 Ye also [l]helping together by prayer for us, that [m]for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons, thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and [n]godly sincerity, [o]not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

13 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;

14 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, [p]that we are your rejoicing, even as [q]ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence [r]I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have [s]a second ‖benefit;

16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and [t]to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judea.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose [u]according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea, yea, and nay, nay?

18 But as God is true, our ‖word toward you was not yea and nay.

19 For [x]the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, [y]but in him was yea.

20 [z]For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which establisheth us with you in Christ, and [a]hath anointed us, is God;

22 Who [b]hath also sealed us, and [c]given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover, [d]I call God for a record upon my soul, [e]that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not for [f]that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for [g]by faith ye stand.

CHAPTER II.

1 Having shewed the reason why he came not to them, 6 he requireth them to forgive and to comfort that excommunicated person, 10 even as himself also upon his true repentance had forgiven him, 12 declaring withal why he departed from Troas to Macedonia, 14 and the happy success which God gave to his preaching in all places

BUT I determined this with myself, [s]that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, [b]I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; [c]having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; [d]not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But [e]if any have caused grief, he hath not [f]grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this ‖punishment, which was inflicted [g]of many.

7 [h]So that contrariwise, ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be [i]obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it ‖in the person of Christ;

11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, [k]when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and [l]a door was opened unto me of the Lord,

13 [m]I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest [n]the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, [o]in them that are saved, and [p]in them that perish:

16 [q]To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And [r]who is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many, which ‖[s]corrupt the word of God: but as [t]of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we ‖in Christ.

CHAPTER III.

1 Lest their false teachers should charge him with vainglory, he sheweth the faith and graces of the Corinthians to be a sufficient commendation of his ministry. 6 Whereupon entering a comparison between the ministers of the law and of the gospel, 12 he proveth that his ministry is so far the more excellent, as the gospel of life and liberty is more glorious than the law of condemnation.

1 DO [a]we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, [b]epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 [c]Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:

3 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ [d]ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not [e]in tables of stone, but [f]in fleshly tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:

5 [g]Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but [h]our sufficiency is of God;

6 Who also hath made us able [i]ministers of [k]the new testament; not [l]of the letter, but of the spirit: for [m]the letter killeth, [n]but the spirit ‖giveth life.

7 But if [o]the ministration of death, [p]written and engraven in stones, was glorious, [q]so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away:

8 How shall not [r]the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration [s]of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, [t]we use great ‖plainness of speech:

13 And not as Moses, [u]which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not steadfastly look to [x]the end of that which is abolished:

14 But [y]their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless, [z]when it shall turn to the Lord, [a]the vail shall be taken away.

17 Now [b]the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all, with open face beholding [c]as in a glass [d]the glory of the Lord, [e]are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as ‖by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He declareth how he hath used all sincerity and faithful diligence in preaching the gospel, 7 and how the troubles and persecutions which he daily endured for the same did redound to the praise of God's power, 12 to the benefit of the Church, 16 and to the apostle's own eternal glory.

THEREFORE, seeing we have [a]this ministry, [b]as we have received mercy, we faint not;

2 But have renounced the hidden things of † dishonesty; not walking in craftiness, [c]nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but, [d]by manifestation of the truth, [e]commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 But if our gospel be hid, [f]it is hid to them that are lost:

4 In whom [g]the god of this world [h]hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest [i]the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, [k]who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5 [l]For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and [m]ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

6 For God, [n]who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, † hath [o]shined in our hearts, to give [p]the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in [q]earthen vessels, [r]that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are [s]troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but ‖not in despair;

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; [t]cast down, but not destroyed;

10 [u]Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, [x]that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live [y]are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then [z]death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having [a]the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, [b]I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

14 Knowing, that [c]he which raised up the Lord Jesus, shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For [d]all things are for your sakes, that [e]the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet [f]the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For [g]our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 [h]While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAPTER V.

1 That in his assured hope of immortal glory, 9 and in expectance of it, and of the general judgment, he laboureth to keep a good conscience, 12 not that he may herein boast of himself, 14 but as one that, having received life from Christ, endeavoureth to live as a new creature to Christ only, 18 and by his ministry of reconciliation to reconcile others also in Christ to God.

1 FOR we know that if [a]our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this [b]we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that [c]being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but [d]clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now [e]he that hath wrought us for the self-same thing is God, who also [f]hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For [g]we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, and [h]willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we ‖ labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 [i]For we must all appear before the judgment-seat of Christ; [k]that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore [l]the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but [m]we are made manifest unto God: and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For [n]we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion [o]to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory †in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For [p]whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that [q]if one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, [r]that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 [s]Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, [t]yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore, if any man [u]be in Christ, ‖he is [x]a new creature: [y]old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, [z]who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that [a]God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath †committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are [b]ambassadors for Christ, as [c]though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For [d]he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made [e]the righteousness of God in him.

CHAPTER VI.

1 That he hath approved himself a faithful minister of Christ, both by his exhortations, 3 and by integrity of life, 4 and by patient enduring all kinds of affliction and disgraces for the gospel. 10 Of which he speaketh the more boldly amongst them, because his heart is open to them, 13 and he expecteth the like affection from them again, 14 exhorting to flee the society and pollutions of idolaters, as being themselves temples of the living God.

WE then, as [a]workers together with him, [b]beseech you also [c]that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, [d]I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

3 [e]Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

4 But in all things †approving ourselves [f]as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 [g]In stripes, in imprisonments, ‖in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

18 [y]And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

CHAPTER VII.

1 He proceedeth in exhorting them to purity of life, 2 and to bear him like affection as he doth to them. 3 Whereof lest he might seem to doubt, he declareth what comfort he took in his afflictions, by the report which Titus gave of their godly sorrow, which his former epistle had wrought in them, 13 and of their loving-kindness and obedience toward Titus, answerable to his former boastings of them.

HAVING [a]therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, [b]we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you: for [c]I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 [d]Great is my boldness of speech toward you, [e]great is my glorying of you: [f]I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For [g]when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but [h]we were troubled on every side; [i]without were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless [k]God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by [l]the coming of Titus;

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, [m]though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry ‖after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For [n]godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: [o]but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold this self-same thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, [p]but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit [q]was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his †inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth [r]the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoice therefore that [s]I have confidence in you in all things.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 He stirreth them up to a liberal contribution for the poor saints at Jerusalem, by the example of the Macedonians, 7 by commendation of their former forwardness, 9 by the example of Christ, 14 and by the spiritual profit that shall redound to themselves thereby: 16 commending to them the integrity and willingness of Titus, and those other brethren, who upon his request, exhortation, and commendation, were purposely come to them for this business.

joy, and [a]their deep poverty, abounded unto the riches of their †liberality.

3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power, they were willing of themselves;

4 Praying us with much entreaty, that we would receive the gift, and take upon us [b]the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God:

6 Insomuch that [c]we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same ‖grace also.

7 Therefore, as [d]ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see [e]that ye abound in this grace also.

8 [f]I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, [g]that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein [h]I give my advice: for [i]this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be †[k]forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

12 For [l]if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and you burdened:

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, [m]He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted [n]the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him [o]the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

19 And not that only, but who was also [p]chosen of the churches to travel with us with this ‖grace, which is administered by us [q]to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

21 [r]Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which ‖I have in you.

23 Whether any do inquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellow-helper concerning you: or our brethren be inquired of, they are [s]the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our [t]boasting on your behalf.

CHAPTER IX.

1 He yieldeth the reason why, though he knew their forwardness, yet he sent Titus and his brethren beforehand. 6 And he proceedeth in stirring them up to a bountiful alms, as being but a kind of sowing of seed, 10 which shall return a great increase to them, 13 and occasion a great sacrifice of thanksgivings unto God.

FOR as touching [a]the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:

2 For I know [b]the forwardness of your mind, [c]for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that [d]Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 [e]Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready:

4 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your †bounty, ‖whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

6 [f]But this I say, He which soweth sparingly, shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully, shall reap also bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; [g]not grudgingly, or of necessity: for [h]God loveth a cheerful giver.

8 [i]And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

9 (As it is written, [k]He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.

10 Now he that [l]ministereth seed to the sower, both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your [m]righteousness;)

11 Being enriched in every thing to all ||†bountifulness, [n]which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

12 For the administration of this service not only [o]supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God;

13 While by the experiment of this ministration they [p]glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal [q]distribution unto them, and unto all men;

14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you, for the exceeding [r]grace of God in you.

15 Thanks be unto God [s]for his unspeakable gift.

CHAPTER X.

1 Against the false apostles, who disgraced the weakness of his person and bodily presence, he setteth out the spiritual might and authority, with which he is armed against all adversary powers, 7 assuring them that at his coming he will be found as mighty in word, as he is now in writing being absent, 12 and withal taxing them for reaching out themselves beyond their compass, and vaunting themselves into other men's labours.

1 NOW [a]I Paul myself beseech you, by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, [b]who ||in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you:

2 But I beseech you, [c]that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which ||think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

4 ([d]For the weapons [e]of our warfare are not carnal, but [f]mighty ||through God [g]to the pulling down of strong holds:)

5 [h]Casting down ||imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

6 [i]And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when [k]your obedience is fulfilled.

7 [l]Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? [m]If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are [n]we Christ's.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more [o]of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, [p]I should not be ashamed:

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For his letters (†say they) are weighty and powerful; but [q]his bodily presence is weak, and his [r]speech contemptible.

11 Let such a one think this, that such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 [s]For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, ||are not wise.

13 [t]But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the ||rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: [u]for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:

15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, [x]of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be ||enlarged by you, according to our rule abundantly,

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's ||line of things made ready to our hand.

17 [y]But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For [z]not he that commendeth himself is approved, but [a]whom the Lord commendeth.

CHAPTER XI.

1 Out of his jealousy over the Corinthians, who seemed to make more account of the false apostles than of him, he entereth into a forced commendation of himself, 5 of his equality with the chief apostles, 7 of his preaching the gospel to them freely, and without any their charge, 13 shewing that he was not inferior to those deceitful workers in any legal prerogative, 23 and in the service of Christ, and in all kind of sufferings for his ministry, far superior.

WOULD to God ye could bear with me a little in [a]my folly: and indeed ||bear with me.

2 For I am [b]jealous over you with godly jealousy: for [c]I have espoused you to one husband, [d]that I may present you [e]as a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as [f]the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds [g]should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or [h]another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear ||with him.

5 For I suppose [i]I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 But though [k]I be rude in speech, yet not

PAUL RESCUED FROM THE DEEP

[l]in knowledge; but [m]we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence [n]in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, [o]I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me [p]the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself [q]from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 [r]As the truth of Christ is in me, †[s]no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? [t]because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, [u]that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such [x]are false apostles, [y]deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into [z]an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the [a]ministers of righteousness; [b]whose end shall be according to their works.

16 [c]I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool ‖receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak, [d]I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, [e]in this confidence of boasting.

18 [f]Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, [g]seeing ye yourselves are wise.

20 For ye suffer, [h]if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speak as concerning reproach, [i]as though we had been weak. Howbeit, [k]whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

22 Are they Hebrews? [l]so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.

23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; [m]in labours more abundant, [n]in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, [o]in deaths oft.

24 Of the Jews five times received I [p]forty stripes save one.

25 Thrice was I [q]beaten with rods, [r]once was I stoned, thrice I [s]suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

26 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, [t]in perils by mine own countrymen, [u]in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;

27 In weariness and painfulness, [x]in watchings often, [y]in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

28 Besides those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, [z]the care of all the churches.

29 [a]Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, [b]I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 [c]The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, [d]which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 [e] In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAPTER XII.

1 For commending of his apostleship, though he might glory of his wonderful revelations, 9 yet he rather chooseth to glory of his infirmities, 11 blaming them for forcing him to this vain boasting. 14 He promiseth to come to them again: but yet altogether in the affection of a father, 20 although he feareth he shall to his grief find many offenders, and public disorders there.

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. †I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man [a]in Christ about fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such a one [b]caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

4 How that he was caught up into [c]paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not ‖lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such a one will I glory: [d]yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For [e]though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a [f]thorn in the flesh, [g]the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 [h]For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore [i]will I rather glory in my infirmities, [k]that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore [l]I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: [m]for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become [n]a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for [o]in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though [p]I be nothing.

12 [q]Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 [r]For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that [s]I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me [t]this wrong.

14 [u]Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for [x]I seek not yours, but you. [y]For the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And [z]I will very gladly spend and be spent [a]for †you; though [b]the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

16 But be it so, [c]I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 [d]Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 [e]I desired Titus, and with him I sent a [f]brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 [g]Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? [h]we speak before God in Christ: [i]but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that [k]I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

21 And lest, when I come again, my God [l]will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many [m]which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness, and [n]fornication, and lasciviousness, which they have committed.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 He threateneth severity, and the power of his apostleship against obstinate sinners. 5 And advising them to a trial of their faith, 7 and to a reformation of their sins before his coming, 11 he concludeth his epistle with a general exhortation and a prayer.

THIS is [a]the third time I am coming to you: [b]in the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 [c]I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them [d]which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, [e]I will not spare:

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ [f]speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty [g]in you.

4 [h]For though he was crucified through weakness, yet [i]he liveth by the power of God. For [k]we also are weak ‖in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO THE GALATIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

6 He wondereth that they have so soon left him and the gospel, 8 and accurseth those that preach any other gospel than he did. 11 He learned the gospel not of men, but of God: 14 and sheweth what he was before his calling, 17 and what he did presently after it.

PAUL, an apostle, ([a]not of men, neither by man, but [b]by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, [c]who raised him from the dead;)

2 And all the brethren [d]which are with me, [e]unto the churches of Galatia:

3 [f]Grace be to you, and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 [g]Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us [h]from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:

5 To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed [i]from him that called you into the grace of Christ, unto another gospel:

7 [k]Which is not another; but there be some [l]that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 But though [m]we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you [n]than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

10 For [o]do I now [p]persuade men, or God? or [q]do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

11 [r]But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man:

12 For [s]I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but [t]by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that [u]beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and [x]wasted it;

14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my †equals in mine own nation, [y]being more exceedingly zealous [z]of the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, [a]who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,

16 [b]To reveal his Son in me, that [c]I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with [d]flesh and blood:

17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me: but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

18 Then after three years [e]I ‖went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But [f]other of the apostles saw I none, save [g]James the Lord's brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, [h]behold, before God, I lie not.

21 [i]Afterward I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia;

22 And was unknown by face [k]unto the churches of Judea which [l]were in Christ:

23 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past, now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAPTER II.

1 He sheweth when he went up again to Jerusalem, and for what purpose: 3 and that Titus was not circumcised: 11 and that he resisted Peter, and told him the reason, 14 why he and other, being Jews, do believe in Christ to be justified by faith, and not by works: 20 and that they live not in sin, who are so justified.

THEN fourteen years after [e]I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.

2 And I went up by revelation, [b]and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but ‖privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means [c]I should run, or had run, in vain.

3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that because of [d]false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our [e]liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, [f]that they might bring us into bondage:

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that [g]the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of those, [h]who seemed to be somewhat, whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: [i]God accepteth no man's person: for they who seemed to be somewhat, [k]in conference added nothing to me:

7 But contrariwise, [l]when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision [m]was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter;

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, [n]the same was [o]mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)

9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be [p]pillars, perceived [q]the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; [r]the same which I also was forward to do.

11 [s]But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from James, [t]he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew, and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to [u]the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter [x]before them all, [y]If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

15 [z]We who are Jews by nature, and not [a]sinners of the Gentiles,

16 [b]Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but [c]by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for [d]by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found [e]sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I [f]through the law [g]am dead to the law, that I might [h]live unto God.

20 I am [i]crucified with Christ: nevertheless, I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh, [k]I live by the faith of the Son of God, [l]who loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for [m]if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

CHAPTER III.

1 He asketh what moved them to leave the faith, and hang upon the law? 6 They that believe are justified, 9 and blessed with Abraham. 10 And this he sheweth by many reasons.

FOOLISH Galatians, [a]who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey [b]the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye [c]the Spirit by the works of the law, [d]or by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? [e]having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by [f]the flesh?

4 [g]Have ye suffered ‖so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore [h]that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as [i]Abraham believed God, and it was ‖accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore, that [k]they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 And [l]the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, [m]In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law, are under the curse: for it is written, [n]Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But [o]that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, [p]The just shall live by faith.

12 And [q]the law is not of faith: but, [r]The man that doeth them shall live in them.

13 [s]Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, [t]Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 [u]That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive [x]the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; [y]Though it be but a man's ‖covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth or addeth thereto.

16 Now [z]to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is [a]Christ.

17 And this I say, That the covenant that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, [b]which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, [c]that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if [d]the inheritance be of the law, [e]it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? [f]It was added because of transgressions, till [g]the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was [h]ordained by angels in the hand [i]of a mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one; [k]but God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: [l]for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But [m]the scripture hath concluded [n]all under sin, [o]that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterward be revealed.

24 Wherefore [p]the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, [q]that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a school-master.

26 For ye [r]are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For [s]as many of you as have been baptized into Christ, [t]have put on Christ.

28 [u]There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all [x]one in Christ Jesus.

29 And [y]if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and [z]heirs according to the promise.

CHAPTER IV.

1 We were under the law till Christ came, as the heir is under his guardian till he be of age. 5 But Christ freed us from the law: 7 therefore we are servants no longer to it. 14 He remembereth their good will to him, and his to them, 22 and sheweth that we are the sons of Abraham by the free-woman.

NOW I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, [a]were in bondage under the ‖elements of the world:

4 But [b]when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, [c]made [d]of a woman, [e]made under the law,

5 [f]To redeem them that were under the law, [g]that we might receive the adoption of sons.

6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth [h]the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; [i]and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit then, [k]when ye knew not God, [l]ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, [m]after that ye have known God,

f Matt. 20, 28. Ch. 3, 13. Tit. 2, 14. Hebr. 9, 12. Ephes. 1, 7. 1 Pet. 1, 18, 19.—g John 1, 12. Ch. 3, 26. Ephes. 1, 5.—h Rom. 5, 5, & 8, 15.—i Rom. 8, 16, 17. or rather are known of God, [n]how turn ye ||again to [o]the weak and beggarly ||elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10 [p]Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, [q]lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: [r]ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how [s]through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you [t]at the first.

14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me [u]as an angel of God, [x]even as Christ Jesus.

15 ||Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy [y]because I tell you the truth?

17 They [z]zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude ||you, that ye might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 [a]My little children, of whom I travail in birth again, until Christ be formed in you,

20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for ||I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons; [b]the one by a bond-maid, [c]the other by a free-woman.

23 But he who was of the bond-woman [d]was born after the flesh; [e]but he of the free-woman was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two ||covenants; the one from the Mount †[f]Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.

25 For this Agar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and ||answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But [g]Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, [h]Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath a husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are [i]the children of promise.

29 But as then [k]he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, [l]even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless, what saith [m]the scripture?

[n]Cast out the bond-woman and her son: for [o]the son of the bond-woman shall not be heir with the son of the free-woman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bond-woman, [p]but of the free.

CHAPTER V.

1 He moveth them to stand in their liberty, 3 and not to observe circumcision: 13 but rather love, which is the sum of the law. 19 He reckoneth up the works of the flesh, 22 and the fruits of the Spirit, 25 and exhorteth to walk in the Spirit.

STAND fast therefore in [a]the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again [b]with the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that [c]if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, [d]that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 [e]Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; [f]ye are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit [g]wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

6 For [h]in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but [i]faith which worketh by love.

7 Ye [k]did run well; [l]||who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?

8 This persuasion cometh not of him [m]that calleth you.

9 [n]A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 [o]I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but [p]he that troubleth you [q]shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

11 [r]And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, [s]why do I yet suffer persecution? then is [t]the offence of the cross ceased.

12 [u]I would they were even cut off [x]which trouble you.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only [y]use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but [z]by love serve one another.

14 For [a]all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this, [b]Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, [c]Walk in the Spirit, and ||ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For [d]the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other; [e]so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But [f]if ye be led by the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now [g]the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these, Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that [h]they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But [i]the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, [k]gentleness, [l]goodness, [m]faith,

23 Meekness, temperance: [n]against such there is no law.

24 And they that are Christ's [o]have crucified the flesh, with the ‖affections and lusts.

25 [p]If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 [q]Let us not be desirous of vain-glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAPTER VI.

1 He moveth them to deal mildly with a brother that hath slipped, 2 and to bear one another's burden: 6 to be liberal to their teachers, 9 and not weary of well-doing. 12 He sheweth what they intend that preach circumcision. 14 He glorieth in nothing, save in the cross of Christ.

BRETHREN, [a]‖if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye [b]which are spiritual, restore such a one [c]in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, [d]lest thou also be tempted.

2 [e]Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil [f]the law of Christ.

3 For [g]if a man think himself to be something, when [h]he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But [i]let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and [k]not in another.

5 For [l]every man shall bear his own burden.

10 [t]As we have therefore opportunity, [u]let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of [x]the household of faith.

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, [y]they constrain you to be circumcised; [z]only lest they should [a]suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 [b]But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, ‖by whom the world is [c]crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

15 For [d]in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but [e]a new creature.

16 [f]And as many as walk [g]according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon [h]the Israel of God.

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me: for [i]I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 Brethren, [k]the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

¶ Unto the Galatians, written from Rome.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO THE EPHESIANS.

CHAPTER I.

1 After the salutation, 3 and thanksgiving for the Ephesians, 4 he treateth of our election, 6 and adoption by grace, 11 which is the true and proper fountain of man's salvation. 13 And because the height of this mystery cannot easily be attained unto, 16 he prayeth that they may come 18 to the full knowledge and 20 possession thereof in Christ.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ [a]by the will of God, [b]to the saints which are at Ephesus, [c]and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:

2 [d]Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [e]Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly ‖places in Christ:

4 According as [f]he hath chosen us in him, [g]before the foundation of the world, that we should [h]be holy and without blame before him in love;

5 [i]Having predestinated us unto [k]the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, [l]according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, [m]wherein he hath made us accepted in [n]the Beloved:

7 [o]In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to [p]the riches of his grace;

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence;

9 [q]Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure, [r]which he hath purposed in himself:

10 That in the dispensation of [s]the fulness of times [t]he might gather together in one [u]all things in Christ, both which are in †heaven, and which are on earth; even in him:

11 [x]In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, [y]being predestinated according to [z]the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will:

12 [a]That we should be to the praise of his glory, [b]who first ‖trusted in Christ.

13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard [c]the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also, after that ye believed, [d]ye were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise,

14 [e]Which is the earnest of our inheritance [f]until the redemption of [g]the purchased possession, [h]unto the praise of his glory.

15 Wherefore I also, [i]after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, [q]according to the working †of his mighty power,

20 Which he wrought in Christ, when [r]he raised him from the dead, and [s]set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

21 [t]Far above all [u]principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come:

22 And [x]hath put all things under his feet, and gave him [y]to be the head over all things to the church,

23 [z]Which is his body, [a]the fulness of him [b]that filleth all in all.

CHAPTER II.

1 By comparing what we were by 3 nature, with what we are 5 by grace: 10 he declareth, that we are made for good works; and 13 being brought near by Christ, should not live as 11 Gentiles, and 12 foreigners in time past, but as 19 citizens with the saints, and the family of God.

AND [a]you hath he quickened, [b]who were dead in trespasses and sins;

2 [c]Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to [d]the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in [e]the children of disobedience:

3 [f]Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in [g]the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling †the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and [h]were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, [i]who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 [k]Even when we were dead in sins, hath

[l]quickened us together with Christ; (‖by grace ye are saved;)

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together [m]in heavenly places, in Christ Jesus:

7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in [n]his kindness toward us, through Christ Jesus.

8 [o]For by grace are ye saved, [p]through faith; and that not of yourselves: [q]it is the gift of God:

9 [r]Not of works, lest any man should boast.

10 For we are [s]his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, [t]which God hath before ‖ordained that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore [u]remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called [x]the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands;

12 [y]That at that time ye were without Christ, [z]being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from [a]the covenants of promise, [b]having no hope, [c]and without God in the world:

13 [d]But now, in Christ Jesus, ye, who sometimes were [e]far off, are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

14 For [f]he is our peace, [g]who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

15 [h]Having abolished [i]in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances: for to make in himself of twain one [k]new man, so making peace;

16 And that he might [l]reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, [m]having slain the enmity ‖thereby:

17 And came [n]and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to [o]them that were nigh.

18 For [p]through him we both have access [q]by one Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but [r]fellow-citizens with the saints, and of [s]the household of God;

20 And are [t]built [u]upon the foundation of the [x]apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being [y]the chief corner-stone;

21 [z]In whom all the building fitly framed together, groweth unto [a]a holy temple in the Lord:

22 [b]In whom ye also are builded together, for a habitation of God through the Spirit.

CHAPTER III.

5 The hidden mystery, 6 that the Gentiles should be saved, 3 was made known to Paul by revelation: 8 and to him was that grace given, that 9 he should preach it. 13 He desireth them not to faint for his tribulation, 14 and prayeth 19 that they may perceive the great love of Christ toward them.

FOR this cause, I Paul, [a]the prisoner of Jesus Christ [b]for you Gentiles,

2 If ye have heard of the [c]dispensation of the grace of God [d]which is given me to you-ward:

3 [e]How that [f]by revelation [g]he made known unto me the mystery, [h]as I wrote ‖afore in few words;

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge [i]in the mystery of Christ,

5 [k]Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, [l]as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

6 That the Gentiles [m]should be fellow-heirs, and [n]of the same body, and [o]partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel:

7 [p]Whereof I was made a minister, [q]according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by [r]the effectual working of his power.

8 Unto me, [s]who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that [t]I should preach among the Gentiles [u]the unsearchable riches of Christ;

9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of [x]the mystery, [y]which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, [z]who created all things by Jesus Christ:

10 [a]To the intent that now [b]unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places [c]might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God,

11 [d]According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:

12 In whom we have boldness and [e]access [f]with confidence by the faith of him.

13 [g]Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations [h]for you, [i]which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

15 Of whom [k]the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

16 That he would grant you, [l]according to the riches of his glory, [m]to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in [n]the inner man;

17 [o]That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, [p]being rooted and grounded in love,

18 [q]May be able to comprehend with all saints [r]what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled [s]with all the fulness of God.

20 Now [t]unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly [u]above all that we ask or think, [x]according to the power that worketh in us,

21 [y]Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He exnorteth to unity, 7 and declareth that God therefore giveth divers 11 gifts unto men, that his church might be 13 edified, and 16 grown up in Christ. 18 He calleth them from the impurity of the Gentiles, 24 to put on the new man, 25 to cast off lying, and 29 corrupt communication.

I THEREFORE, [a]the prisoner ‖of the Lord, beseech you that ye [b]walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

2 [c]With all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love;

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit [d]in the bond of peace.

4 [e]There is one body, and [f]one Spirit, even as ye are called in one [g]hope of your calling;

5 [h]One Lord, [i]one faith, [k]one baptism,

6 [l]One God and Father of all, who is above all, and [m]through all, and in you all.

7 But [n]unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, [o]When he ascended up on high, [p]he led ‖captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

9 [q]Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

10 He that descended is the same also [r]that ascended up far above all heavens, [s]that he might ‖fill all things.

11 [t]And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, [u]evangelists; and some, [x]pastors and [y]teachers;

12 [z]For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, [a]for the edifying of [b]the body of Christ:

13 Till we all come ‖in the unity of the faith, [c]and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto [d]a perfect man, unto the measure of the ‖stature of the fulness of Christ:

14 That we henceforth be no more [e]children, [f]tossed to and fro, and carried about with every [g]wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, [h]whereby they lie in wait to deceive:

15 But [i]‖speaking the truth in love, [k]may grow up into him in all things, [l]which is the head, even Christ:

16 [m]From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that [n]ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, [o]in the vanity of their mind,

18 [p]Having the understanding darkened, [q]being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the [r]‖blindness of their heart:

19 [s]Who, being past feeling, [t]have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ;

21 [u]If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:

22 That ye [x]put off concerning [y]the former conversation [z]the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

23 And [a]be renewed in the spirit of your mind;

24 And that ye [b]put on the new man, which after God [c]is created in righteousness and ‖true holiness.

25 Wherefore putting away lying, [d]speak every man truth with his neighbour: for [e]we are members one of another.

26 [f]Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

27 [g]Neither give place to the devil.

28 Let him that stole, steal no more: but rather [h]let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have ‖to give [i]to him that needeth.

29 [k]Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but [l]that which is good ‖to the use of edifying, [m]that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

30 And [n]grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, [o]whereby ye are sealed unto the day of [p]redemption.

31 [q]Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and [r]evil-speaking, be put away from you, [s]with all malice:

32 And [t]be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, [u]forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

CHAPTER V.

2 After general exhortations, to love, 3 to fly fornication, 4 and all uncleanness, 7 not to converse with the wicked, 15 to walk warily, and to be 18 filled with the Spirit, 22 he descendeth to the particular duties, how wives ought to obey their husbands, 25 and husbands ought to love their wives, 32 even as Christ doth his church.

BE [a]ye therefore followers of God as dear children;

2 And [b]walk in love, [c]as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God [d]for a sweet-smelling savour.

3 But [e]fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, [f]let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints;

4 [g]Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, [h]which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.

5 For this ye know, that [i]no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, [k]who is an idolater, [l]hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

6 [m]Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things [n]cometh the wrath of God [o]upon the children of ‖disobedience.

7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

8 [p]For ye were sometime darkness, but now [q]are ye light in the Lord: walk as [r]children of light;

9 (For [s]the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness, and righteousness, and truth;)

10 [t]Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.

11 And [u]have no fellowship with [x]the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather [y]reprove them.

12 [z]For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

13 But [a]all things that are ‖reproved, are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.

14 Wherefore ‖he saith, [b]Awake, thou that sleepest, and [c]arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

15 [d]See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,

16 [e]Redeeming the time, [f]because the days are evil.

17 [g]Wherefore be ye not unwise, but [h]understanding [i]what the will of the Lord is.

18 And [k]be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;

19 Speaking to yourselves [l]in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord,

20 [m]Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father, [n]in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;

21 [o]Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

22 [p]Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, [q]as unto the Lord.

23 For [r]the husband is the head of the wife, even as [s]Christ is the head of the church: and he is the Saviour of [t]the body.

24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands [u]in every thing.

25 [x]Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and [y]gave himself for it;

26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it [z]with the washing of water [a]by the word,

27 [b]That he might present it to himself a glorious church, [c]not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing; [d]but that it should be holy and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:

30 For [e]we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 [f]For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they [g]two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless, [h]let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself: and the wife see that she [i]reverence her husband.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The duty of children toward their parents, 5 of servants toward their masters. 10 Our life is a warfare, 12 not only against flesh and blood, but also spiritual enemies. 13 The complete armour of a Christian, 18 and how it ought to be used. 21 Tychicus is commended.

1 CHILDREN, [a]obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

2 [b]Honour thy father and mother, (which is the first commandment with promise,)

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

4 And, [c]ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but [d]bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

5 [e]Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, [f]with fear and trembling, [g]in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ;

6 [h]Not with eye-service, as men-pleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

8 [i]Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, [k]whether he be bond or free.

9 And, ye [l]masters, do the same things unto them, ‖[m]forbearing threatening: knowing that ‖[n]your Master also is in heaven; [o]neither is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and [p]in the power of his might.

11 [q]Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For we wrestle not against †[r]flesh and blood, but against [s]principalities, against powers, against [t]the rulers of the darkness of this world, against ‖spiritual wickedness in ‖high places.

13 [u]Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand [x]in the evil day, and ‖having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, [y]having your loins girt about with truth, and [z]having on the breastplate of righteousness;

15 [a]And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

16 Above all, taking [b]the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

17 And [c]take the helmet of salvation, and [d]the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

18 [e]Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and [f]watching thereunto with all perseverance and [g]supplication for all saints;

19 [h]And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth [i]boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel,

20 For which [k]I am an ambassador [l]‖in bonds: that ‖therein [m]I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 But [n]that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, [o]Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:

22 [p]Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.

23 [q]Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ [r]‖in sincerity. Amen.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO THE PHILIPPIANS.

CHAPTER I.

3 He testifieth his thankfulness to God, and his love toward them, for the fruits of their faith, and fellowship in his sufferings, 9 daily praying to him for their increase in grace: 12 he sheweth what good the faith of Christ had received by his troubles at Rome, 21 and how ready he is to glorify Christ either by his life or death, 27 exhorting them to unity, 28 and to fortitude in persecution.

PAUL and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints [a]in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:

2 [b]Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [c]I thank my God upon every ‖remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 [d]For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun [e]a good work in you, ‖will perform it [f]until the day of Jesus Christ:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because ‖I have you [g]in my heart; inasmuch as both in [h]my bonds, and in [i]the defence and confirmation of the gospel, [k]ye all are ‖partakers of my grace.

8 For [l]God is my record, [m]how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, [n]that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all ‖judgment;

10 That [o]ye may ‖approve things that ‖are excellent; [p]that ye may be sincere and without offence [q]till the day of Christ;

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, [r]which are by Jesus Christ, [s]unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds ||in Christ are manifest [t]in all ||the palace, and ||in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and [u]strife; and some also of good will.

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for [x]the defence of the gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation [y]through your prayer, and the supply of [z]the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

20 According to my [a]earnest expectation, and my hope, that [b]in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that [c]with all boldness, as always, so now also, Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.

23 For [d]I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to [e]depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:

24 Nevertheless, to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And [f]having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;

26 That [g]your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.

27 Only [h]let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, [i]that ye stand fast in one spirit, [k]with one mind [l]striving together for the faith of the gospel;

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: [m]which is to them an evident token of perdition, [n]but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you [o]it is given in the behalf of Christ, [p]not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

30 [q]Having the same conflict [r]which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAPTER II.

1 He exhorteth them to unity, and to all humbleness of mind, by the example of Christ's humility and exaltation: 12 to a careful proceeding in the way of salvation, that they be as lights to the wicked world, 16 and comforts to him their apostle, who is now ready to be offered up to God. 19 He hopeth to send Timothy to them, whom he greatly commendeth, 25 as Epaphroditus also, whom he presently sendeth to them.

IF there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, [a]if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any [b]bowels and mercies,

2 [c]Fulfil ye my joy, [d]that ye be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3 [e]Let nothing be done through strife or vain-glory; but [f]in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

4 [g]Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 [h]Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 Who, [i]being in the form of God, [k]thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

7 [l]But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form [m]of a servant, and [n]was made in the ||likeness of men:

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and [o]became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also [p]hath highly exalted him, and [q]given him a name which is above every name:

10 [r]That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11 And [s]that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, [t]as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with [u]fear and trembling.

13 For [x]it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things [y]without murmurings and [z]disputings:

15 That ye may be blameless and ||harmless, [a]the sons of God, without rebuke, [b]in the midst of [c]a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ||[d]ye shine as lights in the world;

16 Holding forth the word of life; that [e]I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that [f]I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, and if [g]I be †offered upon the sacrifice [h]and service of your faith, [i]I joy, and rejoice with you all.

18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

19 ||But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send [k]Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I have no man [l]||like-minded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For all [m]seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.

22 But ye know the proof of him, [n]that as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But [o]I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you [p]Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and [q]fellow-soldier, [r]but your messenger, and [s]he that ministered to my wants.

26 [t]For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and ||[u]hold such in reputation:

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, [x]to supply your lack of service toward me.

CHAPTER III.

1 He warneth them to beware of the false teachers of the circumcision, 4 shewing that himself hath greater cause than they to trust in the righteousness of the law: 7 which notwithstanding he counteth as dung and loss, to gain Christ and his righteousness, 12 therein acknowledging his own imperfection. 15 He exhorteth them to be thus minded, 17 and to imitate him, 18 and to decline the ways of carnal Christians.

FINALLY, my brethren, [a]rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 [b]Beware of dogs, beware of [c]evil-workers, [d]beware of the concision.

3 For we are [e]the circumcision, [f]which worship God in the spirit, and [g]rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though [h]I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 [i]Circumcised the eighth day, [k]of the stock of Israel, [l]of the tribe of Benjamin, [m]a Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, [n]a Pharisee;

6 [o]Concerning zeal, [p]persecuting the church; [q]touching the righteousness which is in the law, [r]blameless.

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and [y]the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

11 If by any means I might [z]attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already [a]attained, either were already [b]perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, [c]forgetting those things which are behind, and [d]reaching forth unto those things which are before,

14 [e]I press toward the mark for the prize of [f]the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as be [g]perfect, [h]be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, [i]let us walk [k]by the same rule, [l]let us mind the same thing.

17 Brethren, [m]be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as [n]ye have us for an ensample.

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are [o]the enemies of the cross of Christ:

19 [p]Whose end is destruction, [q]whose God is their belly, and [r]whose glory is in their shame, [s]who mind earthly things.)

20 For [t]our conversation is in heaven; [u]from whence also we [x]look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:

21 [y]Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, [z]according to the working whereby he is able [a]even to subdue all things unto himself.

CHAPTER IV.

1 From particular admonitions 4 he proceedeth to general exhortations, 10 shewing how he rejoiced at their liberality toward him lying in prison, not so much for the supply of his own wants, as for the grace of God in them. 19 And so he concludeth with prayer and salutations

THEREFORE, my brethren dearly beloved and [a]longed for, [b]my joy and crown, so [c]stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, [d]that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 And I entreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which [e]laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow-labourers, whose names are in [f]the book of life.

4 [g]Rejoice in the Lord always: and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. [h]The Lord is at hand.

6 [i]Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And [k]the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are ||honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, [l]whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 [m]Those things which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and [n]the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last [o]your care of me ||hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, [p]therewith to be content.

12 [q]I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things [r]through Christ which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding, ye have well done that [s]ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now, ye Philippians, know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, [t]no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

16 For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire [u]fruit that may abound to your account.

18 But ||I have all, and abound: I am full, having received [x]of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, [y]an odour of a sweet smell, [z]a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God.

19 But my God [a]shall supply all your need [b]according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

20 [c]Now unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren [d]which are with me greet you.

22 All the saints salute you, [e]chiefly they that are of Cesar's household.

23 [f]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO THE COLOSSIANS.

CHAPTER I.

1 After salutation he thanketh God for their faith, 7 confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 prayeth further for their increase in grace, 14 describeth the true Christ, 21 encourageth them to receive Jesus Christ, and commendeth his own ministry.

PAUL, [a]an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,

2 To the saints [b]and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: [c]Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [d]We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

4 [e]Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of [f]the love which ye have to all the saints,

5 For the hope [g]which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel:

6 Which is come unto you, [h]as it is in all the world; and [i]bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew [k]the grace of God in truth:

7 As ye also learned of [l]Epaphras our dear fellow-servant, who is for you [m]a faithful minister of Christ;

8 Who also declared unto us your [n]love in the Spirit.

9 [o]For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire [p]that ye might be filled with [q]the knowledge of his will [r]in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;

10 [s]That ye might walk worthy of the Lord [t]unto all pleasing, [u]being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;

11 [x]Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, [y]unto all patience and long-suffering [z]with joyfulness;

12 [a]Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of [b]the inheritance of the saints in light:

13 Who hath delivered us from [c]the power of darkness, [d]and hath translated us into the kingdom of †his dear Son:

14 [e]In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:

15 Who is [f]the image of the invisible God, [g]the first-born of every creature:

16 For [h]by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or [i]dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created [k]by him, and for him:

17 [l]And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.

18 And [m]he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, [n]the first-born from the dead; that ‖in all things he might have the pre-eminence.

19 For it pleased the Father that [o]in him should all fulness dwell;

20 And, ‖[p]having made peace through the blood of his cross, [q]by him to reconcile [r]all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

21 And you, [s]that were sometime alienated and enemies ‖in your mind [t]by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled,

22 [u]In the body of his flesh through death, [x]to present you holy, and unblamable, and unreprovable, in his sight:

23 If ye continue in the faith [y]grounded and settled, and be [z]not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, [a]and which was preached [b]to every creature which is under heaven; [c]whereof I Paul am made a minister;

24 [d]Who now rejoice in my sufferings [e]for you, and fill up [f]that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for [g]his body's sake, which is the church:

25 Whereof I am made a minister, according to [h]the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, ‖to fulfil the word of God;

26 Even [i]the mystery which hath been hid from ages, and from generations, [k]but now is made manifest to his saints:

27 [l]To whom God would make known what is [m]the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ ‖in you, [n]the hope of glory:

28 Whom we preach, [o]warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; [p]that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus:

29 [q]Whereunto I also labour, [r]striving [s]according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAPTER II.

1 He still exhorteth them to be constant in Christ, 8 to beware of philosophy, and vain traditions, 18 worshipping of angels, 20 and legal ceremonies, which are ended in Christ.

1 FOR I would that ye knew what great ‖[a]conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

2 [b]That their hearts might be comforted, [c]being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, [d]to the acknowledgment of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;

3 ‖ [e]In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

4 And this I say, [f]lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.

5 For [g]though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding [h]your order, and the [i]steadfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 [k]As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him:

7 [l]Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

8 [m]Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after [n]the tradition of men, after the ‖[o]rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

9 For [p]in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

10 [q]And ye are complete in him, [r]which is the head of all [s]principality and power:

11 In whom also ye are [t]circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in [u]putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:

12 [x]Buried with him in baptism, wherein also [y]ye are risen with him through [z]the faith of the operation of God, [a]who hath raised him from the dead.

13 [b]And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;

14 [c]Blotting out the hand-writing of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;

15 And [d]having spoiled [e]principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them ‖in it.

16 Let no man therefore [f]judge you ‖ [g]in meat, or in drink, or ‖in respect [h]of a holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath-days:

17 [i]Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.

18 [k]Let no man ‖beguile you of your reward †in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things [l]which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind,

19 And not holding [m]the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 Wherefore, if ye be [n]dead with Christ from [o]the ‖rudiments of the world, [p]why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances,

21 (Touch not; taste not; handle not;

22 Which all are to perish with the using;) [r]after the commandments and doctrines of men?

23 [s]Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in [t]will-worship, and humility, and ‖neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

CHAPTER III.

1 He sheweth where we should seek Christ. 5 He exhorteth to mortification, 10 to put off the old man, and to put on Christ, 12 exhorting to charity, humility, and other several duties.

IF ye then [a]be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where [b]Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your ‖affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 [c]For ye are dead, [d]and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 [e]When Christ, who is [f]our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him [g]in glory.

5 [h]Mortify therefore [i]your members which are upon the earth; [k]fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, [l]evil concupiscence, and covetousness, [m]which is idolatry:

6 [n]For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on [o]the children of disobedience:

7 [p]In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.

8 [q]But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, [r]filthy communication out of your mouth.

9 [s]Lie not one to another, [t]seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

10 And have put on the new man, which [u]is renewed in knowledge [x]after the image of him that [y]created him:

11 Where there is neither [z]Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: [a]but Christ is all, and in all.

12 [b]Put on therefore, [c]as the elect of God, holy and beloved, [d]bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long-suffering;

13 [e]Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a ‖quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

14 [f]And above all these things [g]put on charity, which is the [h]bond of perfectness.

15 And let [i]the peace of God rule in your hearts, [k]to the which also ye are called [l]in one body; [m]and be ye thankful.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another [n]in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing [o]with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 And [p]whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, [q]giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

18 [r]Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, [s]as it is fit in the Lord.

19 [t]Husbands, love your wives, and be not [u]bitter against them.

20 [x]Children, obey your parents [y]in all things: for this is well-pleasing unto the Lord.

21 [z]Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 [a]Servants, obey [b]in all things your masters [c]according to the flesh; not with eye-service, as men-pleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God:

23 [d]And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

24 [e]Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: [f]for ye serve the Lord Christ.

25 But he that doeth wrong, shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and [g]there is no respect of persons.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He exhorteth them to be fervent in prayer, 5 to walk wisely toward them that are not yet come to the true knowledge of Christ. 10 He saluteth them, and wisheth them all prosperity.

MASTERS, [a]give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

2 [b]Continue in prayer, and watch in the same [c]with thanksgiving;

3 [d]Withal praying also for us, that God would [e]open unto us a door of utterance, to speak [f]the mystery of Christ, [g]for which I am also in bonds:

4 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.

5 [h]Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, [i]redeeming the time.

6 Let your speech be always [k]with grace, [l]seasoned with salt, [m]that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

7 [n]All my state shall Tychicus declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellow-servant in the Lord:

8 [o]Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts;

9 With [p]Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things which are done here.

¶ THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO THE THESSALONIANS.

CHAPTER I.

1 The Thessalonians are given to understand both how mindful of them Saint Paul was at all times in thanksgiving, and prayer: 5 and also how well he was persuaded of the truth and sincerity of their faith, and conversion to God.

PAUL, and [a]Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Jesus Christ: [b]Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 [c]We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

3 [d]Remembering without ceasing [e]your work of faith, [f]and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;

4 Knowing, brethren ‖beloved, [g]your election of God.

5 For [h]our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and [i]in the Holy Ghost, [k]and in much assurance; as [l]ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And [m]ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, [n]with joy of the Holy Ghost:

7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you [o]sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also [p]in every place your faith to Godward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves shew of us [q]what manner of entering in we had unto you, [r]and how ye turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God;

10 And [s]to wait for his Son [t]from heaven, [u]whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, [x]which delivered us from the wrath to come.

CHAPTER II.

1 In what manner the gospel was brought and preached to the Thessalonians, and in what sort also they received it. 18 A reason is rendered both why Saint Paul was so long absent from them, and also why he was so desirous to see them.

FOR [a]yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at [b]Philippi, [c]we were bold in our God [d]to speak unto you the gospel of God [e]with much contention.

3 [f]For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile;

4 But as [g]we were allowed of God [h]to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; [i]not as pleasing men, but God, [k]which trieth our hearts.

5 For [l]neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetousness; [m]God is witness:

6 [n]Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when [o]we might have ‖been [p]burdensome, [q]as the apostles of Christ.

7 But [r]we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing [s]to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also [t]our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for [u]labouring night and day, [z]because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 [y]Ye are witnesses, and God also, [z]how holily, and justly, and unblamably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As ye know how we exhorted, and comforted, and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children,

12 [a]That ye would walk worthy of God, [b]who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God [c]without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it [d]not as the word of men, but (as it is in truth) the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers [e]of the churches of God which in Judea are in Christ Jesus: for [f]ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, [g]even as they have of the Jews:

15 [h]Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and [i]their own prophets, and have ‖persecuted us; and they please not God, [k]and are contrary to all men:

16 [l]Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, [m]to fill up their sins always: [n]for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time [o]in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly [p]to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but [q]Satan hindered us.

19 For [r]what is our hope, or joy, or [s]crown of ‖rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ [t]at his coming?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAPTER III.

1 Saint Paul testifieth his great love to the Thessalonians, partly by sending Timothy unto them to strengthen and comfort them: partly by rejoicing in their well-doing: 10 and partly by praying for them, and desiring a safe coming unto them.

1 WHEREFORE, [a]when we could no longer forbear, [b]we thought it good to be left at Athens alone;

2 And sent [c]Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellow-labourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

3 [d]That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that [e]we are appointed thereunto.

4 [f]For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause, [g]when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, [h]lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and [i]our labour be in vain.

6 [k]But now, when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, [l]as we also to see you:

7 Therefore, brethren, [m]we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:

8 For now we live, if ye [n]stand fast in the Lord.

9 [o]For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;

10 [p]Night and day [q]praying exceedingly [r]that we might see your face, [s]and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, ||[t]direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord [u]make you to increase and abound in love [x]one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you:

13 To the end he may [y]stablish your hearts unblamable in holiness before God, even our Father, at [z]the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ [z]with all his saints.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He exhorteth them to go on forward in all manner of godliness, 6 to live holily and justly, 9 to love one another, 11 and quietly to follow their own business: 13 and last of all to sorrow moderately for the dead. 17 And unto this last exhortation is annexed a brief description of the resurrection, and second coming of Christ to judgment.

FURTHERMORE then we ||beseech you, brethren, and ||exhort you by the Lord Jesus, [a]that as ye have received of us [b]how ye ought to walk [c]and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is [d]the will of God, even [e]your sanctification, [f]that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 [g]That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

5 [h]Not in the lust of concupiscence, [i]even as the Gentiles [k]which know not God:

6 [l]That no man go beyond and ||defraud his brother ||in any matter: because that the Lord [m]is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, [n]but unto holiness.

8 [o]He therefore that ||despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, [p]who hath also given unto us his Holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love [q]ye need not that I write unto you: for [r]ye yourselves are taught of God [s]to love one another.

10 [t]And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, [u]that ye increase more and more;

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and [x]to do your own business, and [y]to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12 [z]That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack ||of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, [a]even as others [b]which have no hope.

14 For [c]if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so [d]them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you [e]by the word of the Lord, that [f]we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For [g]the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with [h]the trump of God: [i]and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

17 [k]Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them [l]in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so [m]shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 [n]Wherefore, ||comfort one another with these words.

CHAPTER V.

1 He proceedeth in the former description of Christ's coming to judgment, 16 and giveth divers precepts, 23 and so concludeth the epistle.

BUT of [a]the times and the seasons, brethren, [b]ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly, that [c]the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then [d]sudden destruction cometh upon them, [e]as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 [f]But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief

5 Ye are all [g]the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 [h]Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but [i]let us watch and be sober.

7 For [k]they that sleep, sleep in the night; and they that be drunken, [l]are drunken in the night.

8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, [m]putting on the breast-plate of faith and

9 For [a]God hath not appointed us to wrath, [c]but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,

¶ THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO THE THESSALONIANS.

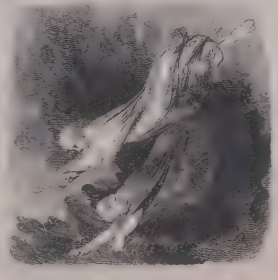
CHAPTER I.

1 Saint Paul certifieth them of the good opinion which he had of their faith, love, and patience: 11 and therewithal useth divers reasons for the comforting of them in persecution, whereof the chiefest is taken from the righteous judgment of God.

PAUL, [a]and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians [b]in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 [c]Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [d]We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;



4 So that [e]we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God, [f]for your patience and faith [g]in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:

5 Which is [h]a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, [i]for which ye also suffer:

6 [k]Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;

7 And to you, who are troubled, [l]rest with us, when [m]the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with †his mighty angels,

8 [n]In flaming fire ‖taking vengeance on them [o]that know not God, and [p]that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:

9 [q]Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and [r]from the glory of his power;

10 [s]When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, [t]and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

11 Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would ‖[u]count you worthy of 12 [y]That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER II.

1 He willeth them to continue steadfast in the truth received, 3 sheweth that there shall be a departure from the faith, 9 and a discovery of anti-Christ, before the day of the Lord come. 15 And thereupon repeateth his former exhortation, and prayeth for them.

1 NOW we beseech you, brethren, [a]by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, [b]and by our gathering together unto him,

2 [c]That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

3 [d]Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, [e]except there come a falling away first, and [f]that man of sin be revealed, [g]the son of perdition;

4 Who opposeth and [h]exalteth himself [i]above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he, as God, sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what ‖withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For [k]the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, [l]whom the Lord shall consume [m]with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy [n]with the brightness of his coming:

9 Even him, whose coming is [o]after the working of Satan, with all power, and [p]signs, and lying wonders,

10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in [q]them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And [r]for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, [s]that they should believe a lie:

12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but [t]had pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 But [u]we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God [x]hath [y]from the beginning chosen you to salvation, [z]through sanctification of the Spirit, and belief of the truth:

14 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to [a]the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, [b]stand fast, and hold [c]the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

16 [d]Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, [e]which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and [f]good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, [g]and stablish you in every good word and work.

CHAPTER III.

1 He craveth their prayers for himself, 3 testifieth what confidence he hath in them, 5 maketh request to God in their behalf, 6 giveth them divers precepts, especially to shun idleness, and ill company, 16 and last of all concludeth with prayer and salutation.

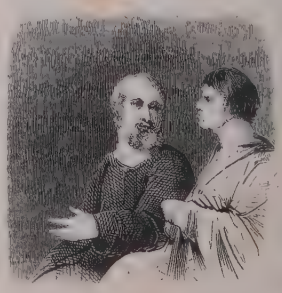
FINALLY, brethren, [a]pray for us, that the word of the Lord †may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you;

2 And [b]that we may be delivered from †unreasonable and wicked men: [c]for all men have not faith.

3 But [d]the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and [e]keep you from evil.

4 And [f]we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.

5 And [g]the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and ‖into the patient waiting for Christ.



6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, [h]that ye withdraw yourselves [i]from every brother that walketh [k]disorderly, and not after [l]the tradition which he received of us.

7 For yourselves know [m]how ye ought to follow us: for [n]we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;

8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for naught; but [o]wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:

9 [p]Not because we have not power, but to make [q]ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, [r]that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

11 For we hear that there are some [s]which walk among you disorderly, [t]working not at all, but are busybodies.

12 [u]Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, [x]that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

13 But ye, brethren, [y]‖be not weary in well-doing.

14 And if any man obey not our word

¶ THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER I.

1 Timothy is put in mind of the charge which was given unto him by Paul at his going to Macedonia. 5 Of the right use and end of the law. 11 Of Saint Paul's calling to be an apostle, 20 and of Hymeneus and Alexander.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ [a]by the commandment [b]of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, [c]which is our hope;

2 Unto [d]Timothy, [e]my own son in the faith: [f]Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, [g]when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some [h]that they teach no other doctrine,

4 [i]Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, [k]which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith; so do.

5 Now [l]the end of the commandment is charity [m]out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:

6 From which some ‖having swerved, have turned aside unto [n]vain jangling;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; [o]understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that [p]the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 [q]Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers, and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for men-stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary [r]to sound doctrine,

11 According to the glorious gospel of [s]the blessed God [t]which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, [u]who hath enabled me, [x]for that he counted me faithful, [y]putting me into the ministry;

13 [z]Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because [a]I did it ignorantly in unbelief:

14 [b]And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant [c]with faith [d]and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 [e]This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that [f]Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit, for this cause [g]I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all long-suffering, [h]for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto [i]the King eternal, [k]immortal, [l]invisible, [m]the only wise God, [n]be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge [o]I commit unto thee, son Timothy, [p]according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest [q]war a good warfare;

19 [r]Holding faith and a good conscience; which some having put away, concerning faith [s]have made shipwreck:

20 Of whom is [t]Hymeneus and [u]Alexander; whom I have [x]delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to [y]blaspheme.

CHAPTER II.

1 That it is meet to pray and give thanks for all men, and the reason why. 9 How women should be attired. 12 They are not permitted to teach. 15 They shall be saved, notwithstanding the testimonies of God's wrath, in child-birth, if they continue in faith.

‖EXHORT therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men:

2 [a]For kings, and [b]for all that are in ‖authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

3 For this is [c]good and acceptable in the sight [d]of God our Saviour;

4 [e]Who will have all men to be saved, [f]and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 [g]For there is one God, and [h]one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

6 [i]Who gave himself a ransom for all, [k]||to be testified [l]in due time.

7 [m]Whereunto I am ordained a preacher and an apostle, ([n]I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not,) [o]a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray [p]every where, [q]lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

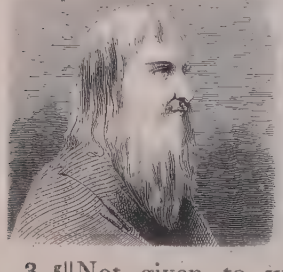
9 In like manner also, that [r]women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with ||broidered hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 [s]But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But [t]I suffer not a woman to teach, [u]nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 For [x]Adam was first formed, then Eve.



14 And [y]Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

15 Notwithstanding, she shall be saved in child-bearing, if they continue in faith, and charity, and holiness, with sobriety.

CHAPTER III.

2 How bishops, and deacons, and their wives should be qualified, 14 and to what end Saint Paul wrote to Timothy of these things. 15 Of the church, and the blessed truth therein taught and professed.

1 THIS [a]is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a [b]bishop, he desireth a good [c]work.

2 [d]A bishop then must be blameless, [e]the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, ||of good behaviour, given to hospitality, [f]apt to teach;

3 [g]||Not given to wine, [h]no striker, [i]not greedy of filthy lucre; but [k]patient; not a brawler, not covetous;

4 One that ruleth well his own house, [l]having his children in subjection with all gravity;

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

6 Not ||a novice, lest being lifted up with pride [m]he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover, he must have a good report [n]of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach [o]and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must [p]the deacons be grave, not double-tongued, [q]not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

9 [r]Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 [s]Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

13 For [t]they that have ||used the office of a deacon well, purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself [u]in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ||ground of the truth.

16 And without controversy, great is the mystery of godliness: [x]God was †manifest in the flesh, [y]justified in the Spirit, [z]seen of angels, [a]preached unto the Gentiles, [b]believed on in the world, [c]received up into glory.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He foretelleth that in the latter times there shall be a departure from the faith. 6 And to the end that Timothy might not fail in doing his duty, he furnisheth him with divers precepts belonging thereto.

NOW the Spirit [a]speaketh expressly, that [b]in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed [c]to seducing spirits, [d]and doctrines of devils;

2 [e]Speaking lies in hypocrisy, [f]having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

3 [g]Forbidding to marry, [h]and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created [i]to be received [k]with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For [l]every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God, and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, [m]nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But [n]refuse profane and old wives' fables, and [o]exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

8 For [p]bodily exercise profiteth ||little: [q]but godliness is profitable unto all things, [r]having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 [s]This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation.

10 For therefore [t]we both labour and suffer reproach, because we [u]trust in the living God [x]who is the Saviour of all men, especially of those that believe.

11 [y]These things command and teach.

12 [z]Let no man despise thy youth; but [a]be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 [b]Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee [c]by prophecy, [d]with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear ||to all.

16 [e]Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both [f]save thyself, and [g]them that hear thee.

CHAPTER V.

1 Rules to be observed in reproving. 3 Of widows. 17 Of elders. 23 A precept for Timothy's health. 24 Some men's sins go before unto judgment, and some men's do follow after.

1 REBUKE [a]not an elder, but entreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren;

2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 Honour widows [b]that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew ||piety at home, and [c]to requite their parents: [d]for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 [e]Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and [f]continueth in supplications and prayers [g]night and day.

6 [h]But she that liveth ||in pleasure, is dead while she liveth.

7 [i]And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any provide not for his own, [k]and especially for those of his own ||house, [l]he hath denied the faith, [m]and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be ||taken into the number under threescore years old, [n]having been the wife of one man,

10 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have [o]lodged strangers, if she have [p]washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;

12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 [q]And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also, and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 [r]I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, [s]give none occasion to the adversary †to speak reproachfully.

15 For some are already turned aside after Satan.

16 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve [t]them that are widows indeed.

17 [u]Let the elders that rule well, [x]be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the scripture saith, [y]Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, [z]The labourer is worthy of his reward.

19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but ||[a]before two or three witnesses.

20 [b]Them that sin rebuke before all, [c]that others also may fear.

21 [d]I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things ||without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

22 [e]Lay hands suddenly on no man, [f]neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure.

23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine [g]for thy stomach's sake, and thine often infirmities.

24 [h]Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.

25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

CHAPTER VI.

1 Of the duty of servants. 3 Not to have fellowship with new-fangled teachers. 6 Godliness is great gain, 10 and love of money the root of all evil. 11 What Timothy is to fly, and what to follow, 17 and whereof to admonish the rich. 20 To keep the purity of true doctrine, and to avoid profane janglings.

LET as many [a]servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, [b]that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, [c]because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are ‖faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. [d]These things teach and exhort.

¶ THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul's love to Timothy, and the unfeigned faith which was in Timothy himself, his mother, and grandmother. 6 He is exhorted to stir up the gift of God which was in him, 8 to be steadfast, and patient in persecution, 13 and to persist in the form and truth of that doctrine which he had learned of him. 15 Phygellus and Hermogenes, and such like, are noted, and Onesiphorus is highly commended.

1 PAUL, [a]an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to [b]the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,

2 [c]To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 [d]I thank God, [e]whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that [f]without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

4 [g]Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

5 When I call to remembrance [h]the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and [i]thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance, [k]that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

7 For [l]God hath not given us the spirit of fear; [m]but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

8 [n]Be not thou therefore ashamed of [o]the testimony of our Lord, nor of me [p]his prisoner: [q]but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;

9 [r]Who hath saved us, and [s]called us with a holy calling, [t]not according to our works, but [u]according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus [x]before the world began;

10 But [y]is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, [z]who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel:

11 [a]Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 [b]For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: [c]for I know whom I have ‖believed, and am persuaded that he is able to [d]keep that which I have committed unto him [e]against that day.

13 [f]Hold fast [g]the form of [h]sound words, [i]which thou hast heard of me, [k]in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

14 [l]That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost [m]which dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that [n]all they which are in Asia be [o]turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord [p]give mercy unto [q]the house of Onesiphorus; [r]for he oft refreshed me, and [s]was not ashamed of [t]my chain:

17 But, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto him [u]that he may find mercy of the Lord [x]in that day: and in how many things he [y]ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAPTER II.

1 He is exhorted again to constancy and perseverance, and to do the duty of a faithful servant of the Lord in dividing the word aright, and staying profane and vain babblings. 17 Of Hymeneus and Philetus. 19 The foundation of the Lord is sure. 22 He is taught whereof to beware, and what to follow after, and in what sort the servant of the Lord ought to behave himself.

THOU therefore, [a]my son, [b]be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 [c]And the things that thou hast heard of me ‖among many witnesses, [d]the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be [e]able to teach others also.

3 [f]Thou therefore endure hardness, [g]as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 [h]No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And [i]if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 [k]‖The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ, [l]of the seed of David, [m]was raised from the dead, [n]according to my gospel:

9 [o]Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil-doer, [p]even unto bonds; [q]but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore [r]I endure all things for the elect's sake, [s]that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

11 [t]It is a faithful saying: For [u]if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:

12 [x]If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: [y]if we deny him, he also will deny us:

13 [z]If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: [a]he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, [b]charging them before the Lord [c]that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But [d]shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

17 And their word will eat as doth a ‖canker: of whom is [e]Hymeneus and Philetus;

18 Who [f]concerning the truth have erred, [g]saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless [h]the foundation of God standeth ‖sure, having this seal, The Lord [i]knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

20 [k]But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; [l]and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 [m]If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and [n]prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee also youthful lusts: but [o]follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that [p]call on the Lord [q]out of a pure heart.

23 But [r]foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And [s]the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, [t]apt to teach, ||patient;

25 [u]In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; [x]if God peradventure will give them repentance [y]to the acknowledging of the truth;

26 And that they may †recover themselves [z]out of the snare of the devil, who are †taken captive by him at his will.

CHAPTER III.

1 He advertiseth him of the times to come, 6 describeth the enemies of the truth, 10 propoundeth unto him his own example, 16 and commendeth the holy scriptures.

THIS know also, that [a]in the last days perilous times shall come.

2 For men shall be [b]lovers of their own selves, [c]covetous, [d]boasters, [e]proud, [f]blasphemers, [g]disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 [h]Without natural affection, [i]trucebreakers, ||false accusers, [k]incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

4 [l]Traitors, heady, high-minded, [m]lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

5 Having a form of godliness, but [n]denying the power thereof: [o]from such turn away.

6 For [p]of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts;

7 Ever learning and never able [q]to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 [r]Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: [s]men of corrupt minds, [t]||reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, [u]as theirs also was.

10 [x]But ||thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, long-suffering, charity, patience,

11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me [y]at Antioch, [z]at Iconium, [a]at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but [b]out of them all the Lord delivered me.

12 Yea, and [c]all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.

13 [d]But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

14 But [e]continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;

15 And that from a child thou hast known

[f]the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16 [g]All scripture is given by inspiration of God, [h]and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

17 [i]That the man of God may be perfect, ||[k]thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He exhorteth him to do his duty with all care and diligence, 6 certifieth him of the nearness of his death, 9 willeth him to come speedily unto him, and to bring Marcus with him, and certain other things which he wrote for, 14 warning him to beware of Alexander the smith, 16 informeth him what had befallen him at his first answering, 19 and soon after he concludeth.

I [a]CHARGE thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, [b]who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;

2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, [c]rebuke, [d]exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine.

3 [e]For the time will come, when they will not endure [f]sound doctrine; [g]but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and [h]shall be turned unto fables.

5 But watch thou in all things, [i]endure afflictions, do the work of [k]an evangelist, ||make full proof of thy ministry.

6 For [l]I am now ready to be offered, and the time of [m]my departure is at hand.

7 [n]I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me [o]a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me [p]at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

9 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me:

10 For [q]Demas hath forsaken me, [r]having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.

11 [s]Only [t]Luke is with me. Take [u]Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry.

12 And [x]Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus.

13 The cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments.

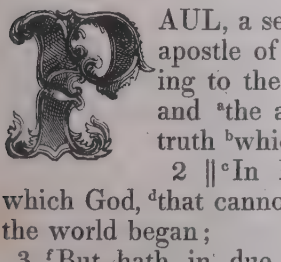
¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS.

CHAPTER I.



1 For what end Titus was left in Crete. 6 How they that are to be chosen ministers ought to be qualified. 11 The mouths of evil teachers to be stopped: 12 and what manner of men they be.

PAUL, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and [a]the acknowledging of the truth [b]which is after godliness;

2 ‖[c]In hope of eternal life, which God, [d]that cannot lie, promised [e]before the world began;

3 [f]But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, [g]which is committed unto me, [h]according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

4 To [i]Titus, [k]mine own son after [l]the common faith: [m]Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldst [n]set in order the things that are ‖wanting, and [o]ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:

6 [p]If any be blameless, [q]the husband of one wife, [r]having faithful children, not accused of riot, or unruly.

7 For a bishop must be blameless, as [s]the steward of God: not self-willed, not soon angry, [t]not given to wine, no striker, [u]not given to filthy lucre;

8 [x]But a lover of hospitality, a lover of ‖good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

9 [y]Holding fast [z]the faithful word ‖as he hath been taught, that he may be able [a]by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

10 For [b]there are many unruly and vain talkers and [c]deceivers, [d]especially they of the circumcision:

11 Whose mouths must be stopped, [e]who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, [f]for filthy lucre's sake.

12 [g]One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are always liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true. [h]Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be [i]sound in the faith;

14 [k]Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and [l]commandments of men that turn from the truth.

15 [m]Unto the pure all things are pure: but [n]unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 They profess that they know God; but [o]in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, [p]and unto every good work ‖reprobate.

CHAPTER II.

1 Directions given unto Titus both for his doctrine and life. 9 Of the duty of servants, and in general of all Christians.

BUT speak thou the things which become [a]sound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be ||sober, grave, temperate, [b]sound in faith, in charity, in patience;

3 [c]The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh ||holiness; not ||false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be ||sober, [d]to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, [e]obedient to their own husbands, [f]that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be ||soberminded.

7 [g]In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, [h]sincerity,

8 [i]Sound speech that cannot be condemned; [k]that he that is of the contrary part [l]may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 Exhort [m]servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well [n]in all things; not ||answering again;

10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; [o]that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

11 For [p]the grace of God ||that bringeth salvation [q]hath appeared to all men,

12 Teaching us, [r]that denying ungodliness, [s]and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

13 [t]Looking for that blessed [u]hope, and the glorious [x]appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;

14 [y]Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, [z]and purify unto himself [a]a peculiar people, [b]zealous of good works.

15 These things speak, and [c]exhort, and rebuke with all authority. [d]Let no man despise thee.

CHAPTER III.

1 Titus is yet further directed by Paul, both concerning the things he should teach, and not teach. 10 He is willed also to reject obstinate heretics: 12 which done, he appointeth him both time and place, wherein he should come unto him, and so concludeth.

PUT them in mind [a]to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, [b]to be ready to every good work,

PHILEMON.

4 He rejoiceth to hear of the faith and love of Philemon, 9 whom he desireth to forgive his servant Onesimus, and lovingly to receive him again.

PAUL, [a]a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, [b]and fellow-labourer,

2 And to our beloved Apphia, and [c]Archippus [d]our fellow-soldier, and to [e]the church in thy house:

3 [f]Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 [g]I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 [h]Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints;

6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual [i]by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus.

7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints [k]are refreshed by thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, [l]though I might be much bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is convenient,

9 Yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such a one as Paul the aged, [m]and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my son [n]Onesimus, [o]whom I have begotten in my bonds:

11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me:

¶ THE EPISTLE OF PAUL, THE APOSTLE, TO THE HEBREWS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Christ in these last times coming to us from the Father, 4 is preferred above the angels, both in person and office.

1 GOD, who at sundry times and [a]in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

2 [b]Hath in these last days [c]spoken unto us by his Son, [d]whom he hath appointed heir of all things, [e]by whom also he made the worlds;

3 [f]Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and [g]upholding all things by the word of his power, [h]when he had by himself purged our sins, [i]sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

4 Being made so much better than the angels, as [k]he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, [l]Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, [m]I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

6 ‖And again, when he bringeth in [n]the first-begotten into the world, he saith, [o]And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And †of the angels he saith, [p]Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son, he saith, [q]Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of †righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom;

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, [r]hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And, [s]Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands.

11 [t]They shall perish; but thou remainest: and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, [u]Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 [x]Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be [y]heirs of salvation?

CHAPTER II.

1 We ought to be obedient to Christ Jesus, 5 and that because he vouchsafed to take our nature upon him, 14 as it was necessary.

THEREFORE we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should †let them slip.

2 For if the word [a]spoken by angels was steadfast, and [b]every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward;

3 [c]How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; [d]which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was [e]confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

4 [f]God also bearing them witness, [g]both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and ‖[h]gifts of the Holy Ghost, [i]according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection [k]the world to come whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, [l]What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him ‖a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands;

8 [m]Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now [n]we see not yet all things put under him:

9 But we see Jesus, [o]who was made a little lower than the angels ‖for the suffering of death, [p]crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death [q]for every man.

10 [r]For it became him, [s]for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make [t]the Captain of their salvation [u]perfect through sufferings.

11 For [z]both he that sanctifieth, and they who are sanctified, [y]are all of one: for which cause [z]he is not ashamed to call them brethren,

12 Saying, [a]I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, [b]I will put my trust in him. And again, [c]Behold, I, and the children [d]which God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he [e]also himself likewise took part of the same; [f]that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And deliver them, who, [g]through fear of death, were all their life-time subject to bondage.

16 For verily †he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

17 Wherefore in all things it behooved him [h]to be made like unto his brethren; that he might be [i]a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

18 [k]For in that he himself hath suffered, being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAPTER III.

1 Christ is more worthy than Moses, 7 therefore if we believe not in him, we shall be more worthy punishment than hard-hearted Israel.

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of [a]the heavenly calling, consider [b]the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus;

2 Who was faithful to him that †appointed him, as also [c]Moses was faithful in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as [d]he who hath builded the house, hath more honour than the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man; but [e]he that built all things is God.

5 [f]And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as [g]a servant, [h]for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after:

6 But Christ as [i]a Son over his own house: [k]whose house are we, [l]if we hold fast the confidence, and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore, as [m]the Holy Ghost saith, [n]To-day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do always err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.

11 So I sware in my wrath, †They shall not enter into my rest.

12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To-day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, [o]if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast unto the end;

15 While it is said, [p]To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 [q]For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit, not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, [r]whose carcasses fell in the wilderness?

18 And [s]to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

19 [t]So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

CHAPTER IV.

1 The rest of Christians is attained by faith. 12 The power of God's word. 14 By our High Priest Jesus the Son of God, subject to infirmities, but not sin, 16 we must and may go boldly to the throne of grace.

LET [a]us therefore fear, lest a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but †the word preached did not profit them, ‖not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 [b]For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, [c]As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, [d]And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, [e]and they to whom ‖it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

7 (Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To-day, after so long a time; as it is said, [f]To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if ‖Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a ‖rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.)

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall [g]after the same example of ‖unbelief.

12 For the word of God is [h]quick, and powerful, and [i]sharper than any [k]two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is [l]a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 [m]Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked [n]and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have [o]a great High Priest, [p]that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, [q]let us hold fast our profession.

15 For [r]we have not a high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities:

but [s]was in all points tempted like as we are, [t]yet without sin.

16 [u]Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

CHAPTER V.

1 The authority and honour of our Saviour's priesthood. 11 Negligence in the knowledge thereof is reproved.

FOR every high priest taken from among men, [a]is ordained for men [b]in things pertaining to God, [c]that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2 [d]Who ‖can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that [e]he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

3 And [f]by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 [g]And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as [h]was Aaron:

5 [i]So also Christ glorified not himself to be made a high priest; but he that said unto him, [k]Thou art my Son, to-day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, [l]Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had [m]offered up prayers and supplications [n]with strong crying and tears unto him [o]that was able to save him from death, and was heard ‖[p]in that he feared;

8 [q]Though he were a Son, yet learned he [r]obedience by the things which he suffered;

9 And [s]being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

10 Called of God a high priest [t]after the order of Melchisedec.

11 Of whom [u]we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are [x]dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be [y]the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of [z]milk, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk, †is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is [a]a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are ‖of full age, even those who by reason ‖of use have their senses exercised [b]to discern both good and evil.

CHAPTER VI.

1 He exhorteth not to fall back from the faith, 11 but to be steadfast, 12 diligent, and patient to wait upon God. 13 because God is most sure in his promise.

THEREFORE [a]leaving ‖ the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance [b]from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 [c]Of the doctrine of baptisms, [d]and of laying on of hands, [e]and of resurrection of the dead, [f]and of eternal judgment.

3 And this will we do, [g]if God permit.

4 For [h]it is impossible for those [i]who were once enlightened, and have tasted of [k]the heavenly gift, and [l]were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of [m]the world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; [n]seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them ‖by whom it is dressed, [o]receiveth blessing from God:

8 [p]But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 [q]For [r]God is not unrighteous to forget [s]your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have [t]ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that [u]every one of you do shew the same diligence [x]to the full assurance of hope unto the end:

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience [y]inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, [z]he sware by himself,

14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater: and [a]an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto [b]the heirs of promise [c]the immutability of his counsel, †confirmed it by an oath:

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope [d]set before us:

19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, [e]and which entereth into that within the vail;

20 [f]Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, [g]made a high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

CHAPTER VII.

1 Christ Jesus is a priest after the order of Melchisedec, 11 and so, far more excellent than the priests of Aaron's order.

1 FOR this [a]Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;

3 Without father, without mother, †without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, [b]unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily [c]they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:

6 But he whose ‖descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, [d]and blessed [e]him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, [f]of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him.

11 [g]If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that [h]our Lord sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest,

16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

17 For he testifieth, [i]Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before, for [k]the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

19 For [l]the law made nothing perfect, ‖but the bringing in of [m]a better hope did; by the which [n]we draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest:

21 (For those priests were made ‖without an oath; but this with an oath, by him that said unto him, [o]The Lord sware, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec:)

22 By so much [p]was Jesus made a surety of a better testament.

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:

24 But this man, because he continueth ever, hath ‖an unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them ‖to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth [q]to make intercession for them.

26 For such a high priest became us, [r]who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, [s]and made higher than the heavens;

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, [t]first for his own sins, [u]and then for the people's: for [x]this he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh [y]men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, [z]who is †consecrated for evermore.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 By the eternal priesthood of Christ the Levitical priesthood of Aaron is abolished. 7 And the temporal covenant with the fathers, by the eternal covenant of the gospel.

NOW of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such a high priest, [a]who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

2 A minister ‖of [b]the sanctuary, and of [c]the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For [d]every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore [e]it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that ‖there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

5 Who serve unto the example and [f]shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: [g]for, See (saith he) that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now [h]hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better ‖covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 [i]For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, [k]Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For [l]this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel, after those days, saith the Lord; I will †put my laws into their mind, and write them ‖in their hearts: and [m]I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

11 And [n]they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, [o]and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 [p]In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old, is ready to vanish away.

CHAPTER IX.

1 The description of the rites and bloody sacrifices of the law, 11 far inferior to the dignity and perfection of the blood and sacrifice of Christ.

THEN verily the first covenant had also ‖ordinances of divine service, and [a]a worldly sanctuary.

2 [b]For there was a tabernacle made; the first [c]wherein was [d]the candlestick, and [e]the table, and the shew-bread; which is called ‖the sanctuary.

3 [f]And after the second vail, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all;

4 Which had the golden censer, and [g]the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was [h]the golden pot that had manna, and [i]Aaron's rod that budded, and [k]the tables of the covenant;

5 And [l]over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercy-seat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, [m]the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God:

7 But into the second went the high priest alone [n]once every year, not without blood, [o]which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:

8 [p]The Holy Ghost this signifying, that [q]the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, [r]that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;

10 Which stood only in [s]meats and drinks, and [t]divers washings, [u]and carnal ‖ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come [x]a high priest [y]of good things to come, [z]by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

12 Neither [a]by the blood of goats and calves, but [b]by his own blood, he entered in [c]once into the holy place, [d]having obtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if [e]the blood of bulls and of goats, and [f]the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

14 How much more [g]shall the blood of Christ, [h]who through the eternal Spirit [i]offered himself without ‖spot to God, [k]purge your conscience from [l]dead works [m]to serve the living God?

15 [n]And for this cause [o]he is the mediator of the new testament, [p]that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, [q]they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity ‖be the death of the testator.

17 For [r]a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 [s]Whereupon neither the first testament was ‖dedicated without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, [t]he took the blood of calves and of goats, [u]with water, and ‖scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book and all the people,

20 Saying, [x]This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 Moreover, [y]he sprinkled likewise with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and [z]without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that [a]the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For [b]Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of [c]the true; but into heaven itself, now [d]to appear in the presence of God for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as [e]the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now [f]once [g]in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 [h]And as it is appointed unto men once to die, [i]but after this the judgment:

28 So [k]Christ was once [l]offered to bear the sins [m]of many; and unto them that [n]look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

CHAPTER X.

1 The weakness of the law sacrifices. 10 The sacrifice of Christ's body once offered, 14 for ever hath taken away sins. 19 An exhortation to hold fast the faith, with patience and thanksgiving.

FOR the law having [a]a shadow [b]of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, [c]can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually, make the comers thereunto [d]perfect.

2 For then ‖would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 [e]But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

4 For [f]it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore, when he cometh into the world, he saith, [g]Sacrifice and offering thou wouldst not, but a body ‖hast thou prepared me:

6 In burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above, when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt-offerings and offering for sin thou wouldst not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 [h]By the which will we are sanctified [i]through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth [k]daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, [l]which can never take away sins:

12 [m]But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins, for ever sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting [n]till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering [o]he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 [p]This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 †And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now, where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, [q]‖boldness to enter [r]into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,

20 By [s]a new and living way, which he hath ‖consecrated for us, [t]through the vail, that is to say, his flesh;

21 And having [u]a high priest over [x]the house of God;

22 [y]Let us draw near with a true heart, [z]in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled [a]from an evil conscience, and [b]our bodies washed with pure water.

23 [c]Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; for [d]he is faithful that promised:

24 And let us consider one another, to provoke unto love, and to good works:

25 [e]Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another; and [f]so much the more, as ye see [g]the day approaching.

26 For [h]if we sin wilfully [i]after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,

27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and [k]fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

28 [l]He that despised Moses' law, died without mercy [m]under two or three witnesses:

29 [n]Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and [o]hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, [p]and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

31 [s]It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But [t]call to remembrance the former days, in which, [u]after ye were illuminated, ye endured [x]a great fight of afflictions;

33 Partly, while ye were made [y]a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, while [z]ye became companions of them that were so used.

34 For ye had compassion of me [a]in my bonds, and [b]took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing ‖in yourselves that [c]ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, [d]which hath great recompense of reward.

36 [e]For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, [f]ye might receive the promise.

37 For [g]yet a little while, and [h]he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

38 Now [i]the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not of them [k]who draw back unto perdition; but of them that [l]believe to the saving of the soul.

CHAPTER XI.

1 What faith is. 6 Without faith we cannot please God. 7 The worthy fruits thereof in the fathers of old time.

NOW faith is the ‖substance of things hoped for, the evidence [s]of things not seen:

2 For [b]by it the elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that [c]the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith [d]Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead [e]‖yet speaketh.

5 By faith [f]Enoch was translated, that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith [g]Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, ‖moved with fear, [h]prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of [i]the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith [k]Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, [l]dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, [m]the heirs with him of the same promise:

10 For he looked for [n]a city which hath foundations, [o]whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also [p]Sarah herself received strength to conceive seed, and [q]was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him [r]faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and [s]him as good as dead, [t]so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea-shore innumerable.

13 These all died †in faith, [u]not having received the promises, but [x]having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and [y]confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things [z]declare plainly that they seek a country.

15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.

16 But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed [a]to be called their God: for [b]he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith [c]Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises [d]offered up his only begotten son,

18 ‖Of whom it was said, [e]That in Isaac shall thy seed be called:

19 Accounting that God [f]was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

20 By faith [g]Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, [h]blessed both the sons of Joseph; and [i]worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith [k]Joseph, when he died, ‖made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith [l]Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's [m]commandment.

24 By faith [n]Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

25 °Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

26 Esteeming ᵖthe reproach ‖of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto ᵠthe recompense of the reward.

27 By faith ʳhe forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as ˢseeing him who is invisible.

28 Through faith ᵗhe kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the first-born should touch them.

29 By faith ᵘthey passed through the Red Sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were drowned.

30 By faith ˣthe walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

31 By faith ʸthe harlot Rahab perished not with them ‖that believed not, when ᶻshe had received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of ᵃGedeon, and of ᵇBarak, and of ᶜSamson, and of ᵈJephthae, of ᵉDavid also, and ᶠSamuel, and of the prophets:

33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, ᵍobtained promises, ʰstopped the mouths of lions,

34 ⁱQuenched the violence of fire, ᵏescaped the edge of the sword, ˡout of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, ᵐturned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 ⁿWomen received their dead raised to life again: and others were ᵒtortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover ᵠof bonds and imprisonment:

37 ʳThey were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: ˢthey wandered about ᵗin sheep-skins and goat-skins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38 (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and ᵘ*in* dens and caves of the earth.

39 And these all, ˣhaving obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:

40 God having ‖provided ʸsome better thing for us, that they without us should not be ᶻmade perfect.

CHAPTER XII.

1 An exhortation to constant faith, patience, and godliness: 22 A commendation of the new testament above the old.

WHEREFORE, seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, ᵃlet us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and ᵇlet us run ᶜwith patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking unto Jesus the ‖author and finisher of our faith; ᵈwho, for the joy that was set before him, endured the cross, despising the shame, and ᵉis set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 ᶠFor consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, ᵍlest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

4 ʰYe have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, ⁱMy son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

6 For ᵏwhom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 ˡIf ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons: for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, ᵐwhereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto ⁿthe Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us ‖after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, ᵒthat we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless, afterward it yieldeth ᵖthe peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore ᵠlift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

13 ʳAnd make ‖straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; ˢbut let it rather be healed.

14 ᵗFollow peace with all men, and holiness, ᵘwithout which no man shall see the Lord:

15 ˣLooking diligently, ʸlest any man ‖fail of the grace of God; ᶻlest any root of bitterness springing up, trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

16 ᵃLest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, ᵇwho for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.

17 For ye know how that afterward, ᶜwhen he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: ᵈfor he found no ‖place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, [g]And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:

21 [h]And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)

22 But ye are come [i]unto Mount Sion, [k]and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, [l]and to an innumerable company of angels,

23 To the general assembly and church of [m]the first-born, [n]which are ‖written in heaven, and to God [o]the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men [p]made perfect,

24 And to Jesus [q]the Mediator of the new ‖covenant, and to [r]the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things [s]than that of Abel.

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For [t]if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:

26 [u]Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, [x]Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth [y]the removing of those things that ‖are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28 Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, ‖let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably, with reverence and godly fear:

29 For [z]our God is a consuming fire.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 Divers admonitions, as to charity, 4 to honest life, 5 to avoid covetousness, 7 to regard God's preachers, 9 to take heed of strange doctrines, 10 to confess Christ, 16 to give alms, 17 to obey governors, 18 to pray for the apostle. 20 The conclusion.

1 LET [a]brotherly love continue.

2 [b]Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby [c]some have entertained angels unawares.

3 [d]Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

4 Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: [e]but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

10 [o]We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.

11 For [p]the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp.

12 Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, [q]suffered without the gate.

13 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing [r]his reproach.

14 [s]For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

15 [t]By him therefore let us offer [u]the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, [x]the fruit of our lips, †giving thanks to his name.

16 [y]But to do good, and to communicate, forget not: for [z]with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

¶ THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JAMES.

CHAPTER I.

1 We are to rejoice under the cross, 5 to ask patience of God, 13 and in our trials not to impute our weakness, or sins, unto him, 19 but rather to hearken to the word, to meditate in it, and to do thereafter. 26 Otherwise men may seem, but never be truly religious.

JAMES,[a] [b]a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, [c]to the twelve tribes [d]which are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, [e]count it all joy [f]when ye fall into divers temptations;

3 [g]Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

5 [h]If any of you lack wisdom, [i]let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and [k]it shall be given him.

6 [l]But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 [m]A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree ‖rejoice in that he is exalted:

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because [n]as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 [o]Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive [p]the crown of life, [q]which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with ‖evil, neither tempteth he any man:

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then, [r]when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin; and sin, when it is finished, [s]bringeth forth death.

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 [t]Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, [u]with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

18 [x]Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, [y]that we should be a kind of [z]first-fruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, [a]let every man be swift to hear, [b]slow to speak, [c]slow to wrath:

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

21 Wherefore [d]lay apart all filthiness, and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the ingrafted word, [e]which is able to save your souls.

22 But [f]be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For [g]if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But [h]whoso looketh into the perfect [i]law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, [k]this man shall be blessed in his ‖deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and [l]bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, [m]To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, [n]and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

CHAPTER II.

1 It is not agreeable to Christian profession to regard the rich, and to despise the poor brethren: 13 rather we are to be loving, and merciful: 14 and not to boast of faith where no deeds are, 17 which is but a dead faith, 19 the faith of devils, 21 and not of Abraham, 25 and Rahab.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, [a]the Lord of glory, with [b]respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your †assembly, a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here ‖in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, [c]Hath not God chosen the poor of this world [d]rich in faith, and heirs of ‖the kingdom [e]which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But [f]ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, [g]and draw you before the judgment-seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, [h]Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But [i]if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, [k]he is guilty of all.

11 For ‖he that said, [l]Do not commit adultery; said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by [m]the law of liberty.

13 For [n]he shall have judgment without mercy that hath shewed no mercy; and [o]mercy ‖rejoiceth against judgment.

14 [p]What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 [q]If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And [r]one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being †alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith ‖without thy works, [s]and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: [t]the devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, [u]when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 ‖Seest thou [x]how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, [y]Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called [z]the Friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also [a]was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the ‖spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAPTER III.

1 We are not rashly or arrogantly to reprove others: 5 but rather to bridle the tongue, a little member, but a powerful instrument of much good, and great harm. 13 They who be truly wise be mild, and peaceable, without envying, and strife.

MY brethren, [a]be not many masters, [b]knowing that we shall receive the greater ‖condemnation.

2 For [c]in many things we offend all. [d]If any man offend not in word, [e]the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, [f]we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which, though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so [g]the tongue is a little member, and [h]boasteth great things. Behold, how great ‖a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And [i]the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that [k]it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the †course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every †kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed, of †mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, [l]full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, [m]which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same ||place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig-tree, my brethren, bear olive-berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

13 [n]Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation [o]his works [p]with meekness of wisdom.

14 But if ye have [q]bitter envying and strife in your hearts, [r]glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 [s]This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, ||sensual, devilish.

16 For [t]where envying and strife is, there is †confusion and every evil work.

17 But [u]the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, ||without partiality, [x]and without hypocrisy.

18 [y]And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

CHAPTER IV.

1 We are to strive against covetousness, 4 intemperance, 5 pride, 11 detraction, and rash judgment of others: 13 and not to be confident in the good success of worldly business, but mindful ever of the uncertainty of this life, to commit ourselves and all our affairs to God's providence.

FROM whence come wars and ||fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your ||lusts [a]that war in your members?

2 Ye lust and have not: ye ||kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

3 [b]Ye ask, and receive not, [c]because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your ||lusts.

4 [d]Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that [e]the friendship of the world is enmity with God? [f]whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, [g]The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth ||to envy?

6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, [h]God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. [i]Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 [k]Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. [l]Cleanse your hands, ye sinners, and [m]purify your hearts, ye [n]double-minded.

CHAPTER V.

1 Wicked rich men are to fear God's vengeance. 7 We ought to be patient in afflictions, after the example of the prophets, and Job: 12 to forbear swearing, 13 to pray in adversity, to sing in prosperity: 16 to acknowledge mutually our several faults, to pray one for another, 19 and to reduce a straying brother to the truth.

GO [a]to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and [b]your garments are moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. [c]Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.

4 Behold, [d]the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth; and [e]the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth.

5 [f]Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 [g]Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.

7 ||Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive [h]the early and latter rain.

8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: [i]for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 [k]||Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the Judge [l]standeth before the door.

10 [m]Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, [n]we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of [o]the patience of Job, and have seen [p]the end of the Lord; that [q]the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

12 But above all things, my brethren, [r]swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea, be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? [s]let him sing psalms.

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, [t]anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

PETER.

CHAPTER I.

1 He blesseth God for his manifold spiritual graces: 10 shewing that the salvation in Christ is no news, but a thing prophesied of old: 13 and exhorteth them accordingly to a godly conversation, forasmuch as they are now born anew by the word of God.

2 [b]Elect [c]according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, [d]through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and [e]sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: [f]Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.

12 [c]Unto whom it was revealed, that [d]not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you, with [e]the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; [f]which things the angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore [g]gird up the loins of your mind, [h]be sober, and hope †to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you [i]at the revelation of Jesus Christ:

14 As obedient children, [k]not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts [l]in your ignorance:

15 [m]But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;

16 Because it is written, [n]Be ye holy; for I am holy.

17 And if ye call on the Father, [o]who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, [p]pass the time of your [q]sojourning here in fear:

18 Forasmuch as ye know [r]that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation [s]received by tradition from your fathers;

21 Who by him do believe in God, [z]that raised him up from the dead, and [a]gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Seeing ye [b]have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned [c]love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently:

23 [d]Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, [e]by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.

24 ‖For [f]all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:

25 [g]But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. [h]And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

CHAPTER II.

1 He dehorteth them from the breach of charity: 4 shewing that Christ is the foundation whereupon they are built. 11 He beseecheth them also to abstain from fleshly lusts, 13 to be obedient to magistrates, 18 and teacheth servants how to obey their masters, 20 patiently suffering for well-doing, after the example of Christ.

WHEREFORE, [a] laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil-speakings,

2 [b]As new-born babes, desire the sincere [c]milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

3 If so be ye have [d]tasted that the Lord is gracious:

4 To whom coming as unto a living stone, [e]disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,

5 [f]Ye also, as lively stones, ‖are built up [g]a spiritual house, [h]a holy priesthood, to offer up [i]spiritual sacrifices, [k]acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

6 Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, [l]Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner-stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

7 Unto you therefore which believe, he is ‖precious: but unto them which be disobedient, [m]the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

8 [n]And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, [o]even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: [p]whereunto also they were appointed.

9 But ye are [q]a chosen generation, [r]a royal priesthood, [s]a holy nation, [t]‖a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the ‖praises of him who hath called you out of [u]darkness into his marvellous light:

10 [x]Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you, [y]as strangers and pilgrims, [z]abstain from fleshly lusts, [a]which war against the soul;

12 [b]Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, ‖whereas they speak against you as evil-doers, [c]they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God [d]in the day of visitation.

13 [e]Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;

14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him [f]for the punishment of evil-doers, and [g]for the praise of them that do well.

15 For so is the will of God, that [h]with well-doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

16 [i]As free, and not †using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as [k]the servants of God.

17 [l]‖Honour all men. [m]Love the brotherhood. [n]Fear God. Honour the king.

18 [o]Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

19 For this is ‖[p]thank-worthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For [q]what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is ‖acceptable with God.

21 For [r]even hereunto were ye called: because [s]Christ also suffered ‖for us, [t]leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:

22 [u]Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:

23 [x]Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but [y]‖committed himself to him that judgeth righteously:

24 [z]Who his own self bare our sins in his own body ‖on the tree, [a]that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: [b]by whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For [c]ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned [d]unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

CHAPTER III.

1 He teacheth the duty of wives and husbands to each other, 8 exhorting all men to unity and love, 14 and to suffer persecution. 19 He declareth also the benefits of Christ toward the old world.

LIKEWISE, [a]ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, [b]they also may without the word [c]be won by the conversation of the wives;

2 [d]While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

3 [e]Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4 But let it be [f]the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

6 Even as Sarah obeyed Abraham, [g]calling him lord: whose †daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 [h]Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, [i]as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; [k]that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, [l]be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another; [m]‖love as brethren, [n]be pitiful, be courteous:

9 [o]Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise, blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, [p]that ye should inherit a blessing.

10 For [q]he that will love life, and see good days, [r]let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

11 Let him [s]eschew evil, and do good: [t]let him seek peace, and ensue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, [u]and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is †against them that do evil.

13 [x]And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

14 [y]But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye; and [z]be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;

15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and [a]be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, with meekness and ‖fear:

16 [b]Having a good conscience; [c]that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evil-doers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well-doing, than for evil-doing.

18 For Christ also hath [d]once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, [e]being put to death [f]in the flesh, but [g]quickened by the Spirit:

19 By which also he went and [h]preached unto the spirits [i]in prison;

20 Which sometime were disobedient, [k]when once the long-suffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while [l]the ark was a preparing, [m]wherein few, that is, eight souls, were saved by water.

21 [n]The like figure whereunto, even baptism, doth also now save us, (not the putting away of [o]the filth of the flesh, [p]but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) [q]by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:

22 Who is gone into heaven, and [r]is on the right hand of God; [s]angels, and authorities, and powers being made subject unto him.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He exhorteth them to cease from sin by the example of Christ, and the consideration of the general end that now approacheth: 12 and comforteth them against persecution.

1 FORASMUCH then [a]as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for [b]he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;

2 [c]That he no longer [d]should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, [e]but to the will of God

3 [f]For the time past of our life may suffice us [g]to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, [h]speaking evil of you:

5 Who shall give account to him that is ready [i]to judge the quick and the dead.

6 For, for this cause [k]was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But [l]the end of all things is at hand: [m]be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

8 [n]And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for [o]charity ‖shall cover the multitude of sins.

9 [p]Use hospitality one to another [q]without grudging.

10 [r]As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, [s]as good stewards of [t]the manifold grace of God.

11 [u]If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; [x]if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that [y]God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ; [z]to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, think it not strange, concerning [a]the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you:

13 [b]But rejoice, inasmuch as [c]ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; [d]that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 [e]If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the Spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you. [f]On their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 But [g]let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evil-doer, [h]or as a busybody in other men's matters.

16 Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; [i]but let him glorify God on this behalf.

17 For the time is come [k]that judgment must begin at the house of God: and [l]if it first begin at us, [m]what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

18 [n]And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?

CHAPTER V.

1 He exhorteth the elders to feed their flocks, 5 the younger to obey, 8 and all to be sober, watchful, and constant in the faith: 9 to resist the cruel adversary the devil.

1 THE elders which are among you I exhort, who am also [a]an elder, and [b]a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also [c]a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:

2 [d]Feed the flock of God ‖which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, [e]not by constraint, but willingly; [f]not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

3 Neither as ‖[g]being lords over [h]God's heritage, but [i]being ensamples to the flock.

4 And when [k]the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive [l]a crown of glory [m]that fadeth not away.

5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, [n]all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for [o]God resisteth the proud, and [p]giveth grace to the humble.

6 [q]Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:

7 [r]Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

8 [s]Be sober, be vigilant; because [t]your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

9 [u]Whom resist steadfast in the faith, [x]knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

10 But the God of all grace, [y]who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered [z]a while, [a]make you perfect, [b]stablish, strengthen, settle you.

11 [c]To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 [d]By Silvanus, a faithful brother unto you, as I suppose, I have [e]written briefly, exhorting, and testifying [f]that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand.

13 The church that is at Babylon, elected together with you, saluteth you, and so doth [g]Marcus my son.

14 [h]Greet ye one another with a kiss of charity. [i]Peace be with you all that are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

¶ THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF

PETER.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Confirming them in hope of the increase of God's graces, 5 he exhorteth them, by faith, and good works, to make their calling sure: 12 whereof he is careful to remember them, knowing that his death is at hand: 16 and warneth them to be constant in the faith of Christ, who is the true Son of God, by the eye-witness of the apostles beholding his majesty, and by the testimony of the Father, and the prophets.

SIMON‖ Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained [a]like precious faith with us through the righteousness †of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

2 [b]Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, [c]through the knowledge of him [d]that hath called us ‖to glory and virtue:

4 [e]Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises; that by these ye might be [f]partakers of the divine nature, [g]having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And besides this, [h]giving all diligence, add to your faith, virtue; and to virtue, [i]knowledge;

6 And to knowledge, temperance; and to temperance, patience; and to patience, godliness;

7 And to godliness, brotherly kindness; and [k]to brotherly kindness, charity.

8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be †barren [l]nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things [m]is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was [n]purged from his old sins.

10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence [o]to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, [p]ye shall never fall:

11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore [q]I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, [r]though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, [s]as long as I am in this tabernacle, [t]to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;

14 [u]Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as [x]our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 Moreover, I will endeavour that ye may be able, after my decease, to have these things always in remembrance.

16 For we have not followed [y]cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but [z]were eye-witnesses of his majesty.

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, [a]This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in [b]the holy mount.

19 We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto [c]a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and [d]the day-star arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that [e]no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

21 For [f]the prophecy came not ‖in old time by the will of man: [g]but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

CHAPTER II.

1 He foretelleth them of false teachers, shewing the impiety and punishment both of them and their followers: 7 from which the godly shall be delivered, as Lot was out of Sodom: 10 and more fully describeth the manners of those profane and blasphemous seducers, whereby they may be the better known, and avoided.

BUT [a]there were false prophets also among the people, even as [b]there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even [c]denying the Lord [d]that bought them, [e]and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their ‖pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And [f]through covetousness shall they with feigned words [g]make merchandise of you: [h]whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not [i]the angels [k]that sinned, but [l]cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;

5 And spared not the old world, but saved [m]Noah the eighth person, [n]a preacher of righteousness, [o]bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly;

6 And [p]turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them with an overthrow, [q]making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;

7 And [r]delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, [t]in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds:)

9 [u]The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished:

10 But chiefly [x]them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise ‖government. [y]Presumptuous are they, self-willed; they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.

11 Whereas [z]angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation ‖against them before the Lord.

12 But these, [a]as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption:

13 [b]And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure [c]to riot in the day-time. [d]Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while [e]they feast with you;

14 Having eyes full of †adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: [f]a heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of [g]Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass, speaking with man's voice, forbade the madness of the prophet.

17 [h]These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when [i]they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that [k]were ‖clean escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise them [l]liberty, they themselves are [m]the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For [n]if after they [o]have escaped the pollutions of the world [p]through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

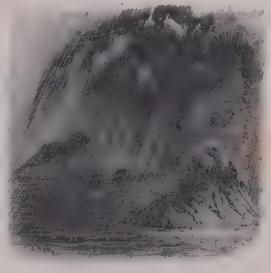
21 For [q]it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, [r]The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and, The sow that was washed, to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAPTER III.

1 He assureth them of the certainty of Christ's coming to judgment, against those scorners who dispute against it: 8 warning the godly, for the long patience of God, to hasten their repentance. 10 He describeth also the manner how the world shall be destroyed: 11 exhorting them, from the expectation thereof, to all holiness of life: 15 and again, to think the patience of God to tend to their salvation, as Paul wrote to them in his epistles.

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which [a]I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:



2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, [b]and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 [c]Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, [d]walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, [e]Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that [f]by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth †[g]standing out of the water and in the water:

6 [h]Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

7 But [i]the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto [k]fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and [l]a thousand years as one day.

9 [m]The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but [n]is long-suffering to us-ward, [o]not willing that any should perish, but [p]that all should come to repentance.

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for [y]new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent [z]that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

15 And account that [a]the long-suffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given unto him, hath written unto you;

16 As also in all his epistles, [b]speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloved, [c]seeing ye know these things before, [d]beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness.

18 [e]But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. [f]To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

¶ THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF

J O H N.

CHAPTER I.

1 He describeth the person of Christ, in whom we have eternal life, by a communion with God: 5 to which we must adjoin holiness of life, to testify the truth of that our communion and profession of faith, as also to assure us of the forgiveness of our sins by Christ's death.

THAT [a]which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, [b]which we have looked upon, and [c]our hands have handled, of the Word of life;

2 (For [d]the life [e]was manifested, and we have seen it, [f]and bear witness, [g]and shew unto you that eternal life [h]which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;)

3 [i]That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly [k]our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4 And these things write we unto you, [l]that your joy may be full.

5 [m]This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that [n]God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 [o]If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and [p]the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

8 [q]If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, [r]and the truth is not in us.

9 [s]If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to [t]cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

CHAPTER II.

1 He comforteth them against the sins of infirmity. 3 Rightly to know God is to keep his commandments, 9 to love our brethren, 15 and not to love the world. 18 We must beware of seducers: 20 from whose deceits the godly are safe, preserved by perseverance in faith, and holiness of life.

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, [a]we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

2 And [b]he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but [c]also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

4 [d]He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, [e]is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But [f]whoso keepeth his word, [g]in him verily is the love of God perfected: [h]hereby know we that we are in him.

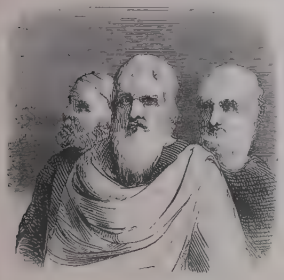
6 [i]He that saith he abideth in him, [k]ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

7 Brethren, [l]I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment [m]which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, [n]a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: [o]because the darkness is past, and [p]the true light now shineth.



9 [q]He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10 [r]He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and [s]there is none †occasion of stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and [t]walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because [u]your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him [x]that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because [y]ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 [z]Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. [a]If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, [b]and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And [c]the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

18 [d]Little children, [e]it is the last time: and as ye have heard that [f]antichrist shall come, [g]even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know [h]that it is the last time.

19 [i]They went out from us, but they were not of us; for [k]if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, [l]that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

20 But [m]ye have an unction [n]from the Holy One, and [o]ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 [p]Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 [q]Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but [r]he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.]

24 Let that therefore abide in you, [s]which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, [t]ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 [u]And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

26 These things have I written unto you [x]concerning them that seduce you.

27 But [y]the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and [z]ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing [a]teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in ‖him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him; that [b]when he shall appear, we may have confidence, [c]and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 [d]If ye know that he is righteous, ‖ye know that [e]every one that doeth righteousness is born of him.

CHAPTER III.

1 He declareth the singular love of God toward us, in making us his sons: 3 who therefore ought obediently to keep his commandments, 11 as also brotherly to love one another.

BEHOLD what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that [a]we should be called the sons of God! therefore the world knoweth us not, [b]because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, [c]now are we the sons of God, and [d]it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, [e]we shall be like him; for [f]we shall see him as he is.

3 [g]And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law; for [b]sin is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know [i]that he was manifested [k]to take away our sins; and [l]in him is no sin.

6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: [m]whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.

7 Little children, [n]let no man deceive you: [o]he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 [p]He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, [q]that he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 [r]Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for [s]his seed remaineth in him; and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: [t]whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, [u]neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For [x]this is the ‖message that ye heard from the beginning, [y]that we should love one another.

12 Not as [z] Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, my brethren, if [a]the world hate you.

14 [b]We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. [c]He that loveth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 [d] Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that [e]no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 [f]Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But [g]whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, [h]how dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 My little children, [i]let us not love in word, neither in tongue, but in deed and in truth.

19 And hereby we know [k]that we are of the truth, and shall † assure our hearts before him.

20 [l]For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 [m]Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, [n]then have we confidence toward God.

22 And [o]whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, [p]and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 [q]And this is his commandment; That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, [r]and love one another, [s]as he gave us commandment.

24 And [t]he that keepeth his commandments, [u]dwelleth in him, and he in him. And [x]hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

CHAPTER IV.

1 He warneth them not to believe all teachers, who boast of the Spirit, but to try them by the rules of the catholic faith · 7 and by many reasons exhorteth to brotherly love.

BELOVED, [a]believe not every spirit, but [b]try the spirits whether they are of God: because [c]many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: [d]Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God:

3 And [e]every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God. And this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and [f]even now already is it in the world.

4 [g]Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than [h]he that is in the world.

5 [i]They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and [k]the world heareth them.

6 We are of God. [l]He that knoweth God, heareth us; he that is not of God, heareth not us. Hereby know we [m]the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 [n]Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not, [o]knoweth not God; for [p]God is love.

9 [q]In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only-begotten Son into the world, [r]that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, [s]not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son [t]to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, [u]if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 [x]No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and [y]his love is perfected in us.

13 [z]Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And [a]we have seen and do testify, that [b]the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 [c]Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. [d]God is love: and [e]he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is † our love made perfect, that [f]we may have boldness in the day of judgment: [g]because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth, [h]is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 [i]If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar. For he that loveth not his brother, whom he hath seen, how can he love God, [k]whom he hath not seen?

21 And [l]this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God, love his brother also.

CHAPTER V.

1 He that loveth God loveth his children, and keepeth his commandments: 3 which to the faithful are light, and not grievous. 9 Jesus is the Son of God, able to save us, 14 and to hear our prayers, which we make for ourselves, and for others.

WHOSOEVER [a]believeth that [b]Jesus is the Christ, is [c]born of God: [d]and every one that loveth him that begat, loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 [e]For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments; and [f]his commandments are not grievous.

4 For [g]whatsoever is born of God, overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but [h]he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came [i]by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. [k]And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, [l]the Word, and the Holy Ghost: [m]and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive [n]the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: [o]for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that believeth on the Son of God [p]hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God, [q]hath made him a liar, because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 [r]And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life; and [s]this life is in his Son.

12 [t]He that hath the Son, hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God, hath not life.

13 [u]These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; [x]that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have ‖in him, that [y]if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and [z]he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. [a]There is a sin unto death: [b]I do not say that he shall pray for it.

17 [c]All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death.

18 We know that [d]whosoever is born of God, sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God, [e]keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 And we know that we are of God, and [f]the whole world lieth in wickedness.

20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and [g]hath given us an understanding, [h]that we may know him that is true; and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. [i]This is the true God, [k]and eternal life.

21 Little children, [l]keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

¶ THE SECOND EPISTLE OF

JOHN.

1 He exhorteth a certain honourable matron, with her children, to persevere in Christian love and belief, 8 lest they lose the reward of their former profession: 10 and to have nothing to do with those seducers that bring not the true doctrine of Christ Jesus.

1 THE elder unto the elect lady, and her children, [a]whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known [b]the truth;

2 For the truth's sake which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.

3 [c]Grace †be with you, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, [d]in truth and love.

4 I rejoiced greatly, that I found of thy children [e]walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, lady, [f]not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, [g]that we love one another.

6 And [h]this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, [i]as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

7 For [k]many deceivers are entered into the world, [l]who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. [m]This is a deceiver, and an antichrist.

8 [n]Look to yourselves, [o]that we lose not those things which we have ‖wrought, but that we receive a full reward.

9 [p]Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.

10 If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, [q]neither bid him God speed:

11 For he that biddeth him God speed, is partaker of his evil deeds.

12 [r]Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come unto you, and speak †face to face, [s]that ‖our joy may be full.

13 [t]The children of thy elect sister greet thee. Amen.

¶ THE THIRD EPISTLE OF

JOHN.

He commendeth Gaius for his piety, 5 and hospitality 7 to true preachers: 9 complaining of the unkind dealing of ambitious Diotrephes on the contrary side, 11 whose evil example is not to be followed: 12 and giveth special testimony to the good report of Demetrius.

THE elder unto the well-beloved Gaius, [a]whom I love ‖in the truth.

2 Beloved, I ‖wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 For I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as [b]thou walkest in the truth.

4 I have no greater joy than to hear that [c]my children walk in truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers;

6 Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey †after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:

7 Because that for his name's sake they went forth, [d]taking nothing of the Gentiles.

8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellow-helpers to the truth.

9 I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the pre-eminence among them, receiveth us not.

¶ THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF

J U D E.

He exhorteth them to be constant in the profession of the faith. 4 False teachers are crept in to seduce them: for whose damnable doctrine and manners horrible punishment is prepared: 20 whereas the godly, by the assistance of the Holy Spirit, and prayers to God, may persevere, and grow in grace, and keep themselves, and recover others out of the snares of those deceivers.

JUDE, the servant of Jesus Christ, and [a]brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and [b]preserved in Jesus Christ, and [c]called:

2 Mercy unto you, and [d]peace, and love, be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you [e]of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that [f]ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 [g]For there are certain men crept in unawares, [h]who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, [i]turning [k]the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and [l]denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that [m]the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward [n]destroyed them that believed not.

6 And [o]the angels which kept not their ‖first estate, but left their own habitation, [p]he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness [q]unto the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as [r]Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after †strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 [s]Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and [t]speak evil of dignities.

9 Yet [u]Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil, he disputed about the body of Moses, [x]durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, [y]The Lord rebuke thee.

10 [z]But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Wo unto them! for they have gone in the way [a]of Cain, and [b]ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished [c]in the gainsaying of Core.

12 [d]These are spots in your [e]feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: [f]clouds they are without water, [g]carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, [h]plucked up by the roots;

13 [i]Raging waves of the sea, [k]foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, [l]to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

14 And Enoch also, [m]the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, [n]the Lord cometh with ten thousand of his saints,

15 To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their [o]hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and [p]their mouth speaketh great swelling words, [q]having men's persons in admiration because of advantage.

17 [r]But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ;

18 How that they told you [s]there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

19 These be they [t]who separate themselves, [u]sensual, having not the Spirit.

¶THE REVELATION OF ST JOHN THE DIVINE.

CHAPTER I.

4 John writeth his revelation to the seven churches of Asia, signified by the seven golden candlesticks. 7 The coming of Christ. 14 His glorious power and majesty.

THE Revelation of Jesus Christ, [a]which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which [b]must shortly come to pass; and [c]he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:

2 [d]Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things [e]that he saw.

3 [f]Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for [g]the time is at hand.

4 JOHN to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him [h]which is, and [i]which was, and which is to come; [k]and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne;

5 And from Jesus Christ, [l]who is the faithful Witness, and the [m]First-begotten of the dead, and [n]the Prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him [o]that loved us, [p]and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

6 And hath [q]made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; [r]to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

7 [s]Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and [t]they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

8 [u]I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, [x]which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

9 I John, who also am your brother, and [y]companion in tribulation, and [z]in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, [a]for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 [b]I was in the Spirit on [c]the Lord's day, and heard behind me [d]a great voice, as of a trumpet,

11 Saying, [e]I am Alpha and Omega, [f]the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, [g]I saw seven golden candlesticks;

13 [h]And in the midst of the seven candlesticks [i]one like unto the Son of man, [k]clothed with a garment down to the foot, and [l]girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head and [m]his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and [n]his eyes were as a flame of fire;

15 [o]And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and [p]his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 [q]And he had in his right hand seven stars: and [r]out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword: [s]and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And [t]when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And [u]he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; [x]I am the first and the last:

18 [y]I am he that liveth, and was dead; and behold, [z]I am alive for evermore, Amen; and [a]have the keys of hell and of death.

19 Write [b]the things which thou hast seen, [c]and the things which are, [d]and the things which shall be hereafter;

20 The mystery [e]of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, [f]and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are [g]the angels of the seven churches: and [h]the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

CHAPTER II.

What is commanded to be written to the angels, that is, the ministers of the churches of 1 Ephesus, 8 Smyrna, 12 Pergamos, 18 Thyatira: and what is commended, or found wanting in them.

UNTO the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith [a]he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, [b]who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

2 [c]I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil; and [d]thou hast tried them [e]which say they are apostles, and are not; and hast found them liars:

3 And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast [f]not fainted.

4 Nevertheless, I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; [g]or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of [h]the Nicolaitanes, which I also hate.

7 [i]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give [k]to eat of [l]the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith [m]the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;

9 [n]I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art [o]rich,) and I know the blasphemy of [p]them which say they are Jews, and are not, [q]but are the synagogue of Satan.

10 [r]Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer. Behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days. [s]Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee [t]a crown of life.

11 [u]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of [x]the second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith [y]he which hath the sharp sword with two edges;

13 [z]I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even [a]where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of [b]Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumbling-block before the children of Israel, [c]to eat things sacrificed unto idols, [d]and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine [e]of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.

16 Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and [f]will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 [g]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone [h]a new name written, which no man knoweth, saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of God, [i]who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

19 [k]I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first:

20 Notwithstanding, I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman [l]Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants [m]to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space [n]to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that [o]I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and [p]I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, As many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; [q]I will put upon you none other burden:

25 But [r]that which ye have already, hold fast till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth [s]my works unto the end, [t]to him will I give power over the nations:

27 ([u]And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers:) even as I received of my Father.

28 And I will give him [x]the morning-star.

29 [y]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAPTER III.

2 The angel of the church of Sardis is reproved, 3 exhorted to repent, and threatened if he do not repent. 8 The angel of the church of Philadelphia 10 is approved for his diligence and patience. 15 The angel of Laodicea rebuked, for being neither hot nor cold, 19 and admonished to be more zealous. 20 Christ standeth at the door and knocketh.

1 AND unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he [a]that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; [b]I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, [c]and art dead.

2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 [d]Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and [e]repent. [f]If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast [g]a few names even in Sardis which have not [h]defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me [i]in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, [k]the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not [l]blot out his name out of the [m]book of life, but [n]I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 [o]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith [p]he that is holy, [q]he that is true, he that hath [r]the key of David, [s]he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and [t]shutteth, and no man openeth:

8 [u]I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee [x]an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make [y]them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, [z]I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, [a]I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon [b]all the world, to try them that dwell [c]upon the earth.

11 Behold, [d]I come quickly: [e]hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take [f]thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh will I make [g]a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and [h]I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is [i]new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: [k]and I will write upon him my new name.

13 [l]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

14 And unto the angel of the church ‖of the Laodiceans write; [m]These things saith the Amen, [n]the faithful and true Witness, [o]the beginning of the creation of God;

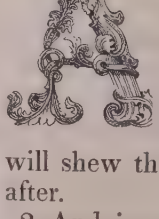
15 [p]I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

16 So then, because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spew thee out of my mouth:

17 Because thou sayest, [q]I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

18 I counsel thee [r]to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and [s]white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see.

19 [t]As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.



20 Behold, [u]I stand at the door, and knock: [x]if any man hear my voice, and open the door, [y]I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that overcometh [z]will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

22 [a]He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAPTER IV.

2 John seeth the throne of God in heaven. 4 The four and twenty elders. 6 The four beasts full of eyes before and behind. 10 The elders lay down their crowns, and worship him that sat on the throne.

AFTER this I looked, and behold, a door was opened in heaven: and [a]the first voice which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, [b]Come up hither, [c]and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately [d]I was in the Spirit: and behold, [e]a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

3 And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: [f]and there was a rainbow round about the throne in sight like unto an emerald.

4 [g]And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, [h]clothed in white raiment; [i]and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded [k]lightnings, and thunderings, and voices. [l]And there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are [m]the seven Spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was [n]a sea of glass like unto crystal: [o]and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before [p]and behind.

7 [q]And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four beasts had each of them [r]six wings about him; and they were full of eyes [s]within: and †they rest not day and night, saying, [t]Holy, holy, holy, [u]Lord God Almighty, [x]which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts give glory, and honour, and thanks to him that sat on the throne, [y]who liveth for ever and ever,

10 [z]The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, [a]and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, [b]and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

11 [c]Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory, and honour, and power: [d]for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

CHAPTER V.

1 The book sealed with seven seals: 9 which only the Lamb that was slain is worthy to open. 12 Therefore the elders praise him, 9 and confess that he redeemed them with his blood.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne [a]a book written within and on the back side, [b]sealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And no man [c]in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open, and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, [d]the Lion of the tribe of Juda, [e]the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, [f]and to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and lo, in the midst of the throne, and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood [g]a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns, and [h]seven eyes, which are [i]the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand [k]of him that sat upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book, [l]the four beasts, and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them [m]harps, and golden vials full of ‖odours, [n]which are the prayers of saints.

9 And [o]they sung a new song, saying, [p]Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: [q]for thou wast slain, and [r]hast redeemed us to God by thy blood [s]out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

10 [t]And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels [u]round about the throne, and the beasts, and the elders: and the number of them was [x]ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

12 Saying with a loud voice, [y]Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And [z]every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, [a]Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him [b]that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever.

14 [c]And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him [d]that liveth for ever and ever.

CHAPTER VI.

1 The opening of the seals in order, and what followed thereupon, containing a prophecy to the end of the world.

AND [a]I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, [b]one of the four beasts, saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw, and behold, [c]a white horse: [d]and he that sat on him had a bow; [e]and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, [f]I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 [g]And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, [h]I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo, [i]a black horse: and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

OPENING OF THE SIXTH SEAL

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, ‖A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and [k]see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, [l]I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see

8 [m]And I looked, and behold, a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and hell followed with him. And power was given ‖unto them over the fourth part of the earth, [n]to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, [p]and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under [q]the altar [r]the souls of them that were slain [s]for the word of God, and for [t]the testimony which they held:

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, [u]How long, O Lord, [x]holy and true, [y]dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And [z]white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, [a]that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow-servants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, [b]and lo, there was a great earthquake; and [c]the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood:

13 [d]And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig-tree casteth her ‖untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

14 [e]And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and [f]every mountain and island were moved out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bond-man, and every free-man, [g]hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 [h]And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 [i]For the great day of his wrath is come; [k]and who shall be able to stand?

CHAPTER VII.

3 An angel sealeth the servants of God in their foreheads. 4 The number of them that were sealed: of the tribes of Israel a certain number. 9 Of all other nations an innumerable multitude, which stand before the throne, clad in white robes, and palms in their hands. 14 Their robes were washed in the blood of the Lamb.

AND after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, [a]holding the four winds of the earth, [b]that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, [c]Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have [d]sealed the servants of our God [e]in their foreheads.

4 [f]And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed [g]a hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nephthalim were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and lo, [h]a great multitude, which no man could number, [i]of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, [k]clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, [l]Salvation to our God [m]which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 [n]And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,

12 [o]Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in [p]white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, [q]These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have [r]washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

15 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall [s]dwell among them.

16 [t]They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; [u]neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

17 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne [x]shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: [y]and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

CHAPTER VIII.

1 At the opening of the seventh seal, 2 seven angels had seven trumpets given them. 6 Four of them sound their trumpets, and great plagues follow. 3 Another angel putteth incense to the prayers of the saints on the golden altar.

AND [a]when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 [b]And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; [c]and to them were given seven trumpets.

3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should ‖offer it with [d]the prayers of all saints upon [e]the golden altar which was before the throne.

4 And [f]the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it ‖into the earth: and [g]there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, [h]and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, [i]and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast [k]upon the earth: and the third part [l]of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, [m]and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: [n]and the third part of the sea [o]became blood;

9 [p]And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, [q]and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, [r]and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters;

11 [s]And the name of the star is called Wormwood: [t]and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 [u]And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, [x]and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, [y]Wo, wo, wo, to the inhabiters of the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

CHAPTER IX.

1 At the sounding of the fifth angel, a star falleth from heaven, to whom is given the key of the bottomless pit. 2 He openeth the pit, and there come forth locusts like scorpions. 12 The first wo past. 13 The sixth trumpet soundeth. 14 Four angels are let loose, that were bound.

ND the fifth angel sounded, [a]and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of [b]the bottomless pit.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; [c]and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke [d]locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, [e]as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them [f]that they should not hurt [g]the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not [h]the seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, [i]but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those days [k]shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And [l]the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; [m]and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, [n]and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and [o]their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breast-plates, as it were breast-plates of iron; and the sound of their wings was [p]as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: [q]and their power was to hurt men five months.

11 [r]And they had a king over them, which is [s]the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name ‖Apollyon.

12 [t]One wo is past; and behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound [u]in the great river Euphrates.

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared ‖for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

16 [x]And the number of the army [y]of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: [z]and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: [a]and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire, and smoke, and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: [b]for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues [c]yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship [d]devils, [e]and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

21 Neither repented they of their murders, [f]nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

CHAPTER X.

1 A mighty strong angel appeareth with a book open in his hand. 6 He sweareth by him that liveth for ever, that there shall be no more time. 9 John is commanded to take and eat the book.

ND I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: [a]and a rainbow was upon his head, and [b]his face was as it were the sun, and [c]his feet as pillars of fire:

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: [d]and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,

3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, [e]seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, [f]Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth, [g]lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, [h]who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, [i]that there should be time no longer:

7 But [k]in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And [l]the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go, and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, [m]Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; [n]and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it [o]my belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

CHAPTER XI.

3 The two witnesses prophesy. 6 They have power to shut heaven, that it rain not. 7 The beast shall fight against them, and kill them. 8 They lie unburied, 11 and after three days and a half rise again. 14 The second wo is past. 15 The seventh trumpet soundeth.

AND there was given me [a]a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, [b]Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But [c]the court which is without the temple, †leave out, and measure it not; [d]for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they [e]tread under foot [f]forty and two months.

3 And ‖I will give power unto my two [g]witnesses, [h]and they shall prophesy [i]a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are the [k]two olive-trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth

5 And if any man will hurt them, [l]fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: [m]and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 These [n]have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and [o]have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they [p]shall have finished their testimony, [q]the beast that ascendeth [r]out of the bottomless pit [s]shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of [t]the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, [u]where also our Lord was crucified.

9 [x]And they of the people, and kindreds, and tongues, and nations, shall see their dead bodies three days and a half, [y]and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 [z]And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, [a]and shall send gifts one to another; [b]because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

11 [c]And after three days and a half [d]the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven, saying unto them, Come up hither. [e]And they ascended up to heaven [f]in a cloud; [g]and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same hour [h]was there a great earthquake, [i]and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain †of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, [k]and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 [l]The second wo is past; and behold, the third wo cometh quickly.

15 And [m]the seventh angel sounded; [n]and there were great voices in heaven, saying, [o]The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; [p]and he shall reign for ever and ever.

16 And [q]the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God,

17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, [r]which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, [s]and hast reigned.

18 [t]And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, [u]and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldst give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, [x]small and great; [y]and

RESURRECTION OF THE TWO PROPHETS

shouldst destroy them which ‖destroy the earth.

19 And [z]the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and [a]there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, [b]and great hail.

CHAPTER XII.

1 A woman clothed with the sun travaileth. 4 The great red dragon standeth before her, ready to devour her child: 6 when she was delivered she fleeth into the wilderness. 7 Michael and his angels fight with the dragon, and prevail. 13 The dragon being cast down into the earth, persecuteth the woman.

AND there appeared a great ‖wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

2 And she, being with child, cried, [a]travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another ‖wonder in heaven; and behold, [b]a great red dragon, [c]having seven heads and ten horns, [d]and seven crowns upon his heads.

4 And [e]his tail drew the third part [f]of the stars of heaven, [g]and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood [h]before the woman which was ready to be delivered, [i]for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5 And she brought forth a man-child, [k]who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron:

6 And [l]the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there [m]a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven: [n]Michael and his angels fought [o]against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And [p]the great dragon was cast out, [q]that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, [r]which deceiveth the whole world: [s]he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, [t]Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down [u]which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And [x]they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; [y]and they loved not their lives unto the death.

that dwell in them. [a]Wo to the inhabiters of the earth, and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, [b]because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted [c]the woman which brought forth the man-child.

14 [d]And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, [e]that she might fly [f]into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished [g]for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

15 And the serpent [h]cast out of his mouth water as a flood, after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman; and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, [i]and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, [k]which keep the commandments of God, and have [l]the testimony of Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER XIII.

1 A beast riseth out of the sea with seven heads and ten horns, to whom the dragon giveth his power. 11 Another beast cometh up out of the earth: 14 causeth an image to be made of the former beast, 15 and that men should worship it, 16 and receive his mark.

1 AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw [a]a beast rise up out of the sea, [b]having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the ‖name of blasphemy.

2 [c]And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, [d]and his feet were as the feet of a bear, [e]and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and [f]the dragon gave him his power, [g]and his seat, [h]and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads [i]as it were †wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and [k]all the world wondered after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, [l]Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given unto him [m]a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him ‖to continue [n]forty and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, [o]and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him [p]to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: [q]and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, [r]whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain [s]from the foundation of the world.

9 [t]If any man have an ear, let him hear.

10 [u]He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: [x]he that killeth with the sword, must be killed with the sword. [y]Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

11 And I beheld another beast [z]coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, [a]whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And [b]he doeth great wonders, [c]so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

14 And [d]deceiveth them that dwell on the earth [e]by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, [f]and did live.

15 And he had power to give †life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, [g]and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, [h]†to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads;

17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or [i]the name of the beast, [k]or the number of his name.

18 [l]Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count [m]the number of the beast: [n]for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

and the elders: and no man could learn that song [g]but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women; [h]for they are virgins. These are they [i]which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These † [k]were redeemed from among men, [l]being the first-fruits unto God and to the Lamb.

5 And [m]in their mouth was found no guile: for [n]they are without fault before the throne of God.

6 And I saw another angel [o]fly in the midst of heaven, [p]having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, [q]and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voice, [r]Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: [s]and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

8 And there followed another angel, saying, [t]Babylon is fallen, is fallen, [u]that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, [x]If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same [y]shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is [z]poured out without mixture into [a]the cup of his indignation; and [b]he shall be tormented with [c]fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And [d]the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 [e]Here is the patience of the saints: [f]here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Write, [g]Blessed are the dead [h]which die in the Lord ‖from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, [i]that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat [k]like unto the Son of man, [l]having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel [m]came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, [n]Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest [o]of the earth is ‖ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, [p]which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, [q]Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into [r]the great wine-press of the wrath of God.

20 And [s]the wine-press was trodden [t]without the city, and blood came out of the wine-press, [u]even unto the horse-bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAPTER XV.

1 The seven angels with the seven last plagues. 3 The song of them that overcome the beast. 7 The seven vials full of the wrath of God.

AND [a]I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, [b]seven angels having the seven last plagues; [c]for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were [d]a sea of glass [e]mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, [f]and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, [g]having the harps of God.

3 And they sing [h]the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, [i]Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; [k]just and true are thy ways, thou King of ‖saints.

4 [l]Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for [m]all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and behold, [n]the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

6 [o]And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, [p]clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 [q]And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, [r]who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And [s]the temple was filled with smoke

[t]from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAPTER XVI.

2 The angels pour out their vials full of wrath. 6 The plagues that follow thereupon. 15 Christ cometh as a thief. Blessed are they that watch.

AND I heard a great voice out of the temple, saying [a]to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials [b]of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial [c]upon the earth; and [d]there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men [e]which had the mark of the beast, and upon them [f]which worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial [g]upon the sea; and [h]it became as the blood of a dead man; [i]and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial [k]upon the rivers and fountains of waters; [l]and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, [m]Thou art righteous, O Lord, [n]which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus.

6 For [o]they have shed the blood [p]of saints and prophets, [q]and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, [r]Lord God Almighty, [s]true and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial [t]upon the sun; [u]and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were ‖scorched with great heat, [x]and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: [y]and they repented not [z]to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial [a]upon the seat of the beast; [b]and his kingdom was full of darkness; [c]and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

11 And [d]blasphemed the God of heaven, because of their pains and [e]their sores, [f]and repented not of their deeds.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial [g]upon the great river Euphrates; [h]and the water thereof was dried up, [i]that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean [k]spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of [l]the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of [m]the false prophet.

14 [n]For they are the spirits of devils, [o]working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth, [p]and of the whole world, to gather them to [q]the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

15 [r]Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, [s]lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

16 [t]And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.

17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, [u]It is done.

18 And [x]there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; [y]and there was a great earthquake, [z]such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

19 And [a]the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon [b]came in remembrance before God, [c]to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

20 And [d]every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 [e]And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and [f]men blasphemed God because of [g]the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAPTER XVII.

3, 4 A woman arrayed in purple and scarlet, with a golden cup in her hand, sitteth upon the beast, 5 which is great Babylon, the mother of all abominations. 9 The interpretation of the seven heads, 12 and the ten horns. 8 The punishment of the whore. 14 The victory of the Lamb.

1 AND there came [a]one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; [b]I will shew unto thee the judgment of [c]the great whore [d]that sitteth upon many waters:

2 [e]With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and [f]the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the spirit [g]into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit [h]upon a scarlet-coloured beast, full of [i]names of blasphemy, [k]having seven heads and [l]ten horns.

4 And the woman [m]was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, [n]and †decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, [o]having a golden cup in her hand [p]full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

5 And upon her forehead was a name

written, [q]MYSTERY, BABYLON [r]THE GREAT, [s]THE MOTHER OF ‖HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw [t]the woman drunken [u]with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of [x]the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest, was, and is not; and [y]shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and [z]go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth [a]shall wonder, ([b]whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world,) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And [c]here is the mind which hath wisdom. [d]The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, [e]and goeth into perdition.

12 And [f]the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 [g]These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: [h]for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings; [i]and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he saith unto me, [k]The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, [l]are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, [m]these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate [n]and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and [o]burn her with fire.

17 [p]For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, [q]until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest [r]is that great city, [s]which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

AND [a]after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; [b]and the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, [c]Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and [d]is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and [e]a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations [f]have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, [g]and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the ‖abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, [h]Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 [i]For her sins have reached unto heaven, and [k]God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 [l]Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: [m]in the cup which she hath filled, [n]fill to her double.

7 [o]How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a [p]queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come [q]in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and [r]she shall be utterly burned with fire: [s]for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

9 And [t]the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, [u]shall bewail her, and lament for her, [x]when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, [y]Alas, alas! that great city Babylon, that mighty city! [z]for in one hour is thy judgment come.

11 And [a]the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:

12 [b]The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all ‖thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble, sheep, and horses, and chariots, and ‖slaves, and [c]souls of men.

14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.

15 [d]The merchants of these things which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off, for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas! that great city, [e]that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

17 [f]For in one hour so great riches is come to naught. And [g]every ship-master, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off,

18 [h]And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, [i]What city is like unto this great city!

19 And [k]they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas! that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! [l]for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 [m]Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for [n]God hath avenged you on her.

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great mill-stone, and cast it into the sea, saying, [o]Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and [p]shall be found no more at all.

22 [q]And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a mill-stone shall be heard no more at all in thee;

23 [r]And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; [s]and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for [t]thy merchants were the great men of the earth; [u]for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 God is praised in heaven for judging the great whore, and avenging the blood of his saints. 7 The marriage of the Lamb. 10 The angel will not be worshipped. 17 The fowls called to the great slaughter.

AND after these things [a]I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia: [b]Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:

2 For [c]true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and [d]hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Alleluia. And [e]her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

4 And [f]the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, [g]Amen; Alleluia.

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, [h]Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, [i]both small and great.

6 [k]And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for [l]the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for [m]the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

8 And [n]to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and ‖white: [o]for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, [p]Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, [q]These are the true sayings of God.

10 And [r]I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, [s]See thou do it not: I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren [t]that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

11 [u]And I saw heaven opened, and behold, [x]a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called [y]Faithful and True, and [z]in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

12 [a]His eyes were as a flame of fire, [b]and on his head were many crowns; [c]and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.

13 [d]And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called [e]The Word of God.

14 [f]And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, [g]clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And [h]out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and [i]he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and [k]he treadeth the wine-press of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

16 And [l]he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, [m]KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying [n]to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, [o]Come, and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

18 [p]That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 [q]And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

20 [r]And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and [s]them that worshipped his image. [t]These both were cast alive into a lake of fire [u]burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant [x]were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: [y]and all the fowls [z]were filled with their flesh.

CHAPTER XX.

2 Satan bound for a thousand years. 6 The first resurrection: they blessed that have part therein. 7 Satan let loose again. 8 Gog and Magog. 10 The devil cast into the lake of fire and brimstone. 12 The last and general resurrection.

1 AND I saw an angel come down from heaven, [a]having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on [b]the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years,

3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and [d]set a seal upon him, [e]that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled; and after that he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw [f]thrones, and they sat upon them, and [g]judgment was given unto them: and I saw [h]the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and [i]which had not worshipped the beast, [k]neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and [l]reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such [m]the second death hath no power, but they shall be [n]priests of God and of Christ, [o]and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, [p]Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall go out [q]to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth,

[r]Gog and Magog, [s]to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 [t]And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 [u]And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, [x]where the beast and the false prophet are, and [y]shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face [z]the earth and the heaven fled away; [a]and there was found no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, [b]small and great, stand before God; [c]and the books were opened: and another [d]book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, [e]according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; [f]and death and ‖hell delivered up the dead which were in them: [g]and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And [h]death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. [i]This is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life [k]was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAPTER XXI.

1 A new heaven and a new earth. 10 The heavenly Jerusalem, with a full description thereof. 23 She needeth no sun, the glory of God is her light. 24 The kings of the earth bring their riches unto her.

AND [a]I saw a new heaven and a new earth: [b]for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw [c]the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared [d]as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, [e]the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 [f]And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and [g]there shall be no more death, [h]neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

5 And [i]he that sat upon the throne said, [k]Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for [l]these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, [m]It is done. [n]I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. [o]I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 He that overcometh shall inherit ‖all things; and [p]I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

8 [q]But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in [r]the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

9 And there came unto me one of [s]the seven angels, which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee [t]the bride, the Lamb's wife.

10 And he carried me away [u]in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me [x]that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

11 [y]Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper-stone, clear as crystal;

12 And had a wall great and high, and had [z]twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel.

13 [a]On the east, three gates; on the north, three gates; on the south, three gates; and on the west, three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and [b]in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me, [c]had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, a hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 [d]And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl; [e]and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

22 [f]And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 [g]And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

24 [h]And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

25 [i]And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for [k]there shall be no night there.

26 [l]And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

27 And [m]there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie; but they which are written in the Lamb's [n]book of life.

CHAPTER XXII.

1 The river of the water of life. 2 The tree of life. 5 The light of the city of God is himself. 9 The angel will not be worshipped. 18 Nothing may be added to the word of God, nor taken therefrom.

AND he shewed me [a]a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

2 [b]In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there [c]the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were [d]for the healing of the nations.

3 And [e]there shall be no more curse: [f]but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him:

4 And [g]they shall see his face; and [h]his name shall be in their foreheads.

5 [i]And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for [k]the Lord God giveth them light: [l]and they shall reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, [m]These sayings are faithful and true. And the Lord God of the holy prophets [n]sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7 [o]Behold, I come quickly: [p]blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, [q]I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, [r]See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

10 [s]And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: [t]for the time is at hand.

11 [u]He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 [x]And behold, I come quickly; and [y]my reward is with me, [z]to give every man according as his work shall be.

13 [a]I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 [b]Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right [c]to the tree of life, [d]and may enter in through the gates into the city.

15 For [e]without are [f]dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.

16 [g]I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. [h]I am the root and the offspring of David, and [i]the bright and morning star.

17 And the Spirit and [k]the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. [l]And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

18 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, [m]If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, [n]God shall take away his part ‖out of the book of life, and out of [o]the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

20 He which testifieth these things saith, [p]Surely I come quickly: [q]Amen. [r]Even so, come, Lord Jesus.

21 [s]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

A CHRONOLOGICAL INDEX TO THE HOLY BIBLE,

ACCORDING TO THE COMPUTATION OF ARCHBISHOP USHER;

SHOWING IN WHAT YEAR OF THE WORLD, AND WHAT YEAR BEFORE CHRIST, OR AFTER CHRIST, EACH EVENT HAPPENED, AND THE PLACES OF SCRIPTURE WHERE THEY ARE RECORDED; INTERSPERSED WITH THE PRINCIPAL EVENTS IN PROFANE HISTORY.

It may be necessary here to premise a few observations in explanation of the various æras introduced into this work, by which any year of these æras which corresponds to a given year of the Christian æra, or the year of the world, may be easily discovered by the application of the rules of addition or subtraction. The Alexandrian æra is that chronological computation which was used by the people of Alexandria, who reckoned 5502 years before A.D. The Antiochian æra is a correction of the preceding, made in the fourth century, by Pandorus, an Egyptian monk, and used by the people of Antioch; and it differs from the Alexandrian only by subtracting ten years. The Constantinopolitan æra is that used by the Byzantine historians, and by the Greek church, which reckons 5508 years before Christ. The Julian Period is a factitious æra, conceived by Joseph Scaliger, to facilitate the reduction of the years of any given epoch to that of another; and is the result of the lunar and solar cycles, and the indictions, multiplied by each other. Thus, 19, the lunar cycle, multiplied by 28, the solar cycle, produces 532, which multiplied by 15, the cycle of indictions, amounts to 7980 years, which constitute the Julian Period; in the first year of which all these three cycles begin together; and in the 4714th year of which falls the first year of the Christian æra. The Solar Cycle is a revolution consisting of 28 years; the Lunar Cycle, or Golden Number, of 19; the Cycle of Indictions, of 15 years; and the Dionysian Period, of 532, being the product of the Solar and Lunar Cycles multiplied by each other, called also the Paschal Cycle, because in that period the Christian Passover, or Easter, a moveable feast, has gone through all possible variations, and the Solar and Lunar Cycles, Dominical, or Sunday Letters, Paschal Terms, Epacts, New Moons, &c., all recommence exactly as they had done 532 years before. The Nabonnssarean æra takes its name from Nabonassar, king of Babylon, and commences 747 years before A.D. The æra of Iphitus, king of Elis, took its rise 884 years before Christ, in consequence of his restoration of the Olympic games. The Olympiads derive their origin from the institution of the Olympic games, which were celebrated every four years, at the time of the first new moon after the summer's solstice; and the first Olympiad is commonly reckoned from the conquest of Olympia by Coræbus, B.C. 776: it need scarcely be added, that each Olympiad consists of four years. The year of the building of Rome (A.U.C.) is an important æra among the Roman historians, and commenced, according to Varro, which is generally received, B.C. 753; but according to Cato and the Fasti Consulares, B.C. 752; according to Polybius, B.C. 751; and according to Fabius Pictor, B.C. 747.
